Work on the bridge repairs at Estacada began this week.

The County Clerk's office shows receipts of $317 for September.

James Church has moved his family to their new home near Oak Grove.

St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church has decided to hold a bazaar in the near future.

C. L. Bate, of Canby, has sold his farm to Eastern parties, the price named being $1500.

Miss Josephine Foster has resigned her appointment as teacher in the school at Vancouver.

A gas company wishes to build a plant at Bellwood and furnish citizens and village with gas. Price asked is $1.45 per thousand feet.

Messrs. Sam Stowe and Carey have purchased the house boat owned by Dr. Mount and others.

The Seventh Day Adventists are planning to build a new church at Hubbard in the near future.

Victor Gault, of Gladstone, had the middle finger of his right hand shot off last week while hunting.

Estacada people are wrestling with a new charter. They have the sympathy of Oregon City citizens.

Wm. X. Davis, of Canby, has a large crop of prunes this year. He has 25 acres of different varieties and will clear $400 this season.

Rev. C. T. McPherson, M. E. pastor at Estacada, was given a promotion to a church in Portland at the recent conference of that church.

The Gresham public and high school now has an enrollment of 180, of which number 40 are in the high school grades, with four in the twelfth grade.

Portland exported $1,459,641 worth of wheat lumber, flour, etc., during the month of September, as against $666,882 in the same month last year.

C. A. Casseday, of Canby, who has a ranch at Canby, has leased that of Sheriff Beale, adjoining his, and will farm on an extensive scale from this on.

The proprietor of the La Tosca saloon in Vancouver was arrested Monday for selling liquor on Sunday, such a charge having been filed against him.

It is finally settled that the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will have charge of the dining hall at Gladstone Chautauqua grounds during the Fair this week.

The Catholic church is going to erect a big building in Canby to be utilized as a church and school, but they are not yet ready to announce definite plans to the public.

Some midnight prowler captured the pantaloons of Romey Rhodes while he slept Thursday night, but after extracting the change he failed to return the wearing apparel.

Four Hindus have arrived at Estacada and are working in a sawmill there. It is said they wear turbans and old-fashioned garments little known except in the Far East.

The baseball season is practically over and the football season is at hand. Parents should take time by the forelock and lay in ample supplies of splints, arnica and sticking plaster.

The petition for a change in the boundary line between the Maple Lane and the Henri school districts has been granted and a portion of the latter district transferred to Maple Lane.

Willamette Falls Camp, Woodmen of the World, had a big time Saturday night. After the initiation of a score of candidates refreshments were served and a good social time participated in.

Emil Chausty, a deckhand on the Ruth, a steamer plying on the Willamette, fell overboard at New Era Friday morning and was drowned. It is said no effort was made to rescue the man by those on the steamer.

Saturday afternoon the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club will inaugurate the football season of 1907-8 in Portland with a game with the University of Washington, one of the strongest teams of the Pacific Northwest.

Burglars failed in an effort to gain entrance to the store of A. Robertson, corner Seventh and Center streets, last Thursday night. This was but one of a number of failures, which goes to show that the fellow was an amateur.

The application of F. P. Drinker of Portland, A. E. Drinker, C. B. Russell, Alexander Sweek and F. A. Voertman to organize the First National Bank of St. John with $25,000 capital has been approved by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Fred Brown, of Astoria, was in the city Monday in the interest of the horse team races at Seattle in the spring. He wishes to take a live team into the contest and was trying to interest Oregon City firemen in the proposition.

Albany was visited by a gang of burglars last week and while they ran the town over they did not get much booty. The lack of ability to "burgle" indicates that it must have been the same amateurs who visited Oregon City last week.

Mrs. Rose Waymire and E. E. Radford were bound over to court in $500 bond each. They are the people who were implicated in the scene at Mayor Lane's office ten days ago, at which time it is charged they attempted to blackmail his honor.

While intoxicated, O. W. Osterling, a laborer, fell to the sidewalk at Third and Washington streets, Portland, on Saturday, and broke his leg. He was picked up and sent to police headquarters, later being removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Rev. T. F. Bowen officiated at a home wedding in Hubbard Saturday when Mr. Clyde A. Ruddell, of Portland, was wedded to Miss Violet C. Todd, of Hubbard. Mr. Ruddell is clerk in the office of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Co. at Portland and they will reside in that city.

Governor Chamberlain has appointed eight Oregon physicians as delegates to the convention of the association of military surgeons of the United States to be held at Jamestown October 15-18. Dr. W. E. Carll, of this city, was given the honor but says it will be impossible for him to go.

May wheat sold at $1.10 1/4 on the Chicago market Wednesday.

Senator Fulton will make an address at the Fair today—Friday.

The O. W. P. has announced a half-fare rate all along the line for the Fair.

The Nat. Rehas carnival company goes to Roseburg after the close of its engagement at the Fair.

The Judson Car Co. has abandoned its plan of locating car factories at Estacada. Lack of transportation facilities is given as the reason.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club, which has resumed its regular gathering after a summer vacation, will be held at the home of Mrs. Rosina Fouts on Wednesday, October 23.

"Uncle Josh Perkins" drew a large crowd to the Shively opera house on Tuesday evening. Judging from the applause the play must have been pleasing to the people who were packed into the house.

Repairs of the street and sidewalk on Main street, near the Frank Busch store, are being rushed as fast as possible. That part of Main street will make a good appearance when the street is once put into proper shape.

Maple Lane Grange had a banner day at its annual fair Saturday. There were many fine exhibits, all of which will be seen at the Fair at Gladstone today and tomorrow. This Grange is one of the most enthusiastic in the county and it never does things by halves.

Members and friends of the Congregational church held a social in the church parlors last week. It was the first of a series of similar gatherings and was well attended and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray told of the sights and scenes in Alaska, where they spent several weeks the past summer.

George Safford, who has been operating a saloon at Oswego, was given a contest by residents of that village who don't want a saloon in the place. As a result Safford withdrew his application, and it is said he will at once circulate a new petition. The first petition did not have the required number of signatures, it was charged by the opposition.

The Chautauqua board of directors met and elected officers Monday. The old officers were re-elected, as follows: President, W. C. Hawley; vice president, C. H. Dye; secretary, H. E. Cross; treasurer, E. G. Caulfield. Mr. Cross agreed to serve until January 1, 1908, at which time he wishes to retire from the position of secretary.

John Miller, a Portland contractor and builder was arrested by Policeman Humphreys Saturday night on a charge of disorderly conduct. He is an alleged "masher" and is said to have made an attempt to persuade Miss Grace Edelman of Mount Tabor, to take a stroll with him against her will. He denied the accusation, but was locked up.

The Clackamas county district boundary board has denied the petition for the consolidation of the Highland and South Highland school districts. The petition was not properly drawn, and the boundary board has not authority to consolidate districts, as this must be done by the districts themselves, after due legal notice is given.

Dr. Russ, Montavilla's dentist, met with a painful accident last Monday week. While compounding chemicals over a stove, the mixture exploded with a terrific shock, blowing off several fingers, and otherwise injuring his hand and left arm, and almost wrecking the room. The doctor was immediately removed to St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

Over 100 carpenters, builders and graders began work Friday on the grounds selected for the Gresham fair and carnival, which will open October 16. The buildings now being erected include a pavilion 40x100 feet for the indoor exhibits, an assembly hall with smooth floor 40x60 feet, 50 or more stock sheds, a horticultural building, a poultry house, a bandstand and several other buildings of lesser importance.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church was entertained last week at Gladstone Park by Mrs. J. J. Tingle. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. R. C. Blackwell; vice-president, Mrs. J. E. Jack; treasurer, Mrs. S. Kruse; recording secretary, Mrs. William E. Johnston; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. E. Morse. Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Tingle were appointed delegates to the annual convention to be held at Corvallis.

Mrs. Viola Godfrey was surprised at her home on Seventh street Friday evening by a party of friends consisting of the classes of Barclay High school year '07. Music and ghost stories furnished amusement for the evening. Guests present were: Myrtle Cross, Winnie Jackson, Millard Gillett, Beth Cooper, Hazel Francis, William Jackson, Grace Zinser, Harold Waldron, Howard Zinser, Laura Ekern, Gaylord Godfrey, Genevieve Capen, Vada Elliott, William Strohmeyer, Mary Scott, Edna Kinney, Alice Goetting, Mabel Francis, W. H. Godfrey.

Some bold, bad fellow stuck his head through the side of a tent in Canemah Thursday night in which resided the tired farm of Councilman Pope. The Councilman, not being dressed to receive company, gave forth a lusty yell and the fellow, supposing he had stumbled on to the tent of a "wild and woolly" Indian, sped speedily into the darkness—and disappeared. Later—at least it is supposed it was later—Harry Baxter's store was broken into, but nothing could be found missing. Perhaps that lusty yell of ye Councilman dazed the fellow and he broke into the store before he had recovered from his scare.

W. B. Glafke, a member of the board of governors of the Portland Commercial Club, has put before the club some intensely interesting figures on the poultry and egg business, for general circulation throughout the State. One hundred carloads of eggs alone were shipped into the State of Oregon during the past twelve months. These would average $2600 per car. Oregon growers supply the chief demand for turkeys, ducks, geese and chickens, but four times the present production would find a ready home market, while in eggs we might multiply by ten and still the prices would pay as well as any product grown either on the farm or in the orchard.

No Room to Display or Store Goods!

The delay in completing the new Masonic Temple means a loss of many dollars to us. With the expectation of moving into our new store-room in the Temple early in November, we bought largely for the Winter and Holiday trade. At the present rate of progress we will do well to get into our new quarters in the new Temple by Spring. This delay means a great disappointment to us. We purchased large stocks of a dozen different lines, expecting to have our large and commodious quarters in the Temple in which to display, store and sell. These new goods are arriving daily and we have no place to store them, let alone put them on display. What are we to do? We must sell our goods in order to find any place for these new goods that are arriving daily.

Will you help us? We'll make the Price an object!

These new goods, ordered for fall delivery, are arriving daily and they must be sold fast. SEE WHAT WE OFFER:
