WOMANLY WISDOM.

By Mother Ann.

Once a mother's darling—now a tramp.
The hand that rocks the cradle does not often wear diamonds.
Too many cooks may spoil the broth—but they can't hurt the breakfast food.

Never give unnecessary pain; the cricket is not the nightingale; why tell him so?

We can not be, at the same time, kind and wary; nor can we serve two masters,—love and selfishness.

If you will sprinkle the top of your pie-crust with a little sweet cream before baking, it will be brown and flaky.

We come into the world with nothing but a voice; we go out leaving even the voice. Speak well your piece while you can.

Set the broken umbrellas away and keep them till the umbrella man comes around. He may save you the cost of a new umbrella.

"I don't see," observed the head of the house, "why this lace should be so expensive. It's mostly holes, and I thought holes were cheap."

The dress that makes people exclaim, "What a pretty gown!" should be discarded. Wear the dress that causes them to say, "What a pretty woman!"

The men say that any woman who has common sense can keep house well, but each of them freely admits that it takes exceptional ability to manage his business.

Set baking powder biscuits on top of the stove, at the back, a few minutes before putting them into the oven, and they will rise, no matter what the state of the oven may be.

Do not entirely fill the rubber hot-water bottle. When partly full rest it on something and press the top down until the water rises in the neck; then screw on the top. This drives out the air and keeps the water hot longer.

Russian Cream.

One quart of milk, four eggs, one and a half cups of sugar, one-half package gelatin. Beat yolks of eggs and sugar to a cream. Dissolve gelatin in the milk over the stove, stirring constantly. Then add yolks and sugar. Let it boil once or twice. Take off the stove and add the beaten whites of the eggs. Pour into a mold and when cool serve with cream and jelly.

Venison Roast With Raisins.

Arrange roast nicely in pan, cut gashes in top and lay in strips of salt pork. Salt and pepper; bake two and a half hours and baste often. When done, take out roast and make a gravy of one-half cup sweet milk, one-half cup good wine, juice of one orange. Thicken and serve hot over meat.

Creamed Tripe.

Cut cold tripe in small dice to the amount of one cupful. Make one and one-half cupfuls of white sauce after any preferred recipe, remove from fire and add one beaten egg and the juice of half a lemon; add the tripe. Fill into small molds or cups, set them in a pan of hot water and run into a medium oven until heated through.

Secret of Beautiful Hair.

The secret in beautiful hair is in knowing how to make the most of it, how to coax and coddle it into growing, and to arrange it to the best possible advantage.

It is the natural frame for the face, and whether or not this frame is becoming remains with the woman herself.

A horrid, untidy, slipshod way of twisting up one's crown of glory will make the most adorable woman look like a cartoon.

Arrange it in fluffy, pretty, neat coils and it will change the cartoon into a picture worth photographing.

It is wonderful what terrible things a woman can do with her own head.

You think this when you go to a matinee and view the sea of mussed pompadours and crooked parts and wispy locks that spread out before you.

Hairpins are falling, hair ribbons are dusty and soiled, straggly ends of hair are looking out to see what they can observe, while here and there is displayed the business end of a switch that has not been properly concealed. Combs are set in crooked, and in many cases a head of hair looks more like a bird's nest than a coiffure.

To have pretty hair you must, first of all, have clean hair.

This means that you should shampoo it every two weeks.

The hair catches even more dust than the face.

Willard Newton.

The body of Willard Newton, who died on Tuesday night of last week at Grants Pass, was brought here Thursday morning and was taken on Thursday afternoon to Wilhoit Springs, for interment in the Russellville cemetery. Newton's parents reside at Wilhoit. Deceased was about 35 years of age, and with his two brothers, was associated in the Newton Pepsin Cheiving Gum company, with a factory at San Francisco. He was traveling salesman for the company and his death was due to quick consumption. He is survived by a widow and two children, who are here for the present. Mr. Newton was a cousin of E. P. Ketchum, of this city.

MOLALLA CONVENTION.

Decided Success As An Inspiration Sunday School Meeting. The Molalla district Sunday school convention was held at Molalla, March 22, and was quite a success as an inspiration meeting. The all day meeting was well attended, and all enjoyed a pleasant and profitable day.

Charles A. Phipps, of Portland, was present and gave us quite an interesting talk upon the different works of the Sunday school, especially the primary department, urging the teachers to grade their work.

The following district officers were elected:

Mrs. Newton, of Wilhoit, president; Miss Cornelia Boyles, Molalla, vice-president; Mrs. Kate Schamel, Molalla, secretary-treasurer.

Aldredge's Condition Serious.
William Aldredge was sent to a Portland hospital Monday night by Dr. E. A. Sommer, to undergo an operation. His condition is serious. Aldredge has been working for Harry Jones in remodeling the flour mill buildings for the new plant of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Mill company, and Monday afternoon he was taken suddenly ill and compelled to stop work. An examination developed the fact that he had sustained a rupture, and the case is a very grave one.

Mr. John Riba, of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results. Sold by Howell & Jones."

HIGH SCHOOL FIGHT IS ON

ADVOCATES OF BETTER EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES WILL SOON OPEN CAMPAIGN.

SCHUEBEL OPENS BALL

County High School Promoters Believe Time is Ripe to Establish an Institution of Learning to Help Grammar Graduates.

The high school facilities that are sadly lacking to the growing children of Clackamas County are to receive attention at the general election in June, when the question of establishing a county high school will be placed on the ballots for the approval or rejection by the voters. The plan has the approval of the alumni association of the Barclay High School of this city and of scores of prominent men in Oregon City and various sections of the county. It is not expected that the proposed movement will be adopted without strenuous opposition, in fact it is more than probable that a hard fight will be necessary to convince a majority of the Clackamas voters that a county high school is a necessity for the young people who are every year passing beyond the grammar grades.

The opening gun of the campaign for a county high school will be fired next Saturday at Schubel in the school house at a meeting of the Schubel Debating Club. There are a large number of people in that section of the county who are opposed to the scheme, and Attorney C. Schuebel, of this city, has taken up the cudgel in defense of the proposed school, and issued a challenge to the whole debating club on the question. This challenge has been gleefully accepted and Mr. Schuebel will have his hands full, against Robert Ginther, G. R. Miller and other well known men, who live at Schubel and in that vicinity. Notwithstanding the overwhelming numbers, Mr. Schuebel believes he has the right on his side, and proposes to fully explain to his auditors the need of a high school, where every grammar graduate in Clackamas County may be admitted without charge.

Two years ago the plan to establish a county high school was defeated by a narrow margin, but little was done in the way of education for the benefit of the movement. While on the stump Mr. Schuebel talked in favor of the project, and L. A. Read, principal of the Parkplace school, issued considerable press matter for the plan, but aside from this practically nothing was done. The present need for a county high school is probably greater than two years ago, and it is believed that the closeness of the former vote can be overcome with diligent campaigning.

If the voters of Clackamas decide to establish a county high school, it will then be the duty of the county court to obtain a site. It is altogether likely that Oregon City would be selected as the place for the school and those who lead the movement assume that the city council would be willing to donate one of the public parks for a building site. At Twelfth and Jackson streets there is an admirable location for a county high school, and there are other desirable sites.

It was originally proposed to submit the matter to the voters on April 17, when the primary nominating election will be held, but this election can hardly be termed a general election, and there is some question whether it is a special election, within the meaning of the statute, which says that the submission of a proposal to establish a county high school must be at a general or special election. In order that the plan might not be jeopardized, it will be submitted at the June election.

MULINO.

There seems to be several hungry dogs in these parts as several of Dan Graves' sheep have been killed.

Arthur Mallatt has been spending several days near Salem, but returned Saturday.

Several Mulinoites attended the convention at Molalla Sunday.

A farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. Maple at their home, Tuesday evening by the girls of Mrs. Maple's Sunday school class and a few other friends. At a late hour a lunch was served, after having spent the evening with music and games. About 35 people were present and went home regretting very much that the would be the last enjoyable evening spent with Mr. and Mrs. Maple.

Miss Edith Wiles, of Portland, was visiting old friends in Mulino last week.

Nada Lee, Edith Wiles, Mary Trullinger and Vesta Churchill spent last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jennie Dix and Miss Jessie Akins.

Mr. Maple has been laid up with rheumatism in his ankles.

Mr. Davis has his phone in now and after the tenth of April Mr. Udell will have to cut off.

Claude Howard has a new graphophone and it is much nicer than his old one.

The shingle bolt drivers were home to spend Sunday.

CLACKAMAS.

Clackamas Grange, No. 298, met as usual, Saturday evening, March 21. Two candidates were instructed in the first and second degrees. The lecture hour was filled by response to the question, "If you should find yourself in a strange city without friends or money, what would you do?" A good oyster supper followed the programme.

Julius E. Chandler had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire last Monday morning. The explosion of the lamp attached to a brooder, kept in the barn, was the cause. The incubator was saved, but over sixty little chickens in the brooder met their fate. The building was entirely consumed, and others in the vicinity escaped only by earnest effort.

Paul Stutsky sold his place last week to a party in Portland.

Ellers Plano House recital scheduled for Tuesday evening, proved a great disappointment. A piano and a large audience were present; but the performers failed to arrive, for some reason which does not yet appear. The admission fee, which would have netted a neat sum to the Endeavor young people, was returned. It is hoped that the company will make up the loss in full.

DODGE.

The people of Dodge met Sunday at 10:30, for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school. D. Horner will act as superintendent for this quarter, with Miss Ethel Keller as organist. The attendance was good, and it is hoped it will continue to be so.

The ball game, which was played at Elwood March 22, was the first game of the season and proved to be an interesting game, the score standing eight to seven in favor of Elwood. A return game will be given at Highland March 29.

Dr. Rossiter has his plans for his new house out and will receive bids for the building soon to be erected.

Miss Dena Prosser has not gained this week on account of her school. She will try next week for a few names.

All the people that have been sick are on the road to recovery.

The humane officer was out looking after the horses in the O. I. & S. Co. pasture the past week. Some went over the road before he arrived and ordered them taken care of.

There is a party of surveyors at work on Elk Rock. We think railroad soon from the looks.

Our old friend, Mr. Cleveland, was down to see why Dena did not get along faster with the contest.

We note Mr. Todd has been fixing the park between his house and the river. The streets need lots of work to make the town look proper. Old woodsheds and other out-houses should be moved out of the street.

The new smelter test furnace will start in a day or two.

H. S. MOODY FOR ASSESSOR.

Harry S. Moody, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Assessor, has been a resident of Oregon City for over 21 years. He is one of the younger members of the party and has never been identified with any particular faction and will be a favorite in the running. In his private business he has been very successful and is universally considered a straightforward, level-headed, honorable citizen. Mr. Moody advocates that "all property, whether belonging to corporation or individual, shall be assessed strictly according to law—without fear or favor," and this is an honest fearless policy that will win him the votes of all men who desire to see the office of Assessor properly administered.
