W. A. Woodside has been very busy with his binder for the past week.

Mr. Udell, our mail carrier, is going to move to Mulino in the near future so he will be close to his work.

Oscar Daniels has moved up to the Dix Bros.' mill to work for the winter.

ELWOOD.

A good number of the Elwood people have been going to the huckleberry patch. Everyone was well pleased with the new government trail. The berries are not as thick as usual. Three gallons a day is good picking. Some of the people of Elwood are busy harvesting. They expect a good yield.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayland are having la grippe and Ernest Vailen is on the sick list, too.

MILWAUKIE.

The Grange Fair is the coming "event" and plans are taking shape to make it a most interesting occasion. October 3, 4, and 5 are the dates. President Kerr, of Oregon Agricultural college, has been invited to speak on Thursday evening. Friday will be "Pioneer Day." The speaking is not yet arranged for but there will be a large exhibit of all articles, older than 1850. A reception will be given in the afternoon. Mr. George H. Himes will be an honored guest and several interesting talks are on for the evening. This will be a most important "feature." Saturday will be the baby show, the auction, and will close with a dance. Any and all exhibits, suitably labeled will be carefully placed, societies will be gladly given space, and it is hoped all will send something to add to what is expected to be a credit to Clackamas county and this prominent town, so please do not forget the days of the Milwaukie Fair.

Floyd Scott and Leo Duffy spent several days at Corvallis last week, getting acquainted with the college and its work.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan was a Grange visitor, Saturday, and came in very handy during the taxation lesson. He secured the promise of Milwaukie to exhibit at the Gladstone Fair and its co-operation in the County Fair.

Mrs. Spooner of Harmony was a Grange visitor.

"Harmony Home Coming" will be celebrated Saturday, August 29, by an all-day picnic on the historic grounds of the '40's. Splendid refreshments and a good time is guaranteed.

J. H. Reid is deep in inspecting pears just now. The state board is determined to keep right on enforcing the law and scabby or diseased fruit cannot be put upon the market.

The farmers are the busiest of people these days getting in their grain for the winter. In many places the farmers have finished their harvest, and are now turning their thoughts to their fruit. The dry weather has been good for the grain, but in many places the gardens are in need of water.

Most of the farmers of the Carus neighborhood have finished harvesting, and the crop in this section was very good. William V. Davis' crop was the largest in that vicinity, his crop aggregating 1520 bushels. The crop of the New Era precinct was fairly good this year, and most all of the farmers of that section have about finished getting in their grain.

The potato crop all through the county this year is good, and the recent rains did an immense lot of good, and are bringing a wholesale price of 85 and 90 cents per sack.

CARUS.

It is reported that Mr. Jacob Kaufflash has sold his farm.

It is cheering to all to read in The Enterprise from the many correspondents of the excellent crops of grain, fruits and vegetables our beautiful soil and climate has again produced. This part of the great valley of Willamette is not behind. Our crops are good and the grain in this neighborhood is all threshed and safely housed.

Henry Hughes with his threshing crew came in and threshed for the entire neighborhood. First, Mr. Ed Howard, then Mr. Symption, Tucker, Mr. Johnson, Casto, Irish, and last but not least, Wm. V. Davis, who had the banner crop in this part—1520 bushels. Our crops were all good and we are all well satisfied.

Alfred Smith and family have sold their farm to a Mr. Brown, of Iowa. Mr. Smith has bought in Oregon City and will soon move. We are sorry to have them leave.

William V. Davis has nearly completed one of the largest and best prune driers in the county.

The prospect is good for a good crop of potatoes. The late rains delayed the threshing, but did the potato crop an immense amount of good and helped the gardens and fruit. There is a good crop of prunes.

Mr. Cooper, postmaster at Carus, resigned and the office will, after August 31, be a thing of the past and route No. 3, R. F. D., will extend west to the corner of the Alpine Farm, or one mile on the town line road, west of the plank road.

COLTON.

Mr. Wettlaufer got a load of shingles last Tuesday for his new granary which he is building.

P. E. Bonney, the Colton merchant, bought a new phonograph.

Ed Ball, one of the owners of the Colton shingle mill, sold his right to his partner, Milton Williams.

W. E. Bonney and brother, Frank, went to town Friday and came back Saturday.

Phillip Putz helped Mr. Wettlaufer to stack his grain Wednesday and Thursday.

Frank Dix preached at the Colton Hall last Sunday at 1 o'clock A. M. Quite a crowd attended.

U. S. Dix started to thresh last Monday.

A. B. Countryman is building a new barn.

Putz Bros. helped their friend stack his grain last week.

J. Putz is hauling water for Sam Elmer's engine.

Jacob Bauer, his wife and two children, of Sherwood, are visiting at his brother's, Britz Baurer.

H. Gordon and wife went to Cazedero, where he is going to work.

MEADOWBROOK.

Nothing for the farmers to do now but work—harvest and threshing.

J. Mallat is having his hay baled and I. D. Larkins is entertaining the balers his week.

Mr. Noon is having the W. A. Shaver barn at the sawmill filled with hay and mill feed.

Holman Brothers and families, of Portland, are visiting at the ranch this week.

Deer are quite numerous. Some have venison galore and some have none.

Mr. Bowman is building an addition to his house on South Main street.

C. L. Staudinger, head sawyer at the Broughton sawmill, was riding around Sunday with his pockets filled with cigars hunting catnip. C. L. can be heard at all hours of the night walking the floor and singing: "It's a boy and it weighs ten pounds."

Mr. Dennison made a business trip to the county hub Monday with some fine beef cattle.

Ralph Holman has a fine lot of Holatine hogs ready for market.

Pearl Hall is at home once more, and is laid up for repairs. He stuck a picaroon into his foot.

Meadowbrook school will begin the 7th of October, with Miss Birdie Blair as principal.

LOGAN.

The hum of the thrasher is making sweet music in the farmers' ears and grain is turning out fairly well.

Ralph Tracy and Gerber Bros. are hiking the grain into the granaries in a hurry.

Gerber Bros. have a weighing outfit with their machine, this year, which is a great improvement.

Many improvements are noted in Logan. Mrs. A. Fallert and son, Karl, are building an addition to their house, Jacob Durig is doing the same; H. S. Anderson is building a substantial barn, with concrete foundations, and Henry Habler has a new granary.

Mrs. E. Brown has returned from a visit with her daughter at Eugene.

Mrs. Reed, of Portland, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. Frakes. M. Johnston, George and Henry Reed were out from Portland last week.

L. Kirchem is at Newport for a few weeks' sojourn. He says he has joined the army of loafers and roamers. Huckleberries are not ripe there, but salal berries are big as cherries and plentiful. About 2000 campers are there.

A. Swales reports having sold about 200 sack of potatoes so far this season, for some of which he received $2.50 per sack. Rather profitable business at that rate.

The hot weather killed some of the potatoes too soon and the tubers are small.

Ole Thompson is on the sick list. Do not forget that Fair October 18. Prepare samples of your products and let us have a creditable display.

LIQUOR LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the council of Oregon City at its next regular meeting for a renewal of his liquor license until March 1, 1907, at his present place of business, 702 Main street, Oregon City.

A. H. GRIESSEN.

STRAY HORSE.

White horse, shod all around, branded on both shoulders with T, weighs about 1200; can be seen at my ranch at Colton.

C. E. GORBETT.

There's a Reason for Everything

The reason we enjoy the largest dental practice in Oregon City is because we try to excel in our work. Our work lasts, we never do poor work. The people know it. Our constant effort is to give not "just as good" but the best work, and that for as little money as possible. Our recent trip East to the great centers of dental education, was for the purpose of giving you the latest and best, up-to-date dentistry. Our seventeen years of successful practice in Oregon City is the best guarantee any dentist can give you. A guarantee is good only as long as you can find one who gives it, and then not
