SOCIALISTS GETTING READY FOR ELECTION

WILL HOLD MASS CONVENTION TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES MARCH 28.

The Socialists of Clackamas County will hold a county convention in Oregon City Saturday, March 28, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket and declaring a platform. This will be a mass convention and all members of the party are entitled to seats on the floor. The convention is called for 2 o'clock, but at 10 o'clock in the morning of the same day there will be a party meeting for the purpose of choosing delegates to the state convention and a county executive committee.

Socialists held their regular monthly meeting last Sunday in Knapp's Hall, and transacted the usual routine business. Several speeches were made by Elijah Coalman, of Sandy, J. Meindl, W. W. Myers and Claude S. Howard, secretary of the county organization. The Socialists expect to poll about 400 votes at the coming June election. They are not strong enough numerically to take advantage of the direct primary nominating law and will nominate their candidates by petition.

MARKETS

CABBAGE UP; EGGS DOWN.

Vegetable Market is Quiet and Conditions are Unchanged.

A further drop in the price of eggs, and a slight jump in the cabbage market over the prices ruling last week, are about the most important changes in this week's markets. Last week cabbage slid from 1 1/2 cents to 1 cent; but this week this commodity has been selling at 1 1/4 cents a pound. Lettuce experienced a slight fall, and horseradish a rise; otherwise the vegetable market sleeps. The market is not flooded as much with vegetables as it was last week. Fruits, both fresh and dried, are commanding the same prices as last week, and there seems to be little or no danger of a sweeping change in the next few days. Butter remains still unchanged; ranch butter selling at 50 and 60 cents, and creamery bringing 60 and 70 cents in the roll. There are no great changes in the prices of feed, grain and flour, nor are the livestock or poultry markets changed. Hams have dropped from 12 1/2 cents and 14 cents to 12 and 13 1/2 cents.
