

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

FORTY-SECOND YEAR—NO. 16.

OREGON CITY, OREGON. FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1908.

ESTABLISHED 1896.

MARION TO MULTNOMAH

ORCHARDS WILL BE CLEANED FROM SOUTHERN TO NORTHERN BOUNDARY.

REID IS DETERMINED

Says Homeseekers Come Through Clackamas and are Disappointed at the Showing Made Along the Railroad Tracks.

J. H. Reid, of Milwaukee, fruit commissioner for the first Oregon district, has announced his intention of cleaning up the pest afflicted orchards of Clackamas County along the tracks of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, and he will hold a conference with County Fruit Inspector A. J. Lewis and District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges and his deputy, O. D. Eby, for the purpose of carefully laying plans to force the owners of diseased orchards to either spray their trees or cut them down.

"Marion and Yamhill Counties are cleaned up," said Mr. Reid "and it is up to Clackamas to do the same. It is a strong and forceful argument that hundreds and perhaps thousands of homeseekers come from the East through California, and after traveling through the southern portion of Oregon and then on through Lane, Linn and Marion Counties, they come to Clackamas and here they are confronted by the spectacle of scale-infested trees, hundreds of acres of them, absolutely of no value to the owners or to anyone else. Now, I live in Clackamas County and I want to see it cleaned up so that we can take a pride in our trees that grow in as fine fruit land as there is in the whole State.

"We have had test cases, one of them in Clackamas County, and we know just how far we can go. Our first step is to serve notice on the property owners to spray and give them 15 days to comply with the law; if at the end of that time, they neglect or refuse to spray properly, we will give them their choice between allowing us to spray their trees, at their expense, or cutting down the orchards.

"It is unfortunate that in this county there are so many orchards in a deplorable condition, and I hope that another year will see us on a par with some of the other counties in the Willamette Valley.

"I would advise owners of trees that are no longer useful to cut them down to within 18 inches or two feet of the ground and then graft such an apple as the Yellow Newtown, and in a few years they will have a fine orchard. The climate of Clackamas will give the apple the color, where it will not do it for such an apple as the Spitzenberg, because we do not have sun enough."

Mr. Reid says that a distance of 25 miles is to be covered in Clackamas County and that the effort to compel the owners of orchards to spray will be vigorously prosecuted.

sition that was offered. The opportunity for work in this city is very great at present, in the fact that the church building is in first-class condition, the financial status was never better, the benevolent offerings larger and the church attendance good. Mr. Linden has written a letter to the committee declining the offer.

CLEAN CITY MAY DAY.

Mayor Carl Asks Residents to Observe Rules of Health. May Day in Oregon City will also be "City Cleaning Day," according to a proclamation issued by Mayor Carl, who, as a physician, believes that cleanliness is next to Godliness and his proclamation follows:

"Believing that the custom established by my predecessor in office to be worthy of perpetuation, I will designate Friday, May 1, a holiday, requesting the schools to close and have everybody devote one day toward cleaning all back yards and alleys. The city will furnish men and teams to carry away and dispose of all waste and rubbish which the people wish disposed of. The necessity for this is obvious; the public health demands and civic pride should prompt the people to keep our streets and alleys clean and healthy. I hope all citizens will take sufficient interest in this matter, remembering many hands make light work and one day each year will help some. The near approach of Decoration Day, followed by the Rose Show and Festival, should prompt everybody to take an active interest in the annual City Cleaning Day.

(Signed) W. E. CARLL, Mayor.

DR. McLOUGHLIN'S OLD HOME.

CAMPBELL, DIMICK AND JONES FOR LEGISLATURE

Light Vote Is Cast in Primary Election Moody For Assessor, Mattoon For Commissioner and Holman For Coroner are Nominated.

General apathy was manifested in the primary nominating election through Clackamas County last Friday. The Republican vote was fully 1600 short of the total registration, showing that little interest was taken. The Statement No. 1 people were out in force, as shown by the vote for H. M. Calk, who carried the County over United States Senator Fulton, who ran well in Oregon City, but who was unmercifully slaughtered in some of the country precincts. The unofficial returns give C. N. McArthur a majority of 18 over Dr. W. C. Belt, the Statement No. 1 candidate. Mr. McArthur's friends gave him loyal support. The most interest was taken, however, in the fight for representatives and assessor, and for the latter place Harry S. Moody secured the coveted nomination. He was a warm favorite in Oregon City and managed to get an even break in the country, winning by a margin of 90 over his nearest competitor, James F. Nelson. The third man in the race was George F. Horton.

The nominees of the Republican party of Clackamas County for Representatives are Walter A. Dimick, Linn E. Jones and James U. Campbell, who were the favorites in the betting. They had plenty of votes to spare, though Charles H. Dye and George W. Dixon put up a vigorous fight. When the early returns were received Dixon and Dye were running along with the leaders but later information placed them

McLOUGHLIN HOME SAVED

HISTORIC BUILDING PRESENTED TO OREGON CITY BY W. P. HAWLEY.

GROUND BRINGS $6000.

Mayor Carl Heads a Movement to Restore the Structure and Provide a Reading Room and Resting Place for Visitors.

The old home of Dr. John McLoughlin, where the founder of Oregon City and the father of Oregon entertained scores of distinguished guests in the pioneer days of the Oregon territory is to escape destruction and a plan was placed on foot Saturday to preserve the historic structure. The ground on which the house stands was sold last week by Mrs. J. L. Barlow and Captain J. T. Apperson for $6000 to the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, which intends to utilize the ground for an auxiliary manufacturing plant. Upon hearing of the transfer of the property Mayor Carl immediately communicated to W. P. Hawley, president and general manager of the company, his desire to save the house, which is old and useless from a business point of view and Mr. Hawley very graciously offered to give the building to the city. Mayor Carl will call a meeting of the city officials and interested people and endeavor to raise a fund of a few hundred dollars which will be used to move the building on city property adjoining its present location and fit up the old house for a free reading room and a rest room for visitors. This plan will unquestionably be met with enthusiastic approval, for their is no place of this kind in Oregon City.

Two years ago the owners of the property offered to sell the building and grounds to the city, and the project was fathered by E. G. Gausfield, who was mayor at that time, but on a referendum vote the proposition was defeated, as the city was in debt and the majority of voters considered it unwise to add another burden to its finances. The new scheme, however, will cost Oregon City nothing, and there is no question of its success.

The McLoughlin house has long been a familiar landmark here, and the building was so stoutly constructed that the ravages of time have left it in fair condition.

CRIMINAL DOCKET IS HEAVIEST IN YEARS

JUDGE McBRIDE SENTENCES JOHN FUNKHAUSER, HOUSEBREAKER TO SERVE FIFTEEN YEARS.

The criminal docket at this regular term of the Circuit Court is the heaviest in years and several of these cases were disposed of by Judge McBride. John Funkhauser, charged with breaking in to the Williams home at Clackamas and holding up the inmates at the point of a revolver, securing all the money in their possession, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve 15 years in the penitentiary. He was taken to Salem. Funkhauser has had a bad criminal record in other sections of the State and was also charged with horse stealing. After holding up Mr. and Mrs. Williams and their daughter, Funkhauser took their horse and rode to Milwaukie, where he turned the animal loose and boarded a car for Portland, where he was captured the following day.

Harry Clark, a young Indian, and John Howell, his boon companion, were engaged in the nefarious pursuit of stealing chickens and broke into a hen house on the hill. They pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to (Continued on Page Eight.)

CAMPAGNING FOR THE ARMORY BILL

SUCCESS MEANS MUCH TO THE MEMBERS OF COMPANY STATIONED HERE.

Campaigning for the success of the Armory bill which comes up for popular vote under the Initiative and Referendum at the June election has been taken up by National Guardsmen all over the State. The members of Company G stationed here at Oregon City are hard at work explaining to their voting friends the significance and importance of the measure. Success of the Armory bill means much to the members of the company stationed here as well as to the community at large. It would mean a handsome and adequate Armory to be erected in the city by the State. For the building of armories the last Legislature set aside $100,000 to be expended at the rate of $25,000 a year on armories for military stations outside of Portland. The need for armories is a pressing one and the construction of the requisite number would serve to greatly facilitate military training.

As has been pointed out by many military authorities the National Guard has come to be a part of the first line of defense. Its importance in event of war would be inestimable. Modern warfare is a thing apart from the methods of warfare used even a few years ago. The day when volunteers can be thrown into the field in DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

No Opposition in Any Instance and Vote is Very Light. The Democrats of Clackamas County manifested very little interest in the primaries for in no case was there opposition. The name of Governor Chamberlain was written on the ballots for United States Senator, and he received 215 votes, while J. J. Whitney, of Linn County, was given 33 (Continued on Page 8.)

REBEKAHS AT MILWAUKEE.

District Convention Attended By Many From This City. The district convention of the Rebekahs was held Monday in the Grange hall at Milwaukie and the attendance was large. There were five lodges represented in the district convention, Oregon Milwaukie, Molalla, Estacada, and Clackamas. Dinner and supper were served to the delegates and visitors and the convention was pleasant and profitable throughout. In the evening the degree team from Columbia Rebekah Lodge came up from Portland and put on the floor work, initiating one candidate. In the afternoon there was a programme and numbers were rendered by Oregon City talent, as follows:

Solo, Miss Grayce Marshall; recitation, Miss Myrtle Tooze; reading, Mrs. E. W. Scott; instrumental solo, Miss Gertrude Fairclough; vocal solo, Miss Bertha Friedrich; Mezdames J. J. Cooke, E. A. Leighton, J. L. Waldron and E. W. Scott will represent the lodge here at the grand lodge to convene at Salem next month.

REV. LINDEN WILL STAY.

Declines Flattering Offer With Large Increase of Salary. Rev. John M. Linden has declined a flattering offer as general missionary of the Baptist denomination for the State of Oregon, at a salary that is $600 per year more than he is receiving as pastor of the First Baptist church of Oregon City, and his parishioners are delighted over the fact that he has concluded to remain here. Since Mr. Linden came to this church in Oregon City at a less salary than he was receiving in Chicago and had the grace to do it, it was very easy for him to say no to the new propo-
