WORLD NEWS

George L. Lilley, member of the House naval affairs committee, who has been criticized because of his outspoken attitude on Charleston harbor, has written an open letter in which he says: "If I had the supreme law-making power in this country, the only crime punishable with death would be that of drafting. Murder would receive secondary consideration.
In a dispatch from Havana Governor Magoon says that four new cases of yellow fever were discovered in Cienfuegos Thursday. All are Spaniards, except one American soldier, Private William Foster.
The San Francisco board of health today offered a bounty of ten cents for every rat caught in the city and county of San Francisco.
Fairbanks saved a girl from drowning. Bryan saved another from an automobile and now Uncle Joe Cannon comes into the Carnegie medal and presidential class by kicking a dog. The dispatches say the dog was mad, but whether he was mad before or after Joe kicked him is not stated.
Charles G. Burton, of Nevada, Missouri is the new commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic.
Congressman Hobson's Campaign. Captain Richmond P. Hobson, recently elected to congress from Alabama, has completed a very interesting trip through his district in the interest of forestry, drainage, road building and improved agriculture in general, says the Good Roads Magazine. Samuel Hill of Seattle, Wash., and Samuel C. Lancaster, consulting engineer of the office of public roads, and other experts of the United States department of agriculture accompanied Captain Hobson on this trip. It is believed that much good will result from his campaign and that as soon as the benefits resulting from it, both to the district and to the congressman, are made known other members of congress will inaugurate similar campaigns in their districts.
