ENTERPRISE READERS ARE INVITED TO CON-TRIBUTE AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL,
LIVESTOCK, POULTRY, DAIRY OR "BIG CROP"
ITEMS FOR THIS DEPARTMENT.

young tomato plants will furnish shade for the lettuce, and by the time the tomatoes occupy the space, you should have a stock of tender lettuce as large as a head of cabbage, for your trouble.

March.

March comes blustering into town
Dressed in suit of russet brown;
Piping gaily as he passes O'er dead leaves and last year's grasses;

Shaking trees in his mad fun
Till the sap begins to run;
Whistling so loud and clear
That the sleeping flowers hear,
And a sparrow lends a note
From its quivering little throat.
Everything is up and stirring,
When March winds begin their whirring.

Give Him A Chance.

Don't let the boy have to ask, or worse yet, tease for every cent of spending money. Every child should contribute his share to the work of the farm, simply because it is right, and by no means should he expect pay for doing his duty. However, to cultivate a spirit and thrift and independence, the orphan lamb, the pet pig, or a few hens may well be the property of the small boy, and also money accruing therefrom, his also.
The larger boy may cultivate a parcel of land (small or large, according to circumstances) on shares, with results satisfactory to father and son alike. It will be found that the average boy will be as careful and wise in expending his own money as his father's money.

CARE OF FARM ANIMALS.

A horse with a cold will usually recover without treatment unless it is very severe. In this case, a vigorous dose of physic is useful to be followed by careful feeding and a warm stable free from drafts. Be sure the horse with a discharge from the nostrils is not affected with glanders.

The Cow and the Calf.

This is the month of raw winds and chilling storms. Keep the stock snug under shelter for a few weeks
yet; it will pay.

Get the cows up in good shape before the time for them to go to pasture comes. Then they will pour out the milk when they come to get the fresh feed.

Put the calves where they can get a sun bath every day. This is easy—put some ordinary window sash in the south side of a shed or stable. Fit some shutters to close tightly over these windows at night to keep out the cold.

It is a shame to have the mother cow or horse mourn when its young is weaned. This may be entirely avoided by leaving the two together except for a low partition. When the mother sees the baby fed and cared for properly, and can touch it with her lips, she is made happy and contented.

PAPERMAKERS A GOOD NAME

TITLE CHOSEN FOR OREGON
CITY TEAM IN THE TRI-
CITY LEAGUE.

FUGE WINS CASH PRIZE

Local Ball Tossers Hold Try-Out For Positions and Season Opens
With Game With St. John
On April 11.

"Papermakers" is the name by which the Oregon City Tri-City League team will be known during the coming season, and the lucky winner of the $5 cash prize offered by C. A. Partlow, owner of the franchise, is Charles E. Fuge, a city mail carrier. The judges of the contest were Charles W. Kelly, C. G. Miller and the sporting editor of The Enterprise. The guesses sent in were numerous and follow:

Oregon City, Or., 3-23-'08.
Mr. Telford, Manager of the Oregon
City B. B. C.:

The name I would suggest for your team is Oregon City Eagles.
Yours truly,
G. H. HUNTLEY.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.
Sporting Editor, Oregon City Enterprise.

Dear Sir:
My name for the Oregon City Base Ball Club is "White Caps." It is suggestive of the color of the uniform,
a reminder of the falls, and a white cap is always on top. It will also make a fair monogram.
Yours respectfully,
G. LONG.

Mr. Editor Enterprise:—I wish to submit "The Clippers," as a name for the Ball Team.
J. GODFELLOW.

P. S.—Second choice would be "Imps."

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.
Sporting Editor.

Dear Sir: I herewith send two names for the O. C. base ball club for this season: The Oregon City Colts, or The Defenders. If each person is allowed to send in only one name I would prefer the latter, The Defenders.
Your truly,
CLARENCE ALLDREDGE.

Oregon City, Or., March 21, '08.
Mr. Sporting Editor, City.

Dear Sir: I suggest one of the following, as an appropriate and spicy season name for the Base Ball team
of Oregon City:

"The Skippers; because as a ship's master controls and guides his ship safely to its port, so are they to control the ball and guide the pennant safely to Oregon City; or, The Swifts, because they are to be the swiftest team in the league and rapidly take the lead.
Yours as a "Fan,"
FRED A. MILLER.

McMinnville, Or., March 19, '08.

To the men and manager of your team, allow me to name your team
the "Oregon City Rose Buds." A lover of base ball, Mick, Yamhill Hotel, Mc-Minnville, Oregon.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.
Sporting Editor, Oregon City.

Dear Sir: I send the name "Teddy Bears," for the Oregon City Baseball Team.
HUGH KELLOGG.
1611 Tenth Street.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.
Sporting Editor of the Enterprise

I submit a suitable name for the O.
C. baseball team: "The Challengers."
LIBBIE CALIFF.
1001 Tenth & J. Q. Adams St.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.

Dear Sir:
Manager of the Oregon City base-

good name for the team.
Yours truly,
TODD WILSON.

Route No. 5, Oregon City, Mar. 21.

I enclose some names which I consider good ones for the Oregon City ball team: "Spartans," "Stoics,"
"Olympics," "Philosophers," "Willamettes," "Braves." Hoping one of these will take the prize.
Very respectfully,
E. M. SHAW.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.

The Enterprise Sporting Editor:
I would suggest as a name for the Oregon City team of the Tri-City league, one that will be characteristic of our city, and distinguish our team easily, viz. "Papermakers."
CHAS. E. FUGE.
810 Harrison St.

Oregon City, Or., March 13, '08.

Sporting Editor Oregon City Enter-
prise:
I submit the following name for the

Ben Franklin

who used to run a newspaper down East years ago, also edited an almanac which contained some wise sayings. Here is one of them:

"The way to wealth, if you desire it, is as plain as the way to market. It depends chiefly on two words—industry and frugality. He that gets all he can honestly and saves all he gets (necessary expenses excepted) will certainly become rich."

What Ben said was not only true at that time, but it still holds good at the present day.

We will be glad to have you start an account at this bank.

Gentlemen: I hereby

submit a name for the Oregon

City club or league: "Coast"

W. E.

Portland, Or., March

Editor Enterprise, Oregon

Dear Sir: In answer

to your letter of the 17th

of recent date, I would submit the Oregon City ball team

"Chinooks."

Yours truly,

D. J. TAYLOR

467 E. 9th St. N.

Oregon City, Or., March 20, '08.

Gentlemen:

I would like to submit a few names

that might be used for the local aggregation in the Tri-City league. On account of our industries, the "Factories," "Manufacturers," "Factorymen,"

"Mill Men," "Millers," "Jolly Millers,"

"From the electric plant, the "Electricians," "Electricians," "Volts,"

"From our ever famous falls, the "Cataracts,"

"Falls City Victors," and "Falls City

Sluggers." The number of Oregon City people employed in Portland, and making the trip every day suggests the name "Commuters." Others are

"Red Sox," "Cardinals," "Woolwork-

ers," "Steel-heads," and "Pulp Tos-

ers." Last, but not least is the "Paper Weight Nine," or "Paperweights," coming as they do from a city that is virtually built from the paper industry, they are expected to do as a paper weight does, keep the fluttering changes of the league standing well

under control, and always remain on top.

Respectfully yours,

PHILLIP SINNOTT.

P. S.—How does the "Pioneers"

strike you?

Oregon City, Or., March 23, '08.

I suggest we name the Oregon City ball club after the Oregon City Falls,

and call it Falls City Club.

MRS. GEORGE WARREN.

716 1-2 Main St.

Oregon City, Or., March 23, '08.

To the Judges:

Since the suits for Oregon City nine

are blue and white, I would suggest

"The Bluecoats," as an appropriate

Oregon City's base ball

BESSIE F. MILLS.

Oregon City, Or., March 23, '08.

Dear Sir: I suggest you call the Oregon

City team "The Boosters."

It will boost them-

percentage column and will boost the town.

It will boost the team.

It will work together.

GLENN MILLS.

Oregon City, Or., March 17, '08.

Oregon City Enter-

prise

me which I

name for the

to represent

City league:

"IDYLLIAS."

The reasons I have for thinking

this an ideal name for the ball team

are as follows:

1. A very pretty name.

2. Short, very easily and quickly

pronounced.

3. Catchy to all people not only base ball fans, but the public at large.

4. Last and best reason: It will make a nice emblem on a shirt or cap.

Trusting that this name will be considered among the rest of your list,

I remain, your most respectfully,

CARL P. NEHREN.

Oregon City, Or., March 24, '08.

I submit the following names for the

Oregon City baseball team: Oregon

City Tigers and Oregon City Wild

Cats.

C. A. SCHRAM.

The Oregon City team will be bravely decked in new uniforms that have already been ordered at a cost of $150, not including the coats, which will be blue, with white trimmings,

with the emblem, "O. C." The suits

will be white, with cardinal facings

and across the front of the shirts

will appear the words "Oregon City."

There are eight teams in the Tri-City

League and Oregon City will receive no little amount of advertising

through the base ball team in its trips to Astoria, Salem, Vancouver, St.

John, Portland and other towns.

Eggs from two-year old hens are apt to hatch best at this time and the chicks will be more thrifty than those from pullet eggs.
