

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

REDLAND.

Threshers are through and have put their machines away.
Julius Spees and G. Schneider have bought a new hay baler.

Slashing fires are burning around us and we all wish for rain to stop them.

Wm. Gaskell and daughter Nellie are home from a visit to friends in Washington.

Mr. Demoiné has bought 50 acres off the Latourette place, adjoining Mr. Brock, and he intends to live on it.

We are to have a free show to tell us all about the telephone, etc., September 17, 8 p. m.

Most of our young people will pick hops on the Trullinger place on Cedar Creek.

Report says the Weismantle place has been sold for $6,000. We hope the tenant will be permanent.

Bonney & Baker were forced to close their mill because of lack of help.

The Simpson family are thinking of moving to Portland for the winter.

F. Sprague expects to sell his place and go to Portland.

Send the Fruit Inspector out this way, and tell us when he is coming, and we will try and show him something he never saw in Clackamas county before.

MULINO.

The threshers have come and gone and the Mullinoes don't care now if it does rain.

The Mullino hop pickers are coming home again, and this town begins to look as though some one lived here again.

J. Trullinger, Royal and Minnie Trullinger, Mrs. D. L. Trullinger and Paulina Trullinger spent four or five days in the mountains and came out with about fifty gallons of huckleberries and a good brown color in their faces.

The hunters of Mulino would be greatly obliged to the editor if he would print the portion of the game laws relating to the killing of birds.

J. L. Udell is building a new barn on his property.

Miss Laura Pearl Rainey of Oregon City is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Trullinger, of Mulino.

Mr. Bruner is cutting corn for Mr. Barnes of Liberal.

The threshing was finished the quickest this year that it has been for a long time. Herman and Kaylor of Teasel Creek did the work.

NEEDY.

Hop picking is nearly over. Many hops are being left unpicked because of mold.

Miss May Price was overcome by the heat, while picking hops Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McSonegal have friends from Seattle visiting them.

Flora Spaglia is staying at Molson's, helping in the house.

MEADOWSBROOK.

The dry and hot weather made the threshing an easy job this year; fair yield of grain.

Mr. Noon, who succeeded W. A. Shaver in the milling business here, is erecting a new residence for his family at corner of Lake and Broughton.

The alarm of fire brought out the fire boys in prompt time Sunday afternoon; no damage done of consequence.

Charles Scott is to move here soon.

North Main street is to be improved soon.

We have a new 50-foot flag pole at the High School grounds.

J. W. Studinger and family were Sunday guests of H. S. Ramsby and family.

DOVER.

A. J. Kitzmiller has returned from a trip to Portland.

Dr. C. H. Atwood of Gresham spent the day Sunday with J. W. Exon.

Mr. Bews was up from Farmington last week.

Frank Morrison was home over Sunday.

George Wolf made a trip to Portland Saturday. Mrs. Wolf spent the day in Barton.

Gaylord Keith had gone to Farmington for two weeks to visit old schoolmates and relatives in Beaverton.

The J. D. Keath farm was sold last week to a man from Troutdale.

Captain and Mrs. Branson went to Oregon City last week for a few days.

NEW ERA.

Mr. and Mrs. Dustin visited in Dallas last week as guest of their daughter, Mrs. Laura Thompson.

McArthur's dog "Cub" was locked in the Warner Grange Hall for a week recently and nearly died of starvation and thirst.

Lumber is on the ground for a new bridge near J. F. Briggs'.

Mrs. Penman has as guest her daughter, Mrs. Martha Hinton, of Teakoa, Wash.

Roy Newberry is home from a visit to friends in Dallas.

Mr. Burgoyne has gone to Goldendale, Wash., to visit Joseph Parrot, who formerly lived here. The two expect to have a fine time hunting and fishing near Mt. Adams.

Ladies' shoes are being made so near like men's shoes these days that even the best of people are fooled. Trouble arose in a hop camp near here because of the fact that one young lady mistook her friend's shoes for those of a man, and was afraid he was in hiding somewhere in her tent.

RUSSELLVILLE.

Grain will yield fairly well in these parts, but not so good as last year. Threshers are busy here now.

Mrs. Trullinger was taken sick last week and Mr. Trullinger was called home from the hop country. She is now convalescent.

The Wingfield women folks have gone hop picking and Mr. Wingfield is compelled to do his own cooking—and, worst of all, eat it.

Miss Bessie Buckner was a guest last week at the Wingfield home.

A Mr. Brown from Iowa was looking up a location last week, but did not like our looks and so passed on.

Skunks have been making raids on chicken houses in this section, doing some little damage.

Mr. Skarer has had his thresher at work in this neck o' the woods, and is getting his share of the work.

STONE.

Frank Osborn of Damascus is in very poor health. The doctors say he is starving, and as nothing will lay on his stomach his friends fear this is true.

Mr. Tracy, who lives near Estacada, had wheat that yielded upwards of 50 bushels to the acre.

Farmers are still busy here. In this section the grain crop was good and the prunes promise great things.

Mr. Irvin, who lives at the foot of the Cascades, is trying several experiments this year. He has fine corn, something not seen every day, and his Evergreen has as high as seven ears on one stalk. He has also a nice crop of tobacco, something not often seen in this part of Oregon.

MILWAUKIE.

School will open Monday, the 16th.

Miss Elsie Miles is home from a three months' visit to friends and relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Ethel Walls and Miss Whitney of Portland spend Sunday with Mrs. Castro in Milwaukee Heights.

At last accounts the body of Hans Swenson, drowned last week at Astoria, had not been recovered. The family have the sympathy of the community.

The young people had a delightful time on the evening of the 2d inst. at the home of Mr. Miller, near this village. Games and refreshments were the chief events of the evening.

One of the most pleasant wedding events of the year occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Allen at Oak Grove, September 8, when their daughter Ada Pearl was given in wife to Harry E. Ballantyne. Many handsome gifts were added to the usual congratulations.

HIGHLANDS.

The price of lumber has taken a tumble hereabouts. Lumber men are wondering what will strike them next.

Miss Mabel Pullen has returned to her home in Gresham after a pleasant visit with the Misses Eva and Ruby Schram.

Lloyd and Eva Schram will attend school at Gresham the coming year. As our local schools only teach through the eighth grade it is necessary to go away from home to go any higher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens will attend the State Fair at Salem.

Mr. Wallis has sold forty acres of timber to McAfee; price not given to the public.

Theodore Wirtz is planning to move to Estacada in the near future.

MOLALLA.

Another hot spell is on, with the mercury above 90 in the shade.

Who said there would be no more dust and smoke this fall to speak of? How did you enjoy the recent blast of east wind?

Several pickers have returned from the hop yards on account of mold and contagious disease scare.

That Oregon City is now going to have the public wharf is indicative of a new order of advancement for city and county, and now without the immediate construction of the first mile of railroad Molalla ward would be the assassination of another wholesome project. Already we can see a prospective smile on W. B. Stafford's "Jersey" face, and "Mt. Pleasant" would be no mean place for the County Fair if the grounds do not come too high there.

Peter Faurie's red clover crop yielded one and one-half bushels per acre, but he can congratulate himself on having clean seed.

Frank Watts was breaking webfoot stone last week when a flying piece struck him just above the right eye, putting that "window out of sight" for awhile.

W. W. Everhart and Major Hungate went to their mountain cattle range last Saturday to look after their bovines that roam "its thousand hills."

Died, September 8, Mrs. Louvena Sawtell, of dropsy, in the 78th year of her age. Deceased was born at Summersetshire, England, came to New York when eight years old. Her maiden name was Louveridge. She married John Sawtell in 1853, coming to Oregon in 1857, and was the mother of twelve children, of whom three are living, Edith, John N. and Albert W. The husband died 30 years ago. She was a devoted member of the Grange, having joined that order soon after its inception. Her remains were placed at rest by Molalla Grange, No. 310, in the Wilmot farm by the side of her husband and several children.

The Molalla Grange fair committee on general arrangements have appointed the following subcommittees: Stock, H. A. Kayler, L. A. Daugherty, P. Z. Schamel. Agriculture, G. H. Nicolai, G. V. Adams, L. H. Cochran, Dora Moody, Edna Adams. Fancy work, Annie Everhart, Mary Robbins, Solon Echerd. Sports, George Ogle, V. H. Dunton, J. V. Harless. Stand and music, V. H. Dunton, H. M. Everhart, B. O. Cole. Juvenile department, Mrs. Katie Schamel, Mrs. May Faurie. Mrs. Jane Baty of East Molalla has returned from a month's visit with her daughter in Eastern Washington, and reports a very pleasant time while sojourning in that enterprising country.

B. F. Harless is treating his home to a fresh coat of paint. G. H. Gregory is preparing to go and do likewise.

Sam Gregory of Carus made his Molalla brother a visit Sunday.

LOGAN.

Some hop pickers are returning and say the hops are badly moulded.

A 15-acre slashing fire on farm of J. Boss caused a little excitement on Monday last. The wind fanned the flames and carried them up the hill to the Johnston place, burning some fences and a straw stack. About 25 men assisted in fighting the fire and succeeded in getting it under control. The little damage that was done will prove to be a benefit in the end.

M. H. Riethoff also had a slashing fire that gave the neighbors a little scare for awhile, but no damage was done.

The Oregonian evidently feels better now, after delivering its opinion of Clackamas county in Tuesday, Sept. 10, issue.

Miss Emma Fallert is home on a visit.

Miss Lulu Kirchem is visiting in Portland this week.

Saturday last was the regular monthly meeting of Harding Grange. About 35 spent the day in business and pleasure. Of the subjects brought up for discussion, Commissioner Reid's action in ridiculing the methods of the farmers of this county was talked on to considerable extent, and a resolution condemning such as unworthy character of a P. of H. was drawn up and ordered published. Another subject was, "Is it right for automobiles to traverse roads such as the Clackamas road from Parkplace to Baker's bridge?" It is too narrow for teams to pass in many places and is extremely dangerous to meet an auto with a team on that narrow road. This road is the only outlet the people here have to Oregon City and it certainly seems there ought to be laws to be depended on in regard to running the machines on narrow roads and grades.

M. H. Riethoff has gone to the mountains on a huckleberry expedition.

T. Eaden is building a new barn on his own land near Logan.

YOUR SAVINGS INVESTED

with us will be a working asset, good to keep and to have for an emergency or opportunity. Wise is the man who has his capital, no matter how small, deposited where it is at work earning more capital.

CARUS.

Most everybody from around here returned home from the hop fields Sunday. Those that haven't come yet are expected home this week.

William Davis began picking his prunes Monday. He has his new drier completed and will save most of his prunes this year by using both driers.

Berthena Howard spent Sunday with her father here.

Mr. Cooper will leave us in the near future. We all are sorry to see him go, and we give him our best wishes.

The meeting at the Evangelical church Sunday night was a failure on account of hop picking.

C. Stewart finished picking his hops last week.

Sturgis Bros. are moving their saw mill from Eldorado down on Albert Schoenborn's place.

ESTACADA.

Miss Kenedy, a trained nurse, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Irvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Calliff, Ed Strunk, Harvey Marshall and brother and the two Beebe boys were in the mountains picking huckleberries last week.

The following Estacada people were in the mountains last week for huckleberries: Clarke and Mrs. Mary Posson, Mrs. C. F. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. P. M. Wagner, Will Dale and F. M. Gill.

Francis M. Gill and Miss Iva May, both of Estacada, were married at 11:30 a. m. Monday at the Perkins Hotel in Portland. Rev. Hiram Vrooman celebrated as an author, lecturer and minister, performed the ceremony. The bride and groom are prominent in church work at Estacada. The groom is a well known granger, having been a state deputy master during the last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill will spend a few days at Newport and at Dufur, at which latter place Mr. Gill's father resides.

Harding Grange Adopts Resolutions. Harding Grange Hall, Sept. 7, 1907.

Resolved, That we, the members of Harding Grange, in regular session assembled, resent and condemn the utterances of J. H. Reid, fruit commissioner, as published in a recent issue of the Sunday Oregonian, and widely copied by other papers throughout the state, severely criticising the general intelligence and methods pursued by 99 per cent of the farmers of Clackamas county.

Resolved, Further, that his ridiculous utterances were entirely without foundation in fact (as all other absenters can testify) and unworthy the character of a patron.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to both the county papers and the Sunday Oregonian.

LOUIS FRANK,
MRS. W. P. KIRCHEM,
P. WILSON, Committee.

In Birmingham, England, where the city owns its own electric railways you ride two miles for two cents and longer distances proportionately. Wages are the same as in other lines of business and employes are pensioned at old age.

A large warehouse, owned by W. A. Standard, of Albion, and located at Riverside, Wash., was overloaded with sacked wheat and collapsed last week, scattering hundreds of bushels of grain over the ground.

The directors of the Lewiston-Clarkston Interstate fair at Lewiston, Idaho, will have a grape day on Wednesday, October 9, when great clusters of the delicious grapes raised in that state will be given to the visitors.

UNCLE SAM, WAKE UP!

The Salem Statesman says: "The Willamette river should be open to navigation the entire year as far south as Eugene. It is one of the greatest streams in the Pacific Northwest, and a few snags and sandbars ought not to make it an unprofitable waterway, so to speak."

There's a Reason for Everything

The reason we enjoy the largest dental practice in Oregon City is because we try to excel in our work. Our work lasts, we never do poor work. The people know it. Our constant effort is to give not "just as good" but the best work, and that for as little money as possible. Our recent trip East to the great centers of dental education, was for the purpose of giving you the latest and best, up-to-date dentistry. Our seventeen years of successful practice in Oregon City is the best guarantee any dentist can give you. A guarantee is good only as long as you can find one who gives it, and then not always. We are careful not to hurt you, as we have feelings ourselves. We want your work and want you to send us your friends. Have an eastern expert graduate assistant dentist. We put our own name back of our practice. Our prices are the lowest in the city for good work.
