NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Rain, rain, Rain! the beautiful rain. How it patters against the window

The rain we have been having for the last few days has stopped many of the farmers from doing their harrow-

Lloyd Yocum, who had the misfor-tune to get one of his hands cut in the planer at the wood working fac-tory, by a double bitted ax last week is getting along nicely. At this writing he is still in the hospital at Port-

Mrs. G. T. Hunt is laid up with the Freda Duus has gone to Portland and will remain about a month. Mrs. Martha Davis is in Portland at her daughter's Mrs. Clara Johnson, who is quite ill.

The play entitled "A Loyal Friend, given by the Garfield Grange Dramatic Club, was a success. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, there was a large crowd out. It was followed by a basket social. W.H. Samson was auctioneer. The bidding was lively and the auctioneer caused some amusement. Miss Jessie Lemon's basket brought the highest price. The sum realized from the baskets was $71.90. The proceeds go for the benefit of the Grange.

We are glad to see our old friend, Mrs. M. K. Irvin up and around again. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shrimer went to Boring last Tuesday to attend the funeral of the later's sister; they returned Friday.

EAGLE CREEK.

On Tuesday evening, March 10, Mrs. J. P. Woodle gave a surprise party in honor of her husband's birthday. All present enjoyed themselves listening to music, both instrumental and vocal. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. Cahill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brower, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas, Robert Cahill, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, Ray, Claud, Malcolm, Mary, Nettle and Jocy Woodle, Little Bobbie Cahill, Gifford Hoffmeister, Little Roy and going to have all new neighbors after Dorothy Woodle.

Mrs. Murphy fell and sprained her wrist Monday last. We hope she is getting along all right. H. S. Gibson bought some pigs of Mr. Sawtell last week.

J. W. Douglass went to Portland on business the latter part of last week. Mrs. Cora Robertson went to Portland last Friday.

Harvey Gibson, of Barton, was seen in this berg Wednesday last. He purchased a horse while up here. Miss Cleo Douglass called on her sister, Ella, and Mrs. McDaniels Fri-

Sam Wilson has been working for J. W. Douglass the past week. He has been sitting in a "tater" hole sort-He ing potatoes. He intends going to South America in the near future.

James Gibson made a trip to Portifing relatives and friends in this all.

land Friday, last.
Mr. Gordon, of Barton, was seen up this way last week, driving old "Riley." He paid a visit to the mill. J. F. Brower has sold his farm, and birthday.

will move to Orient soon, where he purchased a home. Our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Berg, have arrived. They bought the playing.

Brower place Several of the young people of this

Fred Rolph intends sailing for Klondike on the first steamer that leaves for that country in the spring.

MARKS PRAIRIE.

The hardest rain storm of the winter has been on here for three days and early garden is at a big discount George Oglesby and sons are just getting able to be up and about, after a two weeks' siege of lagri-Road work has been the orger of

Lots of sickness in our community at present.

We have a man here that is opposed to all kinds of public improvements, even oposing a public road that is badly needed as could be expected. He is a Bourbon Democrat and has been a trespasser on other people's roads for over 35 years. The rain will put a stop to all farming work for some time.

The entertainment at our school house was a success, although the move his family down next week. attendance was small owing to the The funeral services of Thomas stormy weather and 20 baskets brought $19.80. Prof. Ogle and the church, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Oglesby boys furnished first-class music for the entertaisment,

Our hop men are up against the real less money than it costs to pick them. friends and neighbors. Anyone wanting to rent a hop yard days.

606 MAIN STREET

Mark's Prairie at any old time. A very small acreage of potatoes will be planted here this pring owing to so many potatoes being held here for a higher price. Seed potatoes are very cheap, with no demand.

NORTH BEAVER CREEK.

The weather has been se stormy the last few days that it has put a stop to the farming.

The grippe has at last visited our little burg. Everybody seems to be laid up with it. Miss Lottle Bluhm has come home She has the grip too; also Mrs. Henry Hernici is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spence were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grisenth-Saturday.

Walter Eggerman is working for Mr. Josi at Maple Lane. Born-to the wife of Bert Comins, a girl, on the 13. John Howell has left our burg for a while. He and a friend of his from Wales, have been to Fendleton to look for work.

Wm. Harris made a business trip to Oregon City, Saturday. Several from around here took in the masquerade dance at Linn's hall Saturday night and all report a swell

CARUS.

Charles Spangler, who fell in his barn and got hurt, is getting a little better.

Mrs. Lewis came home Saturday from a visit to Oregon City. We are having real webfoot weather again, after a few nice days. We need it to make the pasture and grain Jacob Kalbfleisch visited friends in Canby Sunday.

Mrs. Stewart has just begun to be around after an attack of the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans' daughter of Portland is spending a few days visiting with her relatives in this sec-

Mrs. Rose, of Portland, is visiting her brother, Charles Spangler. Mr. Tucker, of West Carus, has sold his farm. It looks as though we were

I suppose there will be great anxiety on the part of the office seekers from now until after election.

MOLALLA.

Molalla, the river, has been on a rampage, more water seems to be on he ground than at any other time durthe winter.

Although it rained last Saturday night, the basket social at the church was quite a success.

Ye scribe has been on the sick list for a week with a sore throat. W. W. Everhart and wife were elected representatives to the State Grange at the County Grange, in Oregon City, last week; thus Molalla Grange No.

vicinity

Miss Ethel Watts' friends gave her a surprise party on the evening of March 17, it being her eighteenth

Molalla Band has purchased two new up-to-date b-flat horns at $120, and they are said to be very easy to learn of his successful recovery mill creek pretty fast, place attended the dance at Eagle from the operation of appendicitis at Creek, Saturday, March 14.

Rock Creek copper mines.

CLACKAMAS.

The social given by the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church last Friday evening was a great success. In spite of bad weather the hall was well filled and seventy-five at least took supper. Several ladies told in a the day for a couple of weeks in this more or less humorous way, how they vicinity. were collected as the result of the evening's entertainment.

It is reported that the Sherrett place is about to change hands again. Hardy Langenburg has obtained a position in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Parkplace visited Mrs. Spurgeon last Sun-

Rev. S. W. Riggs, pastor at Clackamas and Parkplace, has rented a house at the latter place and will

Rev. W. B. Moore conducted the service. The I. O. O. F. took charge at the cemetery. Mr. Deakins' sufferthing now, and very few hop yards ings were intense during the last two will be planted here this spring owing weeks of his life, and called out the ford to raise hops and sell them for most loving sympathy of his many

Eilers Piano House will give a re can be accommodated right here on cital Tuesday evening, March 24, at OREGON CITY.

We have a buyer for timber lands-and for two ten

We have for sale some fine river front properties.

Have made some nice additions to our list in last few

W. F. SCHOOLEY & CO.

proceeds will be for the benefit of the R. at this place, has been promoted to society of Christian Endeavor. The sisters of Clackamas Grange, No. 298, will give an apron and necktie social Friday evening, March 27. Grande in the near future. Each sister will wear an unhemed John Marshall ih buildi Each sister will wear an unhemed John Marshall in building a new apron and bring a tie to match. She house on the Schindler & Kerr tract. ties will be sold at twenty-five cents Mr. Montcreif has just completed a apiece which will include supper for neat cottage on his property on Minhimself and partner. The brother thorn, buying the tie must hem the corres- Mr. ponding apron. The one who succeeds best in hemming will get a fine prize. ris new home. The place consists of Howard Smith, who lately sold his a neat house and four blocks, for he Garrett house. man house.

SPRINGWATER.

An old veteran, Whipple Nash, of the Civil War, died March 8. He was member of the 30th Wisconsin regiment. Mr. Nash was born in New York over 72 years ago. dled several years ago. He leaves three children to mourn their loss, one son, Spencer Nash, and two daughters. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Diven. The remains were laid to rest in Springwater cemetery.

It is rumored that another farm has changed hands in Springwater. Mr. Whitehead of Portland, is said to have sold his farm for $8000.

Mrs. Hayner, teacher of the young men's class in the Sunday school, gave a fine lunch and entertainment boys and girls they brought with them reported a fine enjoyable

Mrs. Moyer gave a few of her friends an excellent supper and royally entertained them, it being the anniversary of her 42d birthday and also the 74th birthday of A. M. Shibley, who attended and got away with his share of the excellent supper. Mrs. Hayner's sister and family re on a visit with the former. Born- to Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, a 12-pound boy. They are taken up with Roosevelt's theory and do not have-race suicide.

It appears to the writer that the City.

Republican party or a part of it, is The revivals continue, with one Republican party or a part of it, is fairly or unfairly playing, to benefit more preacher in attendance. This the Democratic party. Splitting up makes six weeks of meeting, with alon the Primary and Statement No. ways large crowds and several con-

1. Three or four Republican candidates for U. S. Senator against one Prof. I popular Democrat. I doubt very much that some of the candidates are loyal to the Republican party. If they can not have their way, they are willing to bust up the good old Republican

HARMONY.

A birthday and surprise party was given to the Misses Helen and Christina Ketels last Friday evening. Refreshments were served, the young people took their departure, and reported a good time.

Fritz Roseman was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital last Friday. Dr. Locke is the attending physician. George Ottoy is improving his place by putting a fence around it.
The Woman's Missionary Society had an open meeting last Sunday, and Oregon City, last week. a good programme was enjoyed by A district Sunday school convention will be keld at this place next Wednesday, March 18, all day and evening. A basket dinner will be given.

COLTON.

After a long spell of dry weather, we have quite a shower of rain, which makes the creeks boom and the shingle bolts go floating down the T. E. Everhart's friends will be glad shingle bolts go floating down the

Mr. Snodgrass came to Colton Sunday and brought with him six men to Mr. Woodington died last week up make a drive with his shingle bolts, on the Abequa. He was Mrs. C. W. which he intends to take out of the Merman's father, and founder of the little creeks as he has now about 1200 cords in them. Carl Stromgreen was busy hauling shingles for the Swedish church. Mr. Leeson fetched home two milch cows a few days ago.

Charles Hunter was hauling hay which he bought from Mr. Kandle of Highland. He also hauled some oats, which he bought of C. Haag at Tim-John Lamm came to Colton to get his bride, Miss Amy Bonney. They went to Oregon City, where they got married; then went on their way to ried down the river. their new home, which is at Jacksonville, Oregon. Walter Gorbett was hauling some lumber for fencing and other purposes last week Mr. Bergreen was hauling outs from Haag's last week J. Putz was sowing oats for U. S.

Dix last Monday. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrum, a baby girl last Sunday morning, but was only to live a few hours to leave this world to seek a better home. It was buried at the Dix cemetery Monday at 4 o'clock. U. S. Dix and J. Putz were busy hauling hay from C. Kinzy at Highland last week. Mr. Anderson hauled a load of oats from T. J. Grace last week. A. B. Countryman is hauling lumber for Rex Gorden, who is building new barn. Carl Stromgreen is hauling lumber for J. A. Stromgreen.

A. B. Countryman was plowing for loe Peterson last week. Farr Bros. were out and purchased Mrs. Shanley's fat beef cattle last week. They were taken to Oregon City last Wednesday, and Freeman

Bros, took a load of chickens to town for Mrs. Shanley,

The Milwaukie school gave an entertainment in the city hall Saturday evening. A good programme was given by the pupils of the school. Prof. Gary gave a short address. The large hall was crowded with people, anxious to help the chmildren and teachers make the entertainment a grand success

MILWAUKIE.

Milwankie Grange will hold its regular day meeting next Saturday. The lecture hour will be devoted to a temperance programme and discussion on lost in the desp blue sea.

the proposed tax amendment. Milwaukie has to wait awhile for Monday with an unusually high enrollts 5-cent fare. The legal battle was ment, Professor Dibble. on in earnest at Salem last week and water, wielding the birch.

the Congregational church, at eight it is hoped to get an early decision. o'clock. Admission will be 15 cents Charles McCann, formerly section for children; adults 25 cents. The foreman for the Southern Pacific R. road-master on the O. R. & N. R. R., with offices at La Grande. Mr. Mc-Cann's family expects to move to La

Mr. Montcreif has just completed a

Mr. Manasa, who recently bought the Rinehart place, has moved on to place west of town has moved into which Mr. Manasa paid $8000, making a record price.

Mr. Shearer and family have recently moved into the Wiley Chap- and J. L. Johnson in Minthorn are offered for sale and as the price is reasonable the farms will soon change hands.

P. J. Henneman and T. R. A. Sellwood sold some lots during the week.

A Mothers' and Teachers' Club formed a permanent organization in Milwaukie Sunday afternoon, when the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. L. Roberts; vicepresident, Mrs. M. D. Reld; secretary, Mrs. George Wissinger; treasurer, Miss Estella Niles; committee on constitution and by-laws, Mrs. J. H. Reid, Mrs. Phillip Streib, Mrs. Frye; visiting, Mrs. G. W. Ganiard, Mrs. N. H. Toates, Mrs. Spring, Mrs. George Wisinger, Mrs. Ella Casto, Mrs. Phil-lips; entertainment, Miss Niles, Mrs. jointly. George Wissinger; printing, Mrs. We d Emilie C. Shaw, Mrs. G. F. Johnson; civic improvements, Mrs. George Wissinger, Mrs. P. Streib, Mrs. Baniard, Mrs. Maple, Mrs. Miller. The next meeting of the club will be held in the Milwaukie schoolhouse next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when all mothers of Milwaukie are invited to attend.

NEEDY.

It looks as if we were going to have a flood. Mr. McGonegal bought a fine pony for his son, Glenn, Mrs. Katle Spagle is still staying with her brother, Julius, of Oregon

Prof. Ray Fish will close a successful term of school on Friday. We are sorry he will not teach longer as it will be hard to find his equal.

Wilma Blair began a term of school at Dryland Monday. Miss Nora Criswell returned home for a short stay, and Miss Stella Criswell left Saturday for Russellville, where she will teach a spring term of Paul Sampson has been quite ill with pneumonia but is reported bet-

Grandpa Noblitt is quite ill at the home of his daughter, Jane, in Oregon City. Percy Ritter and wife were Butteville, Monday, Mrs. Roy Cochran and son, of Portland, are visiting relatives here. J. D. Ritter made a business trip to Mrs. Daisy Ogle was in Oregon City Friday at the bedside of her grand-father, Mr. Noblitt, who is very ill. Born, March 13, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Bauer, of Aurora, a boy. Mr. Bauer is formerly of Bauer & Tull Merchaddise store of this place.

Floy Davenport, Paulie Roddy and Walter Smith have the mumps.

Mrs. L. L. Irwin, W. S. Tull and H. the Clackamas County Grange convention at Oregon City last Tuesday. The Busy Bee Sewing Society met at Miss Alma Rymerson's Thursday evening.

amounted to $2.25. Carl Ekern, who has been absent from school for many weeks with have moved to Estacada with their bronchitis, was able to attend school again, Monday.

The Molalla river raised so much the first of the week that many of the ties put in the river by Henry Shaf- and Mrs. W. Word a visit. er, to be caught and shipped by W. B. Tull, for the S. P. Co., were car-

Mrs. J. Mollet, of Tacoma, has been visiting friends here the past week. She returned home, Saturday. Mrs. and Henry Hedges, who have been at Barlow and Canby for some time, returned to North Bend, Thurs-Miss Anna Slatogger, of Aurora, visited her parents Sunday and Mon-Edwin Dollan, of Salem, visited his brother, Chas. Dollan, Sunday. Chas. Ogle is confined to his room with the grippe.

Miss Gertrude Evans, who has been studying music in Oregon City, is home again. Ogle sold his farm and resilence to J. C. Coller, of Canby. Miss Laura Rymerson, who is attending Portland High School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her par-

Manuel King was ill with the grippe last weeek but is well at present, Walter Irwin, accompanied by Ralph ewis, of Vancouver, Wn., spent Monday with R. E. Irwin. George and Henry Gilbertson have sold their farm land to S. Berg.

MEADOWBROOK Lots of rain and high water in this part of the country this week. The river was at a high mark last Sunday

It is too wet to farm now, so the farmers can rest till the rain is over. J. W. Staudinger has been shearing goats for H. S. Ramsby,

The butter on the Meadowbrook ranch surprised the proprietor with his strength when he struck him midship backaft on the larboard side, knocking him over the mizzen-mast where he became entangled in the rigging and fell overboard and was

Meadowbrook High School opened of Spring-

A Reminder

Lent is here, and we are prepared to furnish you with the finest fresh and salt water fish in the market. Fruit in season. All Orders Deliv-

G. GATES

522 MAIN STREET

PHONE 2744

News has just reached us that gold store, he takes orders and delivers has been discovered near the center groceries; then gets the cream twice of the townsite,

R. H. Snodgrass has a crew of men running shingle bolts down Mik Creek to Mulino, where he is building a new shingle mill. A number of our town folk attended grange at Mulino Saturday. All report a good time. The Colton merchant passed through town Monday with a supply of fresh groceries. B. F. Noyer of Schafferville, called Monday and they dis-ters and politics on R. P. Co

cussed sch

any Democrat in We don't chance it with a our town will Republican fo

LODGE. JENN!

lings Lodge con-The people 1 few days besider it wise for you never fore putting in can tell what th tner is going to be in March in G. Coun.

Mrs. Buckner received a letter from husband, W. E. Buckner, who has just arrived in Northern Washington. He says that it has been dull there ever since the financial flurry, but that business is beginning to liven up now. W. Lewis visited in Portland Monday. Little Arthur Roberts is on the sick list this week.

A messenger boy from Portland was out all afternoon Tuesday looking after a party by the name of Malon, to deliver them a telegram. He came to Jennings Lodge at 7 p. m., but could not find anyone by that name

Clarence Buckner is rejoicing over a picture of, and letter from, Izetta Jew-ell, who apperaed as leading lady at the Baker Theater some weeks ago. Mrs. Wilcox seems to be improving some

Mr. Slocum has some beautiful hyacinths in bloom in his front yard.

The women of the Milwaukie grange will give a social Saturday night, March 28, at the grange hall.

Mayor Shindler and Councilman Strieb were in Salem the latter part of last week representing the municipality in the five cent fare fight. They predict victory for Milwaukie. The next meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held at the school house

March 22 Wesley Thiessen, who has been attending the agricultural college at Corvallis, is at home convalescing from a severe illness.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ariegi died very suddenly Sunday morning. The funeral was held undertaking parlors in Portland.

The shingle mill has sttarted again after a stop of a couple of weeks getting in different machinery, and un-Melvin were sent as delegates to der the management of Mr. Leacn it looks like things were going to hum around the mill.

S. Deering has also started up his saw mill with a new crew in the mill, The dues and offerings and also in the woods. Mr. Mercer and Mr. Stewart, who have beeen working for Mr. Deering, > families. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Simmons, of Ore-

Jack Rice is working at a mill in the mountains at what used to be the Miller Bros' saw mill. Mr. Kopp made a trip to Portland it will soon turn warm, so we can is a busy man. Besides tending his thing to eat, a week from up the creek for the cream man.

Rev. P. J. Rinehart and wife and daughter went to Portland, to spend a few days with friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. Hicinbothom were over from Estacada last week and spent a few days calling on relatives and friends. James Haydon has a new phone, so now he can talk to all of his neighbors Mr. Burt and John Mattoon made a trip to Oregon City one day this week to get a load of feed.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

The cold heavy rain last week was likely the close of Woodchuck's sir weeks freeze up before Spring. The sun is shining beautifully again. F. M. Darling and J. W. Harrington are spraying their trees.

Frank Albright came home from the Superior saw mill with the mumps Fred Curran has them too; he is out at the mill. George Roberts came in from the mill Tuesday on business.

P. D. Curran and relatives all came in from the saw mill to attend the sickness and death of W. D. Curran. Missis Josle, Frankie and Curran went home with their aunt, Nora Carrico, and Uncle Ferd. J. Murrow, of Sellwood, was here have a new fence and barn built. Mrs. Edgecome is talking of selling her property here. Mrs. Maggie Curran visited here over Sunday. She went to see her mother, Mrs. Wickham, who is seri-last week, making preparations to ously ill. She has paralysis. William Jackson, of Vancouver Barracks, spent Saturday and Sunday here among relatives and friends. Miss Maude Griffin has a lady friend from California visiting her

Mr .and Mrs. McGrew made a business trip to Portland last Monday, Mr. McGrew has dissolved partnership with Ed. Gottberg, blacksmith. Mrs. Everhart is visiting relatives this week.

and friends here this week. She spent a few days last week in Portland with her son, Frank. Miss Stella Hubbard has left this burg and Mrs. Della Gottebrg is working in her place for "Ma" Gottberg

CLARKES.

We had a storm again and plenty f rain. The wells are filled again and it delayed plowing and sowing at present and it is cold enough to snow. Mrs. Shanley sold four steers to Farr in Oregon City, and all her chickens. Albert Beauer and his brother Fred took Mrs. Shanley's steers to to last week and the Freeman boys took her chickens to town.

David Hang, from Washington, came home to visit his parents for a while Miss Grace Smith has closed ber school on account of an operation of Christ Kinzy is moving his mile ows over to Canby and his brother Carl is helping him. We have the mumps in the neigh borhood.

Walter Lee has the mumps. He's the son of Elmer Lee. Mr. Haag went to town Tuesday, of ousiness W. H. Bottemiller and Alex Schen ruble sawed wood Monday afternoon. We all are looking for the spring to start this week, and we all hope

W. H. NELSON, Blacksmith

on Priday and returned Saturday. He make some garden. We want some

Wagon and Carriage Maker Horse Shoeing A Specially 107 Fourth Street, PHONE 2601 Oregon City, Oregon

NEAR ROAKE'S FOUNDRY

Don't neglect your cough.

Statistics show that in New York City alone over 200 people die every week from consumption.

And most of these consumptives might be living now if they had not neglected the warning cough.

You know how quickly Scott's Emulsion enables you to throw off a cough or cold.

ALL DRUGGISTS; Sec. AND $1.00.