H. A. Galloway, who for the last six months has been editor and manager of the Enterprise, has severed his connection with the paper and retired. Mr. E. C. Thomas, of Troy, Ohio, who was interested in the venture with Mr. Galloway has succeeded to the management of the paper and will give it his personal attention.

HAWKS AND OWLS.

"Hawks and Owls from the Standpoint of a Farmer," is the title of the latest publication—a free circular—of the biological survey of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Many farmers condemn the whole tribe of these rapacious birds as being inimical to their interests. With a very few exceptions this is shown to be an entire mistake, and the relentless persecution of our birds of prey as a class is not only unjust, but is extremely prejudicial to the interests of the farmer, orchardist and sportsman. In many localities, however, the men directly interested are awakening to the facts of the case and learning to cast aside prejudice and to appreciate the valuable services rendered by the indefatigable hawks and owls in ridding their fields, plantations, and covers of noxious pests.

The circular gives a concise history of the various species of these birds, and divides them into three classes: (1) those wholly beneficial to the farmer; (2) the class in which the harmful and beneficial qualities balance each other; and (3) the harmful class. The latter is by far the smallest, comprising only the Cooper hawk, sharp-shinned hawk, duck hawk and goshawk. The beneficial class contains no less than thirty-five varieties of hawks and owls.

Fossils who own the land in the business district of Aurora are charged by the Borealis with being responsible for the town not growing. It says not a foot of business property can be bought in the present district, and when a newcomer wants to locate and go into business there he is turned down with a hard thump. The Borealis says Aurora should be the best trading point in Marion county but is at a standstill while Hubbard is growing, new stores going in; Canby is on a boom, new residences going up, new business houses being started; Wilsonville is booming. Needy doing more business than ever, and there is sure to be a town spring up at the substitution of the electric company at Feller.

We are told that John D. Rockefeller said, when he learned Judge Landis had fined his company: "Judge Landis will be dead a long time before that fine is paid." Are we to understand that the Standard has hid all its assets, or is there to be a war rather than pay, in which Standard Oil men will shoulder the musket and go forth to battle and to die?

State Senator Hedges questions whether the state law is paramount to Milwaukee's charter, but he has few people on his side. Anyhow, District Attorney Hedges says the club will not be allowed to reopen, and the club managers will surely not be so foolish as to attempt to defy both the law and public opinion.

District Attorney Hedges has extended his benign moral wave clear out to Astoria town. If any place ever needed a cleaning Astoria does, says the Estacada News. The whole district, Clatsop, Clackamas, Washington and Columbia counties will get rid of many of the "undesirable" citizens.

Here is the way one exchange puts it: Though the business policy of John D. Rockefeller has always been "do them good," he tells his Sunday school class that the way to be prosperous and happy is to "do good." Now why don't he give them the whole receipt.

The day of publication of the Aurora Borealis has been changed from Saturday to Thursday. "In order to more properly advertise social events and dances, which nearly always occur on Saturday." The Borealis is one of the snappiest weeklies in the valley.

The legislature has decided that the grocer must sell pure goods, and long years ago said he must give full weight and count. Now why not tell the producer to put a full quart of berries in his boxes so that the grocer can sell quarts rather than "boxes?"

It is said that the new order permitting the writing of messages upon both sides of postal cards has caused the delivery of mails to be late in the country towns, because the postmistresses have so much more to do before handing it out.

You continue to hear favorable comments on the action of Judge Landis in assessing fines against the Standard Oil company, and the returns are not all in yet. And the collection of these fines will be followed with more favorable comments.

A man who cares not for the laws of his country, which seems true of Rockefeller, cannot be expected to care much for the laws of the Creator, even if he does place $5 on the collection plate each time he is present.

Eugene is to hold an election on Labor Day to vote on the proposition of bonding the town $300,000 for a lighting plant. Council appointed that day not remembering there was such a thing as Labor Day.

China pheasants are "taking possession" of things in Linn county and the farmers say they will destroy them regardless of the game law protecting them.

When one stops to think that a man was sent to the penitentiary for a year for stealing two salmon the Standard Oil company's fine is not so severe after all.

The State Labor Commission is after the employers of women and girls in Eugene who have been charged with violating the ten-hour-day law.

One man who knocked his home town in Canada was arrested, tried and fined $200 with the threat of tar and feathers for his next offense.

The German Emperor has decided to start a stock farm, for the production of cavalry horses, in the blue grass regions of Kentucky.

Georgia has decided that if a Negro wants to vote he must pay taxes on $500.

HORSE WANTED.

Would like to hire a saddle horse for two or three days a week. Will be given good care and not overridden. Address, IXL, care Enterprise.

Washington Hop Crop.

Western Washington hops will likely be of good quality this year. While the growing hop crop is backward on Puget Sound, the quality is reported as superior to any crop so far raised. Weather conditions, dry and hot, have been very favorable to the growing vines, and lice have so far been few and easily kept down. The yield of the state is now placed at about 45,000 bales.

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, aches, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure." Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures or money refunded at Howell & Jones' drug store, 25 cents.

LOCAL NEWS

The question of site for the new bridge at Estacada has not been settled at this writing. Those who wish the new bridge located further down stream, and opposite the town, have offered to raise the necessary money to build the new approaches.

Oregon's team of expert riflemen, picked from the national guard of the state have left for Port Clinton, Ohio, where the national contests will be held. The party is composed of 18 men, there being 15 sharpshooters and three officers in command.

The grange at Logan is making great preparations for the annual Grange Fair that is to be held at that place October 18. Prizes are to be given for all kinds of produce, handiwork and cattle. One of the features will be a baby show in the afternoon.

Word recently received from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster at Washington by Postmaster Rendall announces the extension of rural route No. 3, beginning September 1, from Carus postoffice one mile west and return. The Carus office will be discontinued.

The low stage of water in the Willamette River has caused the closing down of the grinders in the paper mill and the employes in that department have been added to the force of workmen engaged in constructing an addition to mill A, on what is called Rock Island.

Thursday Chiffarelli's Italian band began an engagement at The Oaks. Miss Ruth Greene, of Boston, is the soprano soloist for the organization. There are five other soloists and a harpist and the engagement of this attraction promises a rare treat for the patrons of The Oaks.

Mrs. Hannah Mary Feathers, who died at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at her home near Damascus, was buried Monday in the Damascus cemetery. Mrs. Feathers was 63 years of age and is survived by a husband and four children. She had been ill only a few days.

Matthew Slush, whose name on a deed makes good reading as Shish, has brought an injunction to restrain Recorder Ramsby from placing the deed on the records in the name of Shish. Slush fears it might invalidate his title and asks that his proper name be used even if the signature does not look as he would like it.

Latest railway news with a local flavor is to the effect that the Willamette Falls railway is to be extended to intersect the new Portland-Salem line, now building. It is said that four miles of new railway would make the junction, and when the Portland-Salem line is completed this new improvement is certain to follow.

Clarence Broughton and Gera Hall, each 16 years of age and hailing from Mulino, landed in Albany one day last week. The actions of the young couple aroused the suspicions of the police, and an investigation revealed the fact that they had run away from home with the purpose of getting married. The Albany police took them in charge and held them until friends arrived to take them home.

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye and Mr. Trafton Dye, her son, are home from an enjoyable trip to Alaska. They went as far north as Skagway and were greatly pleased with the country—as a land for a summer outing. Mr. Dye says Alaska is a country of great dimensions and resources, and especially are her resources in mineral wealth remarkable. At one point they stopped, the salmon were so thick one could catch them with the hands.

C. Schuebel planted a number of trout in the Abernethy at his headwaters several years ago and Monday took his line and pole and went out to see if his fish would recognize his bait. He captured ten of them ranging in length from seven to ten inches. Two were taken two miles from where they were planted, but were recognized as his own from the fact that no one else ever planted that kind of trout in the stream.

Uncle Sam has investigated Standard Oil far enough to find that it has been the policy of the company to keep the price of oil high enough in the United States so that it might undersell all competitors in foreign fields. This is un-American and should be checked—that is the company should not be allowed to sell oil manufactured in America to foreign citizens at a less price than to people in the land where it is produced, rectified and given protection in its business.

There are no end to the rumors concerning the Milwaukee Country Club, and as to what its founders will soon do in the matter of starting a fight in the courts. It is said that when Isaac Gratton, who is named as the founder of the club, returns from his trip abroad there will be a fight on that will determine for a certainty whether or not the club has the right to run under its license or is amenable to higher law than the council of Milwaukee. Sheriff Beattie says the club will not be permitted to run pending the decision of the higher courts.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by Howell & Jones.

Dade's Little Liver Pills keep the system clean, the stomach sweet. Prompt relief for headache and biliousness. Good for all the family. Sold by Huntley Bros.

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jenison, Spring Grove, York county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by Howell & Jones.

Awoke to Find He Was Wed.

To awaken in the morning after a long snooze, after a "night out" and find himself married, was the sad fate of David Sorg, of Cleveland, Ohio, designer of women's gowns. That is what he told in divorce court recently. He said he also made the discovery that his wife was ten years older than himself, but he decided to make the best of the situation and live with her. He does not remember when, where or by whom the marriage was performed. He said his wife would come to his store and watch him fit gowns or other women and then create disturbances and drive away his patrons because she said he was trying to flirt with them. The case was continued.

Calls Divorce a Blessing.

Make divorcees more easy; give every one a divorce who wants one. Don't make them wait. This is the position taken by Dr. Anna Blount, sociologist and clubwoman, in an address before the Chicago West Side Equal Suffrage association. She says: "Most persons take it for granted that there is nothing but evil in divorce. If the juries that try divorcees could be made up of women I think there would be many more granted. Think of the thousands of women who are anxious to take this step to get out of greater degradation in bearing children to an inhuman father. It is the final step in many cases that a woman takes to save her soul."

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Oregon City Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

E. Warner, living in Elyville, village near Oregon City, Or., says: "I had kidney trouble until it run into diabetes. I had backache day and night, and had to get up nearly every hour of the night to pass the secretions. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Huntley Bros' drug store in Oregon City. In about a week after commencing to take them I could sleep the entire night without unusual disturbance. All pain and other annoying symptoms had ceased and I stopped taking them. I had a slight recurrence of the trouble after a few weeks, but on using Doan's Kidney Pills again the relief was immediate."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OLD LIES REFUTED.

Unquestionably sheep are close grazers; but it is worthy of notice that in New Mexico and Arizona there are sheep ranges that have been pastured continuously for more than 200 years, and that have more sheep on them and better pasture than ever before in the memory of man. It is apparent, therefore, that sheep are far from being so destructive as the champions of the cattle interests would have the public believe. The further assertion that no genuine cowboy hesitates to make and swear to—that cattle will not graze in company with sheep, nor even upon grounds where sheep have recently been pastured—must be dismissed as a gross and inexcusable libel upon the good sense of the cows. Any one who visits the ranges of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, or any other of the great stock-raising commonwealths, may see millions of sheep and cattle browsing together in perfect amity and good fellowship. It is evident, therefore, that the wars of the range are purely of man's making, and that there is no deep-seated enmity or race prejudice between the four-footed representatives of the two great branches of the Western live stock industry.
