J. M. Volker is the name of a new druggist on Seventh street, in Dr. Strickland's building. He hails from Crosswell, Lane county.

The school children are enjoying a three-day vacation this week, the teachers' institute claiming the attention of the local teachers.

Many wild geese are reported going southward this early in the season. Weather prognosticators say that this presages an early winter.

W. S. King has purchased 16 acres of what is known as the Chinese gardens near Greenpoint, the deal being negotiated by W. F. Schooley & Co.

The Oregon Water Power & Railway Company made a half-fare rate for the Gresham fair last week, and a large number of people went from this city.

Gresham held its fair over Sunday and gave a sacred concert in the Auditorium in the afternoon. The Sunday exhibition seems to be growing in popularity in this part of Oregon.

The St. John's Young People's Society will give its first annual ball on Wednesday evening next. Fox's orchestra will furnish the music and the hall will be decorated for the occasion.

The teachers of this city received their salaries Friday. While in some cases the money received was not in proportion to the services rendered, still all were pleased to receive the checks nevertheless.

George W. Bradley, who was in the livery business in Oregon City, but moved to Woodburn in the Spring, has purchased the transfer business of E. F. Grisez, and will move back to this city.

Fifteen thousand Chinook salmon eggs were shipped Saturday from the Clackamas station to the Jamestown Exposition, where an experimental hatchery is maintained by the United States Bureau of Fisheries.

Thirty members of Court Robin Hood, Foresters of America, went to Portland Wednesday evening to participate in a meeting of the Shepherds of America, an auxiliary of the Foresters.

A quiet family wedding was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Hannaford, Wednesday, when Miss Alice Tufts became the bride of Guy Dwiggin. The young people will begin housekeeping in a cottage on Seventeenth street.

Strawberries in the market, wild raspberries ripe on the hills, wild roses in bloom along the pasture fences, a temperature so pleasant as to be divine, that is the story of the Willamette Valley in the last days of October, in the year of our Lord 1907.

Mrs. T. W. Clark entertained the Dickens Club Monday. The club will study Dicken's "David Copperfield" this winter. At the meeting Monday Mrs. Eva Emery Dye gave a general talk on the Dickens' works. Miss Amie Bollack will entertain the club next Monday.

Throughout a very large portion of the United States nearly every farm has a certain part of its area under wood, either planted, as in regions otherwise treeless, or of natural growth. The value of this wooded portion, besides affording protection from the wind, is chiefly for fuel, fencing and railroad ties, with some building material and the wood needed for special uses about the farm. Without the wood lot the farm very often would be an unprofitable investment, because the farmer could not afford to buy the wood which now costs him very little except the labor of cutting and moving it, but in the majority of cases this part of the farm is far less useful than it might easily be made. This is true because the farmer does not study its productive capacity as he does that of his fields and pastures, and hence does not make it yield as fully as he might, with little or no additional labor, if he went about it in the right way.—Gifford Pinchot.

Tough Remedies.

Tibet's army is to be modernized, and with it probably will be the grand lama's military medical staff corps. The sick Tibetan soldier, it was reported a year ago, was put through a sort of faith healing process. An army physician of the old school chalked a prescription on a board. The martial patient washed off the lettering and drank the rinsings. The plan of the younger doctor was simpler. He scrawled his prescription on a piece of paper and gave it to the invalid to chew and swallow.

Windmills and Electricity.

The use of windmills for generating electric current has given favorable results in the tests for the Danish government made by Professor La Cour. The four-wing wheel proves to be the best form. With such a wheel having fifteen square yards of surface he obtained two horsepower from a wind of twenty feet per second and ten horsepower from a wind of thirty-five feet per second. The plant will feed 450 incandescent lamps, with some arc lamps and motors.—Maxwell's Talisman.

"Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before"

CHILLY nights and mornings foretell the speedy approach Autumn and the immediate need of warmer clothing. Now is the time to prepare for Fall—and now is the time when our stock of Men's Clothing and Furnishings is at its very best.

We want you to come in and see it and get the pick of this fine showing of Gentlemen's wear early in the season. If you do not wish to pay for them now we will gladly reserve your selection until later.

Brown is the prevailing color this Fall, with Gray and Blue Mixtures tied for second place. The Coats are shorter, the designs notably improved and a certain air of new and very stylish smartness is apparent in every one of these Fall models.

Most of our "better qualities" of Suits and Overcoats come from the celebrated house of SCHLOSS BROS. & Co., whose "Correct Clothes for Gentlemen" are known wherever good clothes are worn. We can show you the very cream of their best Baltimore and New York productions—garments that immediately set the style when they appear. Besides these splendid garments, shown in many models and styles, is a host of less expensive Suits and Overcoats—every one of them well-made and stylish. We cordially invite your inspection of these new Fall Models.

As a special leader we are offering, this week, a fine line of BROWN SUITS in the coming season's exclusive models and shades. All sizes, single and double breasted models, Coats medium or full form-fitting—the most stylish Suits ever offered in this vicinity at to the distant city house, please give us a chance to figure on it. If you do, in all probability, you will be forced to admit that you were about to make a mistake.

OUR CLAIM is that we match any price, either on machines, records or complete outfits obtained anywhere. We are able to duplicate any offer that is made in any catalogue or newspaper.

YES, AND MORE. From a mail-order house you order from a picture; with us you select from a complete stock. Yes, you see the machines, horns and the complete outfits, and you listen to every record you select. You know exactly what you bargained for, before you pay a cent. On the other hand, you may get the machine you order, and you may not, or your order for one, two or three dozen records may be filled correctly, and when you listen to the selection you will find that they are entirely different from the kind you had in mind.

AND THIS IS NOT ALL. We save you all express and freight charges and will make the guarantee good ourselves. That is in case your machine does not work satisfactorily, you return it to us and we will repair it free of charge.

THERE IS NO DELAY. No waiting for a month or more. We deliver the goods the same day you place the order.

THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH IS THE BEST CYLINDER MACHINE MADE.
