OUT OF THE GINGER JAR.

Experience is a teacher good,
She makes her lessons understood;
But then we learn a thing or so
Perhaps we'd rather never know.

The Czarina of Russia will not permit her maids to smoke cigarettes. Her head's level.

"Are your eggs fresh?" "Fresh! Let me tell you, madam, that my hens never lay anything but fresh eggs."

Some fellows can't even have a pain in the big toe without thinking they have Job beaten to a frazzle.

Time was when farmers grudgingly tolerated poultry as a concession to their wives. But it is different now. The industrious hen is one of the bulwarks of the farm.

Be sure to clean up and put away your sleigh in good order for summer. I saw where bees injured the cushion and back of one by making a nest in it. Mice also might injure it. Look out for all of them.

The sun came up and the sun went down,
And the breast of the meadow was serene and brown.
Then lo! in the night the rain-drops fell
Came pinking and prying on fair feet.
And then, far-blown from a southern clime,
A warm breeze mothered the withered thyme.

Behold! when the sun came up next day,
A pale-green spear had pierced the clay!

Any thing you can do this spring to make the farm home look nice? Might set out a few choice trees? Some frames for the roses to climb on would be pretty. Maybe the house is beginning to show signs of lack of paint. It will be time and money well spent if you can do such things.

WOMANLY WISOM.

When spring complaints give jaundice hue
To all you say and all you do;
Don't take your trials quite so hard,
But go outside and rake the yard.

What is home without a potpie?
Be neat, but not too all-powered neat.

After all, mother is the universal bread mixer.
No woman need be a fright because she does her own work.

There is no philosophy like that of not wanting what we can't get.
The best cake I ever ate was one that mother made out of her head.

A broken clothes-pin is the handiest of tools in a kitchen, making a handle for the dish-cloth when cleaning spouts, etc.

Have a system in your work. Keep a high stool in the kitchen; use a wooden-handled spoon for stirring; see that knives are kept sharp; get all the materials together before starting baking or cooking; use a stiff brush for cleaning greasy pans.

When you haven't any yeast to start with nor neighbors from whom to borrow some, you can start yeast thus: Boil an ounce of the best hops in two quarts of water for half an hour, strain and cool; then add two teaspoonfuls of salt and a teaspoonful of sugar. Beat up half a pound of flour with some of the liquor; mix well together and put in a warm place for two days, stirring occasionally. Then or sooner, if it shows signs of being light, boil a pound and a half of potatoes, mash and add while warm, not hot. When quite light, bottle for use. It will keep lively and sweet for a good while if kept in a cool place.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Success does not depend upon luck.
When is a chair like a lady's dress?
When it is sat-in.

The youth of a nation are the trustees of posterity.
Which is the hardest of all soaps?
Castile (cast steel).

When does a chair dislike you?
When it can't bear you.
Measure your troubles with an inch rule; your blessings with a ten-foot pole.

The man who thinks he has money to burn,
Will find later on he has money to earn.

Mother used to say, "Do your work so well that you won't have to do it over again."

The young man who does his work indifferently because he thinks he is above his job, proves thereby his unfitness for the job that is above him.

"Well, he's not handsome," said the tourist, taking his first look at a Florida alligator, "but he has a deal of openness when he smiles."

Shut the doors after you, close the gates, hang up your hat and coat and wipe off your shoes; then this will be a nice world for boys and everyone to live in.

"How far is it from here to the next town?" asked the man in the motor car. "It's four rocky hills, two deep gullies, and nineteen policemen with stop watches," replied the up-to-date rustic.

Tom Hughes said: "The only thing to do with wild oats is to put them carefully into the hottest part of the fire and get them burnt to dust, every seed of them. If you sow them, no matter in what ground, up they will come with long flourishing roots like couch grass, and luxuriant stalks and leaves."

A city firm hung out a sign, "Boy Wanted." In less than five minutes a red headed little chap stepped into the office with the sign under his arm. "Say, mister," he said, "did you hang this out?" "I did," said the proprietor. "Why did you tear it down?" "Back of his freckles the boy gazed in wonder at the man's stupidity. "Why," he replied, "I'm the boy." And he proved to be.

COUNTY DEATHS.

Alexander Forbes Barclay.
Alexander Forbes Barclay died Monday afternoon at the home of William E. Pratt in this city of Bright's disease, after a week's illness. He was born in Fort Vancouver, Wash., September 21, 1849, and came to Oregon City when a baby. He had resided here all his life. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, and services were held at the chapel of the Portland Crematorium at Sellwood, where the remains were incinerated, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Barclay was the son of the late Dr. Forbes Barclay and Maria Barclay. His father was a pioneer physician of Oregon City and for many years a prominent figure in the early history of the territory. He was a contemporary and a close friend of Dr. John McLoughlin, the founder of this city, and the father of Oregon. Deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Pratt and Miss Katie Barclay, of this city, and one brother, Captain Charles Barclay, who is now in the Orient.

J. H. Seiders.
J. H. Seiders died Friday night at the home of his son-in-law, August Scheer at New Era, aged about 75 years. He had been ill with heart trouble for some time, but his condition was considered improved and Friday he walked to the mail box, one mile distant from the house. Friday night the family went to a pie social and when they returned the old gentleman was apparently very well, but Saturday morning he did not come down to breakfast and was found dead on the floor. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Scheer, and has been a resident of New Era about five years.

Mrs. Louise Zimmerman Wolf.
Mrs. Louise Zimmerman Wolf, wife of John Wolf, died Thursday at her home in Beaver Creek, of consumption, aged 35 years. The funeral was held Sunday morning from the German Church at Beaver Creek.

Lenore Baxter.
Lenore, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter of Canemah, died Thursday of pneumonia, aged seven years. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from the family residence, Rev. E. Clarence Oakley, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

Card of Thanks.
Our sincere thanks to all our friends for their sympathy in time of our trouble, in the death of our dear mother.

FIRST PRACTICE GAME.

Papermakers Hold Try-Out and Sign Up Complete Team.

The first practice game of the Papermakers took place Sunday on Willamette Falls field in a driving rain against the Brainard Cubs from Portland. The visitors won in six innings with a score of 8 to 5. The game was devoid of interest and was intended only for practice. C. A. Parlow, owner of the franchise was up to watch his men and is encouraged over the outlook. The following men have been signed by the Oregon City team: Pitchers, Long, Rummell, Habernicht; catcher, Shaw and Kelt; first base, Locke, second base, Griffith; third base, Kruger; short-stop, Sater; left field, Northwick; center field, Adams; right field, Chapin. Manager Telford will act as utility man when necessary and Chapin will captain the team on the field. There will be an ante-season game next Sunday and the season will open April 11, with games with Vancouver and St. John.

Mill in Satisfactory Condition.
The annual stockholders meeting of the Oregon City Mill & Lumber Co., was held Friday night, and reports of officers were received, showing the mill to be in a prosperous condition. About $7,000 worth of new machinery has been added to the plant during the past year, and the institution is on a very sound business basis, and has prospered under the management of William LaSalle. The following directors were re-elected: N. R. Lang, Franklin T. Griffith, C. G. Huntley, W. A. Huntley, J. E. Hedges, Lewellyn Adams, John W. Moffatt. The officers are: N. R. Lang, president; Franklin T. Griffith, vice-president; W. A. Huntley, secretary.

CASTORIA.
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
GOOD WORD FOR CAMPBELL.

He Was One of the Members in the House Who Stood For the Right.
During the last session of the State Legislature, J. H. Fletcher was a correspondent for several of the newspapers of the State. He was present at Salem during the entire session and kept a close watch on proceedings. In the issue of the St. Johns Review of March 8, Mr. Fletcher reviewed the work of the legislature, and said that the body as a whole was not particularly commendable as a rule. The exception he made, is shown in the following article:
"There were several members in both the house and senate who honestly tried to do their duty to their constituents. And foremost among these, allow me to say was our joint representative, Hon. James U. Campbell, of Oregon City. Representing as he did a class who were largely inhabitants of cities and towns, I did not look for this. But from the very start he took a manly stand in behalf of the laboring classes. So far as I can see he supported every measure calculated to benefit the state, and he stoutly opposed everything that looked like graft or a useless waste of the public funds. The people of St. Johns would do well to remember him should they ever have a chance to vote for him again. He was indeed the friend of the people. Such men are scarce and should be appreciated when we have them. Addressing the House shortly before the legislature adjourned, Mr. Campbell said: "The way this legislature has appropriated money out of the treasury for various purposes in different parts of the state reminds me of a gang of robbers gathered together to divide the loot."

SECOND TERM FOR JONES.

Well Known and Popular Representative Will Be Sent to Legislature.

Linn E. Jones, the well known member of the drug firm of Howell & Jones, and a member of the legislature of 1907, is a candidate for re-nomination and re-election. He is deservedly popular, and has gained many friends since two years ago, when he ran at the head of his party ticket at the primary nominating election. He quickly demonstrated that the faith of his friends was not mistaken, for in the legislature he made a fine record, introducing a bill to repeal the fire slashing permit law, which was enacted, with some amendments. Mr. Jones also introduced a bill applying the initiative and referendum to cities and towns, and he pushed this bill through both houses. His whole record at Salem was very creditable and he will no doubt be returned for a second term with a greatly increased vote, for the Republicans of Clackamas are not slow to exhibit their appreciation for faithful legislative service.

"Eggs-E-Unt"

Now offered the good people of our community, after going to church you'll deserve all you can eat of them. Give the order now. Better buy plenty now as they are only 15c a dozen. Easter Egg Dyes are here in plenty and all varieties too.

MAKES A FINE RECORD.

R. L. Holman Has Conducted Office of Coroner Very Economically.

Roswell L. Holman, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Coroner, has an enviable record in his incumbency of that office, and will be re-nominated by the members of his party. Being in the undertaking business, he can conduct the office with less expense than a doctor could.

There is no salary attached to the office, and the fact that Mr. Holman has conducted the office as long as he has to the satisfaction of the people of Clackamas County is sufficient proof that he is the right man in the right place. There are many cases that come to the attention of the county coroner where the body has to be buried at the expense of the taxpayers and an undertaker can naturally handle this part of the work at a small expense. In the Multnomah and Marion, the largest counties of the State, the coroner is an undertaker. In the latter county the present official has held the office for 16 years, continuously, and in Multnomah county the coroner has been in office four terms. The voters of Clackamas will do well to retain Mr. Holman in office for another term.

FOR JOINT REPRESENTATIVE.

I beg to announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for representative in the Seventeenth District, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of Clackamas and Multnomah Counties at the primary election on April 17th.

If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, support a sane, business-like administration of public affairs. I will oppose graft, humbug and demagogism, and will work industriously for the people of my district. I will do my duty as I see it and will not take dictation from any man or set of men.

I will vote for the Republican voters' choice for United States Senator.
C. N. McARTHUR.
Portland, Oregon, March 15, 1908.

MR. HOLDER FOR ASSESSOR.

Eastern Clackamas Man is a Leader in County Development.

W. H. Holder came from Kansas to Oregon in 1891, and has lived on his farm near Estacada since 1900. Mr. Holder has been one of the leaders in the development of the fruit industry in Eastern Clackamas County. He has been an Odd Fellow for 25 years and is a prominent member of the Patrons of Husbandry in Clackamas County. He has always been a Republican, voting his first ticket for Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876, and this is the first time he has ever asked the people for a public office, and does so now only at the urgent request of his friends.

If the people of Clackamas County should see fit to elect him to the office of County Assessor, they can rest assured that he will exemplify the principle, "A public office is a public trust."

Mr. Gibson Withdraws.
Barton, Or., March 30, 1908.

To the Republican Voters of Clackamas County, State of Oregon:
I wish to state that I have withdrawn as a candidate for the nomination of Representative to the Legislature.

I kindly thank the Republican voters who signed my petition. Remaining as ever, yours for the Republican party,
H. F. GIBSON.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

To the Republicans of Clackamas County:

The undersigned announces himself as a candidate for County Commissioner of Clackamas County subject to the will of the Republican voters at the Primary Election on April 17th; as a business man and one much interested in the development of Clackamas County, if I receive said nomination and am elected to said office, I pledge myself to use my abilities and best efforts in the promotion of the interests of said county and towards a progressive administration of county affairs along economical and business lines.

ROBERT S. COE, of Canby Precinct.

PROGRESSIVE CITIZEN.

Robert S. Coe, of Canby, Stands for Development of Clackamas.
The development of Clackamas County has long been desired by its thousands of people, and it is here that Robert S. Coe, of Canby, stands in his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner. Mr. Coe is a well known member of the Grange and has been for 30 years. He came to Canby 15 years ago and has always been identified with its growth and progress, being president of the Canby Development

WALTER A. DIMICK

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

HE HAS SIGNED STATEMENT NO. 1, AND WILL SUPPORT THE PEOPLES' CHOICE FOR U. S. SENATOR REGARDLESS OF HIS INDIVIDUAL PREFERENCE.

He stands for strict economy in appropriations; banking laws affording protection to the depositor; all proper measures to uphold and better our roads and public school system; reform tax legislation to compel corporations and land speculators to pay their just proportion of the taxes; the preservation of the natural resources of the state to the people to whom they belong.

Mr. Dimick has been endorsed by a great many Republicans of Clackamas County for the office of Representative, and if elected he will give impartial and fair treatment to all.

H. S. MOODY FOR ASSESSOR.

Harry S. Moody, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Assessor, has been a resident of Oregon City for over 21 years. He is one of the younger members of the party and has never been identified with any particular faction and will be a favorite in the running. In his private business he has been very successful and is universally considered a straightforward, level-headed, honorable citizen. Mr. Moody advocates that "all property, whether belonging to corporation or individual, shall be assessed strictly according to law—without fear or favor," and this is an honest fearless policy that will win him the votes of all men who desire to see his office of Assessor properly administered.

GEORGE W. DIXON

(Editor Canby Tribune.)

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

Champion of Statement 1

He has fought a fair fight; he has stood by his colors.
(1) Will vote for people's choice for U. S. Senator. (2) Will introduce a law preventing the loss of the peoples' money deposited in State and National Banks. (3) Mr. Dixon is the leader of the fight in Oregon against the Single-Taxers, who are trying to exempt from taxation all manufacturing plants, thus putting the taxes wholly on the land, and if nominated will devote his time until June writing and speaking against the measure. (4) If elected, will introduce a law allowing each road district to elect its own supervisor, believing that under this system the best results can be obtained from public money used to maintain public roads and bridges. (5) Will favor better schools, better government and a square deal for all.

League and a leader in public affairs. When the Clackamas County Fair Association was formed, Mr. Coe went out into the highways and byways and solicited stock for that commendable enterprise. He was very successful, and was rewarded with a place on the directorate and at the last meeting was made vice-president of the association. He has obtained a lease on 40 acres of land near Canby and is striving to make a permanent site for the Fair. In all matters of development he is a striking figure. He has made a success of his own farm, having been offered $300 per acre for the place, but has cast his lot in Clackamas and is going to remain a citizen of this fine county.

AN HONEST OFFICIAL.

Enos Cahill, Farmer and Veteran, is a Candidate for Commissioner. Honesty is a primary requisite in the office of County Commissioner, and there is no man in Clackamas County better fitted for that position than Enos Cahill, of New Era Precinct. Mr. Cahill is a veteran of the Civil War, where he fought to save the Union, and he takes a deep interest in all public affairs. He was four years treasurer of Clackamas County and in that capacity he discharged the duties of the office so well that the people of Clackamas have no doubt of his ability and familiarity with county affairs. Mr. Cahill is commander of Meade Post, No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, and that organization has prospered wonderfully under his direction. He is a plain, blunt, honest farmer, long a resident of Clackamas, deeply interested in its welfare and a man of strict integrity. In his many years of residence near New Era, Mr. Cahill has helped build every county road leading through that section, and there is very little about county highways that he does not know. He is economical in his tastes and habits and his nomination and election would mean a safe administration of the county's affairs.
