

LOCAL BRIEFS

The McMinnville Fair is in progress this week.

Unity and Katron postoffices will become money order offices October 1.

A "fresh guy" rang the fire bell in St. John "just for fun." It cost him $10 for his fun.

John L. Hyde, treasurer of Lincoln county since 1894, died September 13 at his home in Toledo.

With a Grays Harbor schoolteacher breaking his leg at football last week, the season may be said to have opened.

George DeBok of Willamette has sold his herd of dairy cows and will devote his time to raising fine chickens.

Miss Myrtle Maupin, of Helena, Mont., has been elected teacher of the Mount Pleasant school, which opens next Monday morning.

The Drain bank, closed by the failure of the Oregon Trust Company, of Portland, will reopen for business on October 1.

W. W. Smith reports that 3,500,000 Chinook salmon eggs have been taken at the state hatchery on the Clackamas river, at Cazadero.

If your children are of a school age and not in school it is well to read up on the compulsory education law. The Enterprise published it two weeks ago.

Papers of incorporation for the bank of St. Johns have been filed with the Secretary of state. The capital will be $50,000, and the bank will do a general banking business.

Rev. J. E. Snyder of Vancouver preached his farewell sermon Sunday night. He has been pastor of the Presbyterian church for two years and has done a good work.

H. H. Anderson has sold the timber on an 80-acre tract near Cazadero to W. B. Lemon and others. He is to receive 50 cents a thousand for pine and fir and 35 cents for other kinds. Work at the McLoughlin Institute has not progressed as fast as was expected and it was found advisable to postpone opening the schools there for another week, or until next Monday.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Missionary Society of the Baptist church Friday, at the home of Mrs. R. W. Porter in Canemah, it was decided to continue the weekly dinners during the coming winter.

The body of Hans Swanson, of Milwaukee, who was killed at Fort Stevens some time ago, was found at Shoalwater Bay near South Bend last week, forty miles from where the accident occurred.

Ladies of Willamette Rebekah lodge celebrated the 59th anniversary of its founding Friday evening at their lodge rooms. After an interesting program in which members participated refreshments were served.

Two Portland merchants are offering prizes in connection with the Clackamas county fair. The Reed-French Piano Manufacturing Co. offers an organ and the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. a spraying outfit for the first and second best Grange exhibits.

There was no service at the Baptist church Sunday evening. The extensive repairs under way made it necessary to cut off the electric wires, conveying the current for the lights. It is expected to have the improvements completed in time for a rousing service October 6.

Work has been started in hatcheries of the Northwest by the United States Bureau of Fisheries, and the taking of eggs from the Fall run of Chinook salmon at the station on Little White Salmon river. This week the taking of eggs on the Clackamas river commenced, with excellent prospects of success. The distribution of black spotted fry still continues.

A. L. Blanchard at Maple Lane has a very large crop of Magoon strawberries for fall picking. He estimates that he will have 40 crates and at the present time they are selling at 20 cents the box. Mr. Blanchard has the largest yield of second crop strawberries so far reported; he has three acres under cultivation, the most of the berries being Magoons.

R. T. Barbur, who has just returned from a hunting trip into the Nehalem country, says there are scores of abandoned cabins in the Nehalem timber country where settlers are located on homesteads and have proved up and sold their claims, after three to five years of nominal residence. The cabins are mere shacks about 8x10 feet. Mr. Barbur says that in one of these cabins he found a copy of the Portland Oregonian dated in 1894.

The Willamette schools opened yesterday with an enrollment of 92, as follows: Primary grades, Miss Margaret Watenpugh, 35; Intermediate grades, Mrs. Oben Tonkin, 33; advanced grades, Mrs. Viola M. Godfrey, 24. There are two pupils at Willamette who desire instruction in the tenth grade, but on account of this small number the grade will not be taught this year. Here is where a union high school would prove a money saver.

There are more pupils in the West Side school than seats and the board is having more seats provided. Montavilla public school opened on last Monday with the largest enrollment in the history of the school, 340 pupils.

Several converts were baptised in the river at the foot of Eleventh street Sunday by Rev. Blackwell of the M. E. church.

City water mains are to be extended into Kansas City so that the people of that section of the city may have fire protection and good water for household purposes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Canemah held a successful social Wednesday evening to secure funds for the improvement of the cemetery in that place. The ladies want $100 and to that end will hold a bazaar in the near future. The treasury holds upwards of $50 now.

John Barnes made a disturbance on an Oregon City car Monday afternoon, at Oak Grove, and was arrested on the charge of malicious destruction of property, during the melee he having thrown a stone through the window of the car. It is charged that he had been drinking.

Ladies of the Baptist church are considering the question of serving meals at the Fair at Gladstone. The ladies have a good reputation for feeding people up to the limit of value, so that it is needless to say that such arrangement will prove popular with those who expect to patronize the Fair restaurant.

Only three saloonists are advertising their intentions to apply for a license—Messrs. Heckle & England, Bennett & Foulm and D. M. Henry—and the supposition is that the rest of the saloonists have decided, because of the attempt to appoint an excise board, to discontinue the business.

The trustees of the M. E. church for the ensuing year are J. L. Swafford, George Randall, O. F. Oleson, J. R. Hickman, Jonathan Humphreys, R. H. Taber, C. A. Williams, M. Yoder; stewards, Mrs. Dora Blanchard, Mrs. C. A. Williams, Edwin Richards, Mrs. George Randall, J. L. Swafford, Mrs. George Osborne, M. Yoder, Margaret Watenpugh.

Chief of Police Burns arrested Albert W. Bottorff, quartermaster sergeant of Company K, Fourteenth United States Infantry, who is wanted at Vancouver Barracks to answer a charge of desertion. Bottorff left the post while on duty at Vancouver about 10 days ago, in company with a woman, and has been living here quietly.

Messrs. Scott, Spence, Lazelle and Cross, of the Fair committee on location, visited the Chautauqua grounds Tuesday and settled on the arrangement of stalls and pens for horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, and put the work of building them into the hands of Mr. Cross. It is promised that the arrangements will be ample and that they will be ready in time for the opening of the big show.

MRS. STORY WINS TWENTY-SIX PRIZES

Mrs. George L. Story, of Oregon City, who is a successful chicken fancier, made a great record this year at the State Fair at Salem. Mrs. Story had 23 birds on exhibition and won 26 premiums. Not a bird in the display but won one premium, and she captured several on pen displays and in sweepstakes. Among the number she secured 15 first, 5 second, 3 third, 3 fourth and 4 special prizes. Her total of premiums was $51.50, the largest sum ever captured by one single exhibit at the fair.

Mrs. Story is justly proud of her success and as she raises some of the very finest birds produced in this country it is not to be wondered at that she was winner in so many classes.

Her sweepstakes prizes were for the best pen at the whole show, best solid colored bird and best parti-colored bird, non-weight classes.

AN OX-TEAM

ON BROADWAY

Ezra Meeker Gives the New Yorkers Something New for Gossip.

An Associated Press dispatch under a New York City date says:

"An ox-team drawing a 'prairie schooner,' the driver of which was a rugged-looking old man, who wore a typical western garb, attracted great crowds on Broadway. The vehicle and driver were not only a striking contrast to the automobiles and carriages on the 'Great White Way,' but a decided novelty in New York.

The driver was Ezra Meeker, a pioneer of the Oregon trail, who had returned over the trail he followed half a century before.

All along Riverside drive from Grant's tomb to Seventy-second street Meeker was followed by an interested and curious throng. When Broadway was reached the crowd was so dense that the oxen had a hard time to make any headway. Meeker's trip ended at the Battery. He had come all the way from Tumwater, Washington, to New York in 626 days.

ROOSEVELT COMING

TO THE WEST

The preparations for President Roosevelt's Western trip have not been completed yet, the program has been sufficiently arranged to make it certain that the tour will be one of the most spectacular ever undertaken by him. He will leave Washington Sunday and will be absent from the seat of government until the 23d or 24th of October. The trip has three distinctive objects: The dedication of the McKinley Mausoleum, at Canton, O., the inspection of the Mississippi river with a view of arousing interest in the ship channel from its mouth to Keokuk, Ia., and the Great Lakes, and the securing of a period of recreation for the chief executive before the beginning of the duties of the winter.

TEACHERS WILL ENJOY INSTITUTE

The work of preparing the program for the annual teachers' institute, to be held in Oregon City, October 23, 24, 25 and 26, as published in the Enterprise several weeks ago, is progressing. Congressman Hawley has accepted an invitation to speak and will make two addresses, on Friday, October 25—morning and afternoon. In the morning he will speak on "House Work," having reference to the legislative work of the House of Representatives at Washington. In the afternoon he will speak on "The President and the Legislature."

The invitation is general to all the school patrons of Clackamas county. Mr. Hawley will be pleased to shake hands with many of his constituents on that occasion.

Saturday, October 26, will be school officers' day.

The program for the whole occasion promises to be of a very interesting and instructive scope and character. No teacher can afford to miss it; all are urged to plan to attend.

$50 REWARD.

I will pay $50 cash reward to the person who will apprehend and furnish proof for conviction of the person who steals my chickens and farming tools.
