THE COURTS

Not Crazy, but Fined For Cruelty.
Richard Kubisch was before Judge Dimick Wednesday on the charge of insanity. The charge was dismissed and then he was taken in hand by Recorder Dimick on the charge of cruelty to animals. Mayor Caulfield had filed a charge of cruelty, having been a witness of Kubisch's cruelty to his horse, whom he was seen beating on Seventh street hill. He practically admitted the act and was fined $30 and costs and with a suspension of fine during good behavior. He was told he must pay the costs in the case—$5—and having but five cents he proposed leaving his clothes as security.

Defendant Declared Negligent.
The civil suit, Fred Benfield vs. Albin Floss, tried in Justice Johnson's court, Gresham, last week, was decided by his honor in favor of the defendant. It appears that defendant Floss had tied a horse in Benfield's barn. The horse got loose, and is believed to have killed a colt of plaintiff's valued at $150. The plaintiff brought suit on the grounds that defendant negligently tied the animal in the stall, and placed him in the barn without permission from the plaintiff.

Claim More Pay Due.
Adkins Bros. have filed a suit in the Circuit Court against the Greenwood Lumber Company for $355, alleged to be the balance due for labor and services in logging in the yards of the mill. The plaintiffs allege that the service was rendered between May 5 and September 25, at an agreed price of $3550, of which $366 has not been paid. Attorney George C. Brownell appears for Adkins Bros.

Notes.
The estate of the late Charles H. McCheery was admitted to probate Wednesday, Oct. 2. The property is located in Polk county and is valued at $700. McCheery died in Clackamas county, July 15, 1907. Samuel McCheery, of Boring, is one of the heirs of the estate.

Suit was filed by James Gibson, Jr., last week against Clarinda E. Gibson for a decree of divorce. They were married in Portland, May 2, 1905, and Gibson says his wife deserted him on August 8, 1906, and that while they lived together he provided her a comfortable home.

The estate of the late William Beeson, who died at Schubel, August 29, 1907, was admitted to probate Saturday. The value of the estate is $950, consisting of personal property. Small sums are left to children of the deceased, and the bulk of the estate to the widow. Beeson was about 75 years of age.

F. S. Baker and Margaret Baker Tuesday filed papers for the adoption of their niece, Frances Hastings, aged 13 years.

Suit for divorce has been filed by Elisha Adamson against Susan Adamson. They were married December 28, 1905, and Adamson alleges that his wife deserted him August 10, 1906.

Marie D. Curtis and Cliff R. Curtis were married in Portland, April 5, 1905, and Mrs. Curtis alleges that her husband possesses an irritable temper, that his nature is fault-finding and that she found it impossible to live with him and retain her self-respect.

MIXTURE TO RELIEVE

PREPARE THIS SIMPLE RECIPE AT HOME AND TRY IT.

MANY WAIT TO LONG

Druggists Here in Town Say They Can Supply the Ingredients or Make Up the Mixture.

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all form of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

Robert Olph, of Prairie City, a freshman at Corvallis, stabbed two upper classmen and cut the clothes from a third Friday last while the latter were engaged in an attempt to haze him. Young Olph gave repeated warnings before he pulled out his knife and began to use it.

A Portland woman consulted a medium and was told she should get a divorce from her husband. She tried it, but when she told the court what the medium said, he advised her that what she needed most was divorce from the medium, and a guardian, which the court recommended in the person of her husband.
