

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

SHUBEL.

Born to the wife of Chris Bluhm, Sunday, October 6, a son.

Albert Stegeman had a serious runaway Sunday. While they were going to church in the afternoon, the neckyoke came off as they were going down the hill this side of E. W. Hornschuh's. All were injured, and little Minnie seems to be hurt very seriously.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck and Rev. Wettlaufer and family took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gintler Sunday.

Nearly everyone went to the Fair Saturday. The mills all closed down for the occasion.

Your editorial in last week's issue, "Punish Rich and Poor Alike," should be read and re-read by everyone that can get it. We are glad to see the Republican mouthpiece of our county speak fearlessly in behalf of genuine American justice. It is unfortunate that the vast majority of the influential Republican papers are using their powerful influence against the laboring man as such.

David Moehnte, Otto Moehnte and Arthur Staben have gone to Hot Springs for a week's hunting trip.

Will Clarke has purchased a large quantity of hay of C. Hornschuh.

STAFFORD.

(Received too late for last week.)

The past week has been ideal weather, but our local weather prophet says we will have a storm for the last of the week on account of so many fairs. County fair is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the Oswego Grange fair for Saturday, also. Therefore whichever place you elect to visit first fill your pockets with small change and we trust you will find it money well spent and help along a worthy cause.

The church at Frog Pond held its annual harvest home on Sunday. They had invited the Baptist church of Stafford and others to come, and also extended an invitation to Mr. Waehlte, the Baptist minister, to preach the morning sermon, which he did. The house was more than full, and they all listened with rapt attention to the words of warning and of counsel which fell from the preacher's lips. An awning covered with green boughs had been made by willing hands underneath which a table was spread loaded with the good things those ladies know so well how to prepare. After the throng was surfeited there was enough of the broken and untouched yet to have fed another crowd as big. Hospitality and good cheer are always spelled with big letters over there.

Mr. and Mrs. Weisenborn have moved back to Stafford and are occupying Mrs. Barbara Moser's cottage. There was a wedding and a charivari last week, Henry Toederman and Esther Mays were married Wednesday; both under age, and had a small charivari Thursday evening.

Claus Peters cut his thumb quite seriously last week. His wife's mother, Mrs. Beckman, is very sick at her home.

Mrs. Wm. Schlutz has gone up into Washington to visit relatives. Her daughters, Susie and Anna keep house while she is gone.

The Rev. Waehlte's two sons, Chas. and Fred, are both studying for the ministry, one in Salem and one in Louisville, Ky. One is a Methodist and the other a Baptist.

Fred Baker has been digging a well on his land and found good water at 17 feet.

John Mays has gone to the Hot Springs in Washington, to try the effect of the waters on his rheumatism, from which he has suffered severely for the past year or more.

CLARKES.

We have nice weather now, and every farmer enjoys it so he can go ahead with his work. We have had no frost yet, only cold nights.

Captain Branson preached last Sunday night in the M. E. church.

Mary and Maggie Sullivan are attending the Oregon City Catholic school.

W. H. Wettlaufer went to town on Saturday, and on the way home he lost one of his sacks of chop.

G. Keny was out from town to visit his parents.

Frank Nicholas is back from Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Sam Elmer spent Sunday afternoon with William Mueller's. On her way home she was bit by a strange dog, on the road.

Albert Durst is staying with W. G. Kleinsmith at present.

Peter Schiewe was out looking for a farm last week.

Mrs. Ben Marshall is home from Portland.

Alex Scherrubie went to Josie & Scherrubie's to bal chops last week. Mr. Kreuder purchased a new farm last week from Jim Parrish, of Highland, 10 acres for $4000. He has a renter for it too, and lots of fruit on the farm.

Mr. Macfee was in Clarke's last week. He says he wants to buy the scraps that are left. It is not known if he got any more. He said this was the last time he is going back East to Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bower are on a visit to Sherwood, where they are guests of his brother, Jacob Bower.

John Putz has a new horse.

Mr. Maddy is laid off for a while at the Everhart sawmill. They are putting in a shingle mill and will soon begin to make shingles.

J. Putz was in town last Saturday on business. W. G. Kleinsmith went down to the fishery to get a few fish to transplant.

MARKS PRAIRIE.

Our farmers are wanting rain so they can put the plows at work. It is too dry to plow here, and so no grain can be sown as is desired.

D. B. Yoder will soon commence the erection of a fine barn.

The new school house in the Meridian district is nearing completion.

Mrs. John Jesse was a caller at Macksburg last Saturday.

Mrs. Freda Kraus was a caller at Peter Krause's, near Meridian Sunday.

Hunting is all the rage here now and the birds are being slaughtered without mercy.

We are fond of hogs in their place, but the one that is killing China pheasants and salting them down for future use is just a little too big a hog for us.

Potato digging is about all done here; farmers are storing most of their spuds.

John Nordhausen and Miss Anna Boland were married last Wednesday. Over one hundred guests were present. They have gone on a wedding tour for a couple of weeks.

Politics will soon begin to boil and the office-seeker is already laying his wires so as to let the dear people know just how good he is.

Several new land buyers are in our midst looking for homes. Let them come for that is just what we need—more people; better community.

Say, Sheriff Beattie, if you want good Republican votes next time just close that gambling hell at Milwaukie and it will help you some.

Jack Keer has been sowing winter oats the past week on summer fallowed ground.

Picking apples will be the order of the day next week.

Our hop men are still holding for a raise in prices.

LOGAN.

E. W. Hutchins and John Hatton have gone to the mountains for big game.

Mrs. F. Gerber went to Collins Hot Springs to see her brother, J. Babier, who received quite serious injuries to his spine while in Alaska.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Riehoff, born October 12, was laid to rest Sunday last. The parents have the sympathy of their many friends.

Miss Hornum, aged 82 years, died at the home of her nephew, Philip Kohl, of Logan, Monday night. She had been ill several weeks when death relieved her sufferings. Interment will be in Pleasant View cemetery Wednesday noon.

F. Wilson was slightly hurt while working on the breakwater at Clear creek bridge last week. Allan Hutchins was also struck by a falling plank, but soon recovered.

On Thursday evening, October 10, about 25 of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Anderson's friends met at a little distance from their home, then proceeded in a body to give them a surprise, it being the 30th anniversary of their marriage. However, the "callers" came near being surprised, for the couple had gone to the Fair at Gladstone, and only returned at 9:30, to find a wedding feast all spread awaiting them. A handsome picture was presented to the couple. The evening was spent in social conversation, music, etc. All departed wishing them many more pleasant anniversaries.

Road Superintendent F. Gerber, with a crew of men, is building a breakwater or winddam to turn the current away from the bridge pier on Clear creek at Stone.

Fred Brown and family have gone to the hot springs to camp awhile.

LIBERAL.

Farmers are putting this nice weather to good use in getting their crops housed.

Mr. Newton's team ran away Saturday and caused no end of excitement here among those who tried to stop it. Mr. Gorman finally stopped them, but not until Mrs. Newton had been thrown out and the rear wheel of the wagon ran over her. Although bruised badly no bones were broken.

No teacher for our school coming, and we want one so badly.

Mrs. William Morey and two daughters are visiting Portland friends.

Pierce Wright has a new disc drill and intends to farm a little.

Miss Lillian Gans, of New Era, was a Sunday visitor in this neighborhood.

William and Dick Stein are home from a fishing excursion to the Coast. Will caught one salmon weighing 54 pounds.

H. L. Barnes sold a baker's dozen of fat hogs last week.

SPRINGWATER.

The Rally day program was a success.

While Henry Comer and Gus Wilcox were out bird hunting Mr. Wilcox received a charge of shot in the face and breast. Fortunately the doctor picked them out without much damage.

Mr. Tyson's team ran away with wagon; damage, broken whiffletrees and harness.

Sixty-seven thousand pounds fruit evaporated in Springwater. Owing to lack of capacity of the dryers and want of labor about 30,000 pounds could not be cared for, and was fed to the hogs.

A. M. Shobley attended the Presbytery and synod at Portland.

The writer cannot refrain from giving a piece of his mind about the bridge near Estacada. Early in the summer everybody wanted a new bridge. There are two parties in Estacada; one party wanted the new bridge built in one place and the other in another place; which is the case in everything that comes up in Estacada. They will not pull together. Result, the court did not go ahead and build the bridge. Now they are having the old thing patched up. I suppose they think it will last until it goes down. There is at this time about 140 tons of produce to be shipped out of Springwater.

NEEDY.

Good weather and farmers busy digging potatoes.

Ogley Brothers spent Sunday evening at R. W. Zimmerman's.

Frank Fish and wife spent Sunday at H. Johnson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Reames visited Percy Ritter Sunday.

Mrs. Molson's sister, Dehlia, has arrived.

Misses Freda Gahler and Flora Spaglia are contemplating going to Portland for the winter.

Miss Katie Spagia, who is working for S. Kinzer, spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Louine Kerr is sick.

D. B. Yoder had his silos filled last week.

Frank Kropf has purchased a gasoline engine.

Wess Yoder made a business trip to our town Monday.

HIGHLANDS.

The finest sunshine in the history of Clackamas county now prevails. Highland is certainly experiencing a boom in real estate. The famous Hogback ranch, formerly owned by J. M. Parisi, consisting of 160 acres of hills and canyons, sold for $4,000 to Peter Kruder, of Clarks.

In the southeastern part of Highlands real estate is also changing hands freely. Timbered farms that could almost be obtained a few years ago for a song recently brought handsome amounts in money.

The population of Highland has been increased by two families—McCormack and Hyson—recently from Everett, Wash., occupying the Hogback ranch.

Your correspondent regrets to state that if the fool-killer would get into the Oregon City council he would find his hands more than full. The other day a man driving a young, spirited team to our countryside looked in vain for a hitching post or place to tie his team to a little while. He was informed later by one of the principal business men in town that one of the wisest(?) men in the city council ordered the removal of such necessities. He was finally directed by our congenial friend, Frank Bush, to drive to his new store, where there are hitching posts to tie to and where "everything is lovely and the goose hangs high." Oregon City, at best, is not a good trading place for farmers, and if they drive there with young horses and find no hitching posts, they certainly will drive right on to places where such conveniences for farmers are maintained. There is one thing dead sure: if Oregon City can exist without the farmers of Clackamas county the farmers can certainly exist without Oregon City.

We are glad to note that Frank Bush has common sense and business sagacity sufficient to accommodate the farmers when they come to Oregon City.

Then, too, the greater part of Main street is taken up with the electric railway. There certainly was room enough along the river or along the bluff or up in the air like New York or Chicago. The wise city council must have been hypnotized when they allowed the motor company to monopolize Oregon City's main and principal street. Great are the solons in the city council.

CLACKAMAS.

The music of the steam wood saw is a welcome sound, as people are getting anxious to have their winter supply of wood safely under cover before the rainy season sets in.

Mr. Peebles and R. B. Holcomb have dried and hauled to market about four tons of prunes.

Last Saturday a sad, brief message came from Irving Wilson that his infant son had died on the steamer. Mr. Wilson and family left New York October 9 on the steamer Adriatic, bound for Liverpool.

On Wednesday evening of last week the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church tendered Pastor and Mrs. Moore a reception in honor of his being returned to this church. About sixty members of the church and congregation and other friends were in attendance. The occasion was very heartily enjoyed.

Frank Knoll is preparing to sell out his mill route. Mr. and Mrs. Knoll expect to leave Clackamas and locate in Detroit, Mich.

Clackamas Grange, No. 298, will hold a basket social on Halloween. A short program will be given. All are cordially invited to come and bring a basket, or money to buy one.

CLARKES.

Mr. Wettlaufer is hauling cream to town now; he has a new route.

The Highland school started Monday. The teacher is Mrs. Ben Marshall.

Alex Scherrubie has purchased a new engine and a little chopper and he will soon start to chop.

Sam Elmer is cutting his green corn for fodder.

Peter Schuwe has gone up country to find a farm.

Pete Kern made a new fence on his place last week and he has completed other improvements.

O. S. Martin has moved out of Timber Grove to his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bower returned home last Sunday for a visit with friends.

We have nice weather now, and the farmers are picking their apples for winter.

STAFFORD.

It looks like last week's items found their way to the waste basket, as they did not appear in the paper and were sent on Tuesday, and the paper never reached here till Monday. But we will try once more, although there is not much news collected this week.

Stafford attended the County Fair at Gladstone and all were surprised at the display. Such beautiful fruits, vegetables, nuts, etc! A fine showing of woman's handwork; as nice fowls as seen at the State Fair, and while the stock was not great in numbers each was excellent of its kind, and the weather was all that could be asked for. Those grounds are the ideal spot for such a gathering. We heard numbers say "Next year we will know what is expected and be prepared for it."

Mr. Barnes moved to Willamette Monday, and the new owner, Mr. Derini, is moving in.

Miss Schrader, who had an auction of household goods and farming implements, has rented the place to young Mr. Oling, and gone with her mother to Portland. Lover, the only remaining son, being threatened with lung trouble, of which his brothers died. He is living in Arizona, where he is comparatively free from the symptoms which troubled him here.

Apples are quite plentiful this fall and more free from worms than usual, caused, it is thought, partly by spraying and more by turning hogs in for the past few years, who devour the worms with the fallen apples, then delaying to pick the winter fruit until November.

"Mamma, why don't you want me to play with that Kudzger boy?" "Because, dear, I know the family. He hasn't good blood in him." "Why, mamma, he's been vaccinated twice, and it wouldn't take either time."—Chicago Tribune.

Rings Dyspepsia Tablets do the work. Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, bloating, etc., yield quickly. Two days' treatment free. Ask your druggist for a free trial. Sold by Huntley Bros.

PREMIUM AWARD.

(Continued from page 1.)

Largest squash of any variety, J. H. Lindaley, first and second.

Best collection of pumpkins and squash, O. E. Freytag, first.

Box merchantable tomatoes, Al Vinyard, first; Miss S. K. Blount, second.

Three largest watermelons, Al Vinyard, first; V. P. Lee, second.

Three largest musk melons, V. P. Lee, first.

Best hill of potatoes, M. S. Shereer, honorable mention.

Six largest potatoes, G. R. Gwillen, first.

Six largest carrots, F. C. Chinn, first.

Six largest stock carrots, J. W. Draper, first.

Three best citron, Mrs. W. M. Shank, first.

Six best cauliflower, O. E. Freytag, first; George DeBok, second.

Best exhibit of cabbage, O. E. Freytag, first.

Six largest cabbage, J. A. Jones, first.

Three largest pumpkins, table, O. E. Freytag, first.

Three largest squash, table, O. E. Freytag, first.

Six best beets, table, O. E. Freytag, first; George DeBok, second.

Six best Mangel Wurzel, J. A. Jones, first; J. W. Draper, second.

Six best rutabagas, O. E. Freytag, first.

Six largest turnips, O. E. Freytag, first.

Six largest parsnips, O. E. Freytag, first.

Three largest cucumbers, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best rhubarb roots, one year old, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best asparagus roots, one year old, O. E. Freytag, first.

Six largest onions, Johnston Bros., first.

Best display of onions, G. H. Webster, first; O. E. Freytag, second.

Best display of peppers, O. E. Freytag, first.

Largest sunflower, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best two pounds dried prunes, C. W. Swallow, first; G. W. Webster, second.

Best half-bushel early potatoes, George DeBok, first; O. E. Freytag, second.

Best half-bushel late potatoes, O. E. Freytag, first; T. L. Turner, second.

Best six ears of field corn, L. J. Hylton, first.

Six largest ripe tomatoes, Miss S. K. Blount, first.

Three best stalks of celery, J. A. Jones, first.

Division F—Fruits.

Apples, Baldwin, J. W. Williams, first; William Beard, second.

Apples, Northern Spy, William Beard, first; A. J. Lewis, second.

Best exhibit of five or more varieties of apples, R. S. McLaughlin, first; J. A. Byers, second.

Best plate, five specimens, any variety, G. W. Waldron, first; Deakins Bros., second.

Best general fruit exhibit, C. W. Swallow, first; J. W. Grasl, second; A. J. Lewis, third.

Best box apples, Spitzberg, J. W. Grasl, first; George DeBok, second.

Best box apples, Bellflower, A. J. Lewis, first.

Best assortment of three varieties of apples, A. J. Lewis, first.

Fruit from apple trees, 40 years old, A. J. Lewis, honorable mention.

Display of quinces, H. F. Gibson, first; A. Hayhurst, second.

Strawberries, T. Finnegan, honorable mention.

Strawberries, A. L. Blanchard, honorable mention.

Display of peaches, W. B. Dann, first; John Stormer, second.

Display of grapes, J. F. Brotje, first; C. W. Swallow, second.

Display of Fall pears, C. W. Swallow, first; Deakins Bros., second.

Box of Winter Pears, C. W. Swallow, first; R. S. McLaughlin, second.

Box of Claws apples, originated and produced near Oregon City, name derived by taking first three letters of Lewis' name, A. J. Lewis, honorable mention.

Five best boxes of apples, one box 3, one box 2½, two boxes 4, and one box 4½ tier, commercial varieties, $40 silver cup donated by Front street merchants of Portland, won by G. W. Waldron.

Division G—Farm Products.

Best display of farm products, 20 or more varieties, O. E. Freytag, first; George DeBok, second.

Best half bushel wheat, S. G. Bailey, blue stem, first; Spence & Spangler, white winter, second.

Best half bushel oats, S. G. Bailey, first; F. Friedrich, second.

Six ears of corn, sweet, C. W. Swallow, first; T. E. Beard, second.

Display of seed beans and peas, one quart each, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best quart beans, white, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best quart beans, colored, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best display of vetches, O. E. Freytag, first; Spence & Spangler, second.

Best display of corn on stalks, J. W. Draper, first; O. E. Freytag, second.

Best display of grain and grasses, properly arranged and labeled with true name, O. E. Freytag, first.

Best display of fruit trees, yearlings, H. A. Lewis, first.

Division H—Amateur Flowers.

Display of flowers, Mrs. M. E. Sanders, first.

Bouquet of green flowers, Mrs. M. E. Sanders, first.

Display of roses, Mrs. M. E. Sanders, first.

Display of foliage plants, J. C. Paddock, first.

Display of begonias, Mrs. Laura McCormick, first.

Division I—Sewing, Fancy Work, etc.

Quilt, hand made, Mrs. Charles Dougherty, first; Mrs. H. A. Carothers, second.

Quilt, log cabin, Mrs. N. J. Edmiston, first; Mrs. W. E. Niles, second.

Quilt, crazy, silk, Mrs. Coats, first; Mrs. Martha Berry, second.

Quilt, crazy, worsted, Mrs. G. Clark, first; Mrs. W. A. Cross, second.

Quilt, worsted, Mrs. T. L. Turner, first.

Knit lace, Mrs. Tabor, first.

Corset cover, hand made, Mrs. Ione Hagemann, first; Mrs. Maud Hayhurst, second.

Sofa cushion, embroidered, Miss Mary Mitchell, first; Mrs. C. W. Joehne, second.

Sofa cushion, painted, Mrs. Izzetta Waldron, first; Mrs. Laura McCormick, second.

Crochet shawl, Mrs. W. T. Forward, first; Mrs. H. A. Carothers, second.

Child's hand made dress, Mrs. Ralph Miller, first; Mrs. Ione Hagemann, second.

Table scarf, drawn work, Mrs. B. L. Blanchard, first; Mrs. Turbyne, second.

Table scarf, embroidered, Mrs. C. C. Williams, first; Mrs. C. A. Warren, second.

Lounge scarf, crazy, Mrs. R. E. Woodward, first; Mrs. C. Gibbons, second.

Home made rag rug, Mrs. W. W. Watenpaugh, first; Mrs. A. Holden, second.

Counterpane, knit, Mrs. Mattie Board, first.

Centerpiece, drawn work, Mrs. T. J. Burley, first; Mrs. Ione Hagemann, second.

Embroidered centerpiece, white, Mrs. J. C. Willis, first; Mrs. C. C. Williams, second.

Crochet tidy, Mrs. H. Joehne, first.

Centerpiece, embroidered, colored, Mrs. I. Hagemann, first; Mrs. Belle Slight, second.

Aprons, hand trimmed, Mrs. Mary Cross, first.

Best piece made from Richardson's silks, Mrs. Lillie Schmidt, first.

Best individual exhibition of sewing, fancy work, etc., Mrs. C. A. Warren, first; Mrs. J. C. Willis, second.

Crochet boa, Mrs. H. Joehne, first.

Baby's crochet jacket, Mrs. W. Rhe-walt, first.

Point lace work, Miss Ella Casto, first; Mrs. J. Lowellen, second.

Battenburg work, Mrs. Ella Kennedy, first; Mrs. C. P. Andrews, second.

Embroidered hand bags, Mrs. Belle Slight, first; Mrs. Ione Hagemann, second.

Set dollies, Mrs. Myrtle Tooko, first; Miss Mollie Holmes, second.

Baby layette, hand made, Mrs. Ralph Miller.

Tatted work, M. H. Joehne, first; Mrs. W. Niles, second.

Point lace handkerchiefs, Mrs. Mattie Beard, first; Mrs. J. Lowellen, second.

Crochet lace, one yard, Mrs. Joehne, first.

Division J—Domestic Process.

Bread, Mrs. A. J. Lewis, first; Mrs. George DeBok, second.

Graham gems, Mrs. T. E. Beard, first; Mrs. P. M. Hughes, second.

Soda biscuits, Mrs. T. E. Beard, first.

Doughnuts, Mrs. P. M. Hughes, first.

Cookies, Mrs. George DeBok, first.

Cake, Mrs. Sarah Lowellen, first, and second.

Dairy butter, Mrs. A. J. Lewis, first; S. G. Bailey, second.

Honey, comb, A. J. Cummings, first; George DeBok, second.

Jelly, Mrs. A. Robertson, first; Mrs. W. M. Robinson, second.

Assortment of jellies, six, Mrs. Geo. DeBok.

Assortment of preserves, six, Mrs. W. M. Shank.

Canned fruit, eight varieties, Mrs. W. M. Shank, first; Mrs. L. W. Andrews, second.

Preserves, three varieties, Mrs. W. T. Forward, first.

Division K—Pickles and Sauces.

Chill sauce and catsup, Mrs. L. W. Andrews, first; Mrs. W. M. Robinson, second.

Dill pickles, O. E. Freytag, first.

Sauer kraut, O. E. Freytag, first.

Sweet cucumber pickles, O. E. Freytag, first.

Chow chow, O. E. Freytag, first.

Division L—Works of Art and Ornamentation.

Oil painting, Mrs. William Hammond, first; Mrs. J. J. Stafford, second.

Water painting, Mrs. J. F. Risley, first; Mrs. C. A. Warren, second.

Hand painted China, Mrs. J. C. Stafford.

Amateur photography, Mrs. J. F. Risley, first.

Alaskan curios, Mrs. Ed Harrington, special mention.

Mexican exhibit, Mrs. Theodore Clark, special mention.

Division N—Fancy Work, Sewing, etc., for Girls under 15 Years of Age.

Quilt, neatest patchwork, Allie and Ivy Hughes, first; Ella Ulfshafter, second.

Dress, neatest made, Ivy Hughes, first.

Worsted crazy quilt, Myrtle Woodie, ribbon.

Doll quilt, Shirley Swallow, ribbon.

Sofa pillow, Shirley Swallow, ribbon.

Embroidered dolly, Ruth Notz, first; Myrtle Swallow, second.

Boy's shirt, Ivy Hughes, ribbon.

Handkerchief, Young Tingle, ribbon.

Division O—Minerals.

Best displays of minerals, C. A. Cross, first; Frank Griffith, second.

Division Q—Baby Show.

Twins, Clair and Clara Pelkey.

Prettiest boy over one and under two years, John Franklin Risley.

Prettiest boy, under one year, Albert J. Elkins.

Prettiest girl, under one year, Eloise Ely.

Prettiest girl, over one and under two years, Irene Duval.

Special Premiums.

Grape juice, grape wine, blackberry wine, Miss Rosetta Marrs.

Best Grange exhibit, Milwaukie, first; Maple Lane, second; Warner, third.

Civic Improvement Club Exhibits, Mount Pleasant, first; Harmony, second.

Flax seed, Spence & Spangler.

Teasels, S. E. Gregory.

Tobacco and pole beans, John P. Irvine.

Mammoth rice pop corn, white and red in stalk, white in ear, J. L. Clarke.

Kale and broccoli, George DeBok.

Black Russian oats, Spence & Spangler.

Corn on stalk, J. W. Draper.

Hops, W. O. Dickerson.

One pound wool, A. Thomas.

Pie melon, J. Fitzgerald.

Oldest lady on grounds, Mary Jane Dickerson, 88 years.

Mother with largest family on grounds, Mrs. McDonald, 11 children.

In My New Store

Friends and Patrons, old and new, are cordially invited to visit me in my new quarters corner Main and Elevent Streets. I have four stories and a basement filled with bargains, and when ever we get the stock properly arranged we will be able to show you almost anything you may wish. Don't let the unselfed condition of our stock scare you out. Come in and see us; we will do our best to fill your wants.

FRANK BUSCH, OREGON CITY OREGON