STAFFORD.

We have been having one of our many vernal equinoxes, of which we may expect several before harvest, but at the present time the sun shines out as serene as a day in June, of which poets sing, and during the three days of rain at no time did the mercury register below 53 above; therefore we should find nothing to kick about. Grain and grass are coming on fine, door yards show a variety of flowers; hens are exerting themselves to supply the market with cheap eggs; the sick are improving generally.

John Suddling's house will be fumigated in a few days and we can go and say "how are ye," to him, as he has been very sick with diphtheria, and the place quarantined.

Ben Athey, an old pioneer and resident of this place, passed away unday and was buried by the side of an only boy, who died a number of years ago, in the Stafford cemetery, on Tuesday. He leaves a wife and four married daughters.

Fred Baker has moved into his new house.

Joe Nimic has been cutting wood for the Baker boys.

A stranger is making stove wood for Mr. Gage.

Did you hear of the antics of Will Schmitt's 17-year-old son recently? First he rolled in a mud hole with the new harness on; then they took him to get some scrapers, as his master is road boss, and the colt ran away, dragging his mate along. Then William got on his back next day to take a little ride, when suddenly he bucked, nearly unseating his rider. At last accounts they had got him broken so they could use him carefully. He was like some boys at that age—thought he was old enough to do as he pleased.

At the last ball game one boy brought grape wine, and two of the others got into a fight it is said. Comment is unnecessary. We withhold names at present, out of regard to the parents and friends.

REDLAND.

Mrs. Robinson, of Tacoma, has joined her husband at this place.

Several of the patrons of the Clear Creek Creamery attended the annual stockholders' meeting. Mr. Hollingsworth was elected secretary.

John Murdoch, an oldtime resident of Redland, but now of Monmouth, was recently seen on our streets. He combined business with pleasure and renewed many old time acquaintances.

Mrs. W. M. Stone is spending a week in Salem visiting relatives.

The real estate market is getting quite active and several tracts lately changed hands.

Mr. Bronson, of Salem, was a recent land buyer seen in our village.

Mr. Caswell left for his home at Nanton, Alberta.

Mr. Hooper is doing some extensive cleaning which has greatly helped the looks of his place.

The Clear Creek Lumber Company recently bought considerable timber of Mr. Funk.

CLARKES.

All kinds of farm work will be suspended for a time on account of the rain.

Miss Sadie Freeman is in bed with that monster the gripe, so Mr. "Dad" Dix is acting as cook.

Doris Evans spent Saturday and Sunday at Dix's mill.

R. Bullard, George and John Anderson, spent Sunday at H. Wallace's.

Mrs. Louis Wallace has been under the weather as she didn't get to go "visiting" Sunday.

The recent warm spell has started the grass and other green feed to growing nicely, and most cattle are looking good.

H. Wallace and son intend putting in 12 acres of potatoes.

John Evans and John Rawley bought potatoes of H. Wallace one day last week.

E. B. Stark was patching up the holes in his road the other day.

LIBERAL.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated at Liberal in grand style; the fields were all green.

Irene Atwood fell and broke her at school Monday while playing tag.

Kasper Zinger is in our burg again.

B. Friedrich has a new stump machine, and he will have his place all cleaned up in the near future, from the way stumps are flying.

William Skeen and family attended the funeral of Mr. Lovernage, Mrs. Skeen's father, at Woodburn last Saturday.

R. A. Wright made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

William Morey sold his land on the east side of the road to Thad Stipp and the surveyors are out surveying the same.

Frank Friedrich took a load of baled hay to town Monday.

Dan Graves has put his sheep to pasture in Wright's park for a few days. The dogs are so bad in this neighborhood they are killing all the sheep and goats off, and they killed 20 sheep for Dan Graves in one night.

ESTACADA.

The basket social at the Garfield Grange hall Saturday evening was a great success. The play was well received.

W. H. Samson of Oregon City acted as auctioneer, and anyone who knows him knows that he can't be beat in that line.

Notwithstanding the pouring rain, 100 persons were present and they were very generous.

The gross income of the evening was $70.85. It will be used in papering the hall and for such other purposes as the grange may see fit to use it.

Fred Lins and Carl Lins, of George, braved the storm of Saturday night and walked over to see the play at the Garfield Grange hall.

People who have grit enough to walk six miles through such a storm as Saturday's, make a very appreciative audience.

Miss Dale, of Estacada, attended the basket social at Garfield Saturday night.

Earl Wagner is recovering from his illness which at one time was thought would prove fatal.

Mrs. M. K. Irwin is able to be out and around again after more than a month's illness.

The Rev. M. B. Paroungien is holding revival services this week at Currinsville.

Eagle Creek and the Clackamas River were higher Sunday than for three or four years.

George Dale, of Estacada, began work today as head Chinaman for the Maury surveying party on the North Fork of Eagle Creek.

Henry Johnson, of George, raised the frame of his barn a few days ago.

Ed. Harus and Fred Lins are assisting him to build it.

E. N. Foster, of Eagle Creek, is ill with the grip.

F. M. Gill was at Eagle Creek Saturday getting signatures on his nominating petition.

Ed. Hunt, of Estacada, furnished the music for the basket social at Garfield. Mr. Hunt is an excellent violinist. J. T. Irvin rendered an excellent accompaniment on the organ.

It is freely predicted here that Estacada precinct will go "dry" in June. If it does, five saloons will go.

James Hatton of the Ogle Mountain mines, was a caller at Garfield this week.

MULINO.

We have been having a little rain again, and the Molalla river was higher than it had been for several years.

Dell Trullinger's new mill dam was taken out by the high water.

Mr. Snodgrass has gone to start his shingle bolt drive on Milk creek.

Maud Manning has gone to Carus to work for Mrs. Ward a while.

Inez and Gladys Snodgrass called on Mary Trullinger, Saturday.

Mrs. Daniels and Miss Spulak "rode the goat" at the Grange, Saturday.

Mrs. Husband hasn't been expected to live, but is some better at present.

Mrs. Mallatt's sister, Miss Miller, of Stone, is visiting her at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapin have moved into Mulino. Mrs. Chapin is well known here, as she was formerly Miss Hattie Porter.

Mrs. Davis is quite ill with a rising in her head.

Ernest Mallatt and Miss Miller visited with Mrs. Ed. Dart of Teazel Creek, Sunday.

Mr. Howard is having some new machinery put in the flour mill.

TEAZEL CREEK.

Teazel Creek and Rock Creek are

NEW ERA.

New arrival—a 12-pound young man has come to town, and is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Mort Haines.

Joseph Sevlck, Jr., spent Sunday in Portland with friends.

The Wells-Fargo Express Co. has sent a new truck to replace the one that was caught in the railroad wreck here during the winter.

Miss Clara Walker returned to New Era last Sunday.

Michel Bowman has the building of a new house for John Bradt in the near future.

Mr. Staehely met with a serious accident Monday afternoon while unloading potatoes at the warehouse. The truck was carelessly set too near the edge of the platform and when the first sack was dropped on the blade of the truck, the handles reached out and "biffed" him a sounder on the nose. As a result Mr. Staehely is carrying his nose in a sling.

Miss Minnie Kyle, of Portland, is visiting her parents here this week.
