

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

LOGAN.

Jack Frost made his first appearance in Logan Friday evening, November 1.

One Logan youth has purchased a twenty-five dollar pointer. Of course the birds will taste better henceforth.

The Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company held a business meeting on Saturday. It is the intention to put up a metallic trunk line from here to Oregon City in place of the present one, some time in the near future.

Saturday Harding Grange met in regular session and as usual all present spent a very pleasant day. Many topics of interest to farmers were discussed. Everyone was well pleased with the good showing by the Fair, and declared they would do better another year.

Frank Wilson has moved onto his own place again. "There is no place like home."

F. Raw and family have moved down near Mt. Tabor.

J. Boss had one of his best cows down with milk fever, but the prompt use of a bicycle pump and a turkey quill saved her life.

Frank Riehoff came home on a short visit last week.

W. P. Kirchem is on the jury this week.

F. W. King and family intend to move away soon. He expects to move down near Portland, where he has work in a sawmill.

The rumor that Wm. Chenoweth's house was burned was a mistake; it was his sister's, Mrs. Thos. Whythe-combe's home that was destroyed by fire.

Harding Grange passed a series of appropriate resolutions on the death of Mrs. Ellen Babler, who was an honored member of that Grange, last week.

NEEDY

Mrs. Morrison is reported seriously ill at this writing.

The oyster supper and dance given at Will Armstrong's Saturday night was well attended and all enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith spent Sunday at J. D. Ritter's.

Mrs. P. Ritter and Miss Grace Ritter spent Saturday and Sunday at Butteville.

Mr. Ogile was seen in our vicinity the first of the week giving music lessons.

DOVER.

Mrs. Anna Cooper sold forty-seven head of sheep to the Eagle Creek buyer last Monday.

Mr. Cassidy and son are hauling potatoes to Eagle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie entertained a few friends October 28th in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary.

George Sawtell has a force of men digging his potatoes.

C. A. Keith and daughter, Helen, returned Monday from Beaverton.

The bridge on the Douglas road is in very bad condition. Mrs. Cooper's horse broke through a plank and hurt its leg quite badly. C. A. Keith put in a new plank. The whole bridge needs replanking.

STAFFORD.

Beautiful weather again after our little rain.

A land broker comes around now and then, asks the price and departs. Some plowing has been done.

Will Borland has a force of men at work digging his 10-acre field of potatoes. We hear Will has sold his place and intends to go east of the mountains soon, but this is only hearsay.

Curley has been confined to his bed a part of the time with his old enemy, the rheumatism, since his return from the Hot Springs.

Henry Gage and wife are visiting at the old home. He broke his ribs last spring and they do not mend as they ought, and the doctor ordered a change and rest, therefore he let his dairy ranch in Tillamook for a year or two and pulled out.

A party of about 30 invited guests spent Halloween at Mr. Gage's.

A party of young boys carried away a few gates and fence rails from their neighbors' premises and attempted to run off the school master's buggy, but he rapped on his window, and the habit of obedience was so strong within them they ran for the fence corners.

Mrs. Sweek visited at Mrs. Gage's Monday.

Quite a full house listened to a good sermon from the Rev. Waehle on Sunday evening last. The Rev. gentleman preaches in English on the first Sunday evening of each month. Miss Clara Waehle has gone up to Salem, expecting to keep house for her brother, who is studying for the ministry.

CLARKES.

We have fair weather again and we all enjoy it.

Joe and Henry Kruder are out to stay with their parents for a while. They have two span of horses with them and the old folks have rented their store to a Portland man and they will soon have to move.

Bill Buckner, from Oregon City, was in Clarkes last Sunday looking around; he stopped at Mr. Bottemiller's for a short time.

Christ Kinay is moving to Canby.

John Putz was butchering for Mr. Berglund last Monday.

B. Sullivan and Mr. Jones were to town on business Monday.

Jack Ringo came back from Eastern Oregon last week and their son is very ill.

John Marshall had bad luck while he was sawing wood. He slipped and fell into one of the cog wheels, injuring his arm; he was badly hurt and may lose his arm.

Rings Dyspepsia Tablets do the work. Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, bloating, etc., yield quickly. Two days' treatment free. Ask your druggist for a free trial. Sold by Huntley Bros.

SHUBEL.

Freddie Bohlender has returned home after working in Eastern Oregon for several months.

Jacob Grossmiller went to Portland last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Giebler, for a few days.

Wheat and oats sown in September and early October are looking well.

Fred Heft and Jay Dix, two of our enterprising sawmill men, made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.

E. W. Hornschuh has purchased a new disc plow.

The boys made good use of Halloween. They removed a number of gates, double trees, single trees and other farm machinery from their usual places. It no doubt caused the peace-loving farmer to think a few swear words before he got things placed in proper position again, but after all no injury to property has taken place and so long as boys don't destroy or injure property, their pranks on this particular night can be tolerated.

Fred Moehne, Albert Moehne, and John Heft are among those who went to Oregon City on business last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Glnther visited with Will Kleinsmith and family of Clarkes Monday.

The Evangelical church people have purchased a fine new organ for their church.

Mrs. Hettman and Mrs. Steiner have gone to Portland to visit with friends for a short time.

Mothers with little children need no longer fear croup, colds or whooping cough. Bees Laxative Cough Syrup tastes good. It works off the cold through the bowels, clears the head. Guaranteed. Sold by Huntley Bros.

MULINO.
