

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Where are you going to pick hops? is the usual greeting one gets in meeting a neighbor, and soon this place will be a closed town.

Will Hall, while driving down the Molalla road met with an accident, last Saturday, that might have been more serious than it was. The coupling came apart and let the load down, throwing Mr. Hall and Pearl Selby to the ground. Mr. Hall struck heavily on his side and hip, making him quite lame. Pearl Selby performed a couple of somersaults and got his clothes muddy.

A family from Canby moved into the house near the Wiley May store building.

Mrs. D. D. Hamilton, from Burlington, Iowa, is visiting her cousins, Mrs. Will Hall and Miss Pearl Currin.

Mrs. T. F. Carrico came in from the Superior Lumber company's camp and attended the Artisan entertainment, and returned to the camp Saturday, taking Mrs. Hamilton with her to spend a few days before starting to her home in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford have moved to the Warner place and while we regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Warner, who have moved down town, we are glad to welcome Mr. Crawford's family.

Mr. Moran had another operation performed on his thumb that was mashed several weeks ago. Dr. Sommer amputated a portion but as it did not heal readily he had to take off another piece. Mr. Moran has suffered from pain quite a little and has been unable to work.

Ed Gotberg's team fell while pulling logs at the Moran-Barley mill last Monday and one of the horses had nearly all the ribs crushed in on one side, and is not likely to recover.

Mr. Gorbett bought the Frost property on Holmes avenue, and will take possession at once. The hophouse is being remodeled and put in shape for this season's crop which will be picked the first week in September.

Millard Gillett spent a few days at Newport, returning home last Monday.

Wm. Beard and family, Dr. Beard and family, John Gilett and daughter, Lillian, also Jim Currins started to the mountains to pick buckberries. They will be gone a week.

STRAY HORSE.

White horse, shod all around, branded on both shoulders with T, weighs about 1,200; can be seen at my ranch at Colton. C. E. GORBETT.

CLARKES.

We had a splendid rain for garden and potatoes. There was no damage to the grain in Clarkes.

Samuel Elmer will start to thrash this week in the neighborhood.

The timber cruiser was in Clarkes again last week and he had two of his daughters along. They are from Michigan, and came to Oregon for their health.

Mr. and Mrs. Rounds from Dix's saw mill, and O. Dix and wife spent Sunday in Elwood.

Peter Schlowe is building a granary for Wetlaufer.

The Clarkes M. E. church will be dedicated August 25.

Christ Bittner in Elwood is ill.

Gus Schlowe spent Sunday with his parents.

Fred Marshall is cutting grain for his son Ben.

V. Larkins was riding horseback and the horse ran against a telephone post and he was considerably hurt.

We have nice weather again and the farmers are busy cutting grain and some are in a hurry to get through threshing, as they want to go to hop picking.

For Sale—Gentle driving horse, city broke. Woman or child can manage. Will drive single or double. Enquire at Secret Feed Barn, Oregon City.

BARTON.

Mrs. Peter Pier has returned from Long Branch where she has been a few days with her children.

Joe DeShazer of Dover was seen going through town a few days since with an apple dryer. That means 50¢ a box for the poorest part of his crop.

Heard on the street—if the sheriff ever comes to this town he will have to take water.

Mrs. Swier for some time, returned to Portland the first of the week.

Ruth Patton of Forest Grove is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Patton.

W. C. Ward is preparing to put up a windmill near his residence. He will place a large tank about forty feet above the ground. This will not only hold water for fire protection but also to irrigate his garden.

Charles Stone and family of Portland, once residents of Viola, are camped near the parsonage for a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Sevier and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hinchbotham, spent Sunday at Estacada.

Mr. Cop of Portland lately bought the store of J. P. Galeener. The new merchant seems to understand arranging a country store.

HOOD VIEW.

A very pretty wedding took place in the First Presbyterian church in Portland, Saturday, August 10, at 8:30 P. M., when the Rev. Foulkes united Miss Kate Buchanan Graham, formerly of this place, and Dr. Arthur W. Chance, a very popular and well known dentist of Portland, in the sacred bonds of wedlock. Dr. Mae H. Cardwell acting as matron of honor, and being the only attendant.

The bride wore a lace gown over white silk with veil and cluster of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses. The matron was gowned in a handsome silk chiffon over lavender silk, and carried a profusion of lavender sweet peas and ferns. The altar was very tastily decorated with white and pink sweet peas, sword and maidenhair ferns.

William Wallace Graham, brother of the bride, played the wedding march on the violin accompanied by Prof. Goodrich on the organ. Only about 50 of the most intimate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present.

Dr. and Mrs. Chance received their friends at the Hotel Portland and left immediately for a short wedding tour of the Sound Cities and Vancouver, B. C.

WILSONVILLE.

The Seely brothers have just returned from a hunting expedition in which they did not get much game but had a good time.

Grant Lichtenhaler has his new barn completed on the outside but there is still considerable to be done inside. The carpenters got in a hurry to finish Mr. Hasselbrink's house.

Gust Jaeger has his new round barn covered to the rafters; it measures 160 feet across and is perfectly round, and looks like a silo of huge dimensions.

W. W. Graham, of Portland, and Dorris Young, are starting to Ocean Park on a fishing trip Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Brobst and family are still at Carson Springs.

Bert Baker, Johnny Hunt and two of their friends returned from the mountains, where they had the good luck to see one bear and some deer tracks. The boys had a good time.

SUNNYSIDE.

About twenty of the young people of the neighborhood went on a picnic to Columbia Slough last Sunday in a large wagon. They carried a liberal lunch and had plenty of watermelons, had fine boat rides and reported the best time imaginable.

Some of the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Elva Hunter on the afternoon of the thirteenth to celebrate her 49th birthday. A pleasant social time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Stoll's have been having the threshers, but will be obliged to have them again this year when the other grain ripens. Mr. Nelson also threshed Tuesday.

The neighborhood was saddened by the death of Mrs. Hannah M. Feathers on Sunday, August 11. Her sickness only lasted about 24 hours. Deceased was well respected; her age was 63 years. Funeral was held at the Dunkard church; interment at Damascus cemetery. Rev. Mr. Selwood, of Milwaukie delivered the funeral sermon. She will be greatly missed but there will be a glad reunion bye and bye.

Mr. V. Sexton, of Portland was hunting cows to buy Wednesday morning. He bought one of Joe Deardorff.

Reeds baled out 31 tons and 1500 pounds in one day recently.

We see Miss Anna Young in our midst Tuesday. Mary Long is at home on a short visit.

Dr. Rowlands held the fourth quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday. The Elabie claim was paid in full, the pastor's salary all pledged, and $5 missionary money from the Sunday School. The ladies served lunch and Rev. J. W. Exon preached in the afternoon.

Joseph DeShazer drove to Oregon City Friday.

MOLALLA.

The Molalla M. E. Church is to be dedicated next Sunday. Everybody has an invitation.

W. W. Everhart is very sick with appendicitis, and will probably undergo an operation as soon as he gets able to be moved to the hospital.

Mrs. Taylor, of Seattle, has been visiting with Mrs. Clifford the past week and returned home today via Hillsborough.

W. A. Shaver has purchased a new separator and will begin threshing in a few days.

Everybody appreciated the recent rain.

STAFFORD.

The Frobec's team ran away in Portland Saturday, throwing him out, bruising him up considerably, and rendering him unconscious for a time. But we are glad to say no serious hurts. The horses then turned and ran over a Mrs. Baker, injuring her very seriously.

Henry Baker had the misfortune to have the scaffolding break with him while working on DeNu's house. In the fall his wrist was broken and he received several bruises.

The rain of last week did lots of good to gardens and growing crops and this week men go rested again in to the harvest field.

The Moser machine started to thresh last week, but most of the grain is not ready yet. It seems to turn out pretty well this year.

SHERWOOD.

The threshing machine belonging to E. L. Baker and the entire grain crop of Albert Voss, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is thought the fire started by a spark from the engine catching in a wheat stack near the separator. The men, instead of trying to smother the flames began to throw the bundles, scattering the fire broadcast and igniting the separator and all within reach. The grain stacks burned all night. One-half of Mr. Voss' grain was finally saved. Sidney Baker was slightly burned about the face. Mr. Baker expects to get a new separator and continue the work at once.

Miss Susie Iler, who has been ill at her mother's since July 1, was taken to Portland Saturday to the Good Samaritan hospital, and Dr. Andy Giesy, the attending physician, says that an operation is not necessary, and thinks Miss Iler will not be there more than three weeks.

Elmer Jones, while picking plums Wednesday afternoon, fell to the ground, receiving internal injuries and perhaps several fractured ribs.

Quite a merry day of feasting on good things was enjoyed at the home of Wm. Murray, Sunday. Among those present were Mrs. Crissell and sons, Dolph Crissell and family, Geo. Yergen and family, Fred Yergen and sons, and John Murray and family, all of Aurora and vicinity.
