CAKE AND CHAMBERLAIN.

Now we are to have the delightful spectacle of the Democratic newspapers in Oregon who roasted United States Senator Fulton to a deep brown before the primaries, turning about the style and supporting Harry Cake for Senator. What? Nothing doing? Well, then, why did they work violently and with effort to nominate Cake? Why, just to turn him down for Chamberlain. This was the game and this is still the game and the Enterprise warned its Republican readers of the fact several weeks ago. Some of them heeded, but not all.

Statement No. 1 is said to have been Mr. Fulton's downfall, because he did not enthusiastically embrace the idea, believing it was not for him to tell the candidates for the legislature what they should do. However, this is neither here nor there, Cake has been nominated and the Democrats are holding their sides in glee and confidently hope not only to carry Clackamas County for the Governor, but the State of Oregon as well. The Enterprise knows a man who will bet $100 right now on George.

But, let us think, suppose Chamberlain receives the popular vote in June, which is not probable, will the legislature elect him to the United States Senate? Of the 75 legislative candidates nominated by the Republicans, only 24 are State No. 1 men. In the event that all of the men who did not subscribe to Statement No. 1 will not have a majority in the legislature. Will the legislature, then, with a Republican majority, turn about and elect a Democratic senator? Maybe it will, but we will have to be shown.

OUR DUTY AS REPUBLICANS.

The Enterprise, as the recognized Republican newspaper of Clackamas county, this week presents to the people of Clackamas County the Republican State and County ticket that was nominated at the primaries last Friday. There are no apologies to be made for this ticket, which is one of the strongest ever submitted by the party to the people. Every man on it is a clean, straight-forward Republican, who deserves and will obtain the vote of the Republicans at the June election. There is a well grounded determination among the Republicans to vote the ticket straight this year and give no ear to the cry of "non-partisan" advanced by our friends, the Dimmycrats.

It is no secret that the Democracy expects to be able to persuade the people to elect its candidates for sheriff, assessor and commissioner. They hope to accomplish the defeat of Richard L. Greaves, Harry S. Moody and William H. Mattoon, and they stand ready to trade off any old thing to do this. The same old game that has elected Democrats to state, district and county offices in Oregon will be tried again, and the Democrats are quite ready to throw down the men on their ticket who are regarded as weak politically providing they can gain a vote for the men who are presumed by them to have a chance to win.

Republicans should not be enticed away from the support of their ticket by this foolish lot of "Non-partisan" in county affairs. There may be times when the Republicans of Clackamas County have nominated men unfitted to the positions to which they have aspired, but this is not true this year and from Representatives down to the precinct nominees there is not a man on the Republican ticket who is not qualified. We may expect to hear a great deal before the first of June about "non-partisan" from our Democratic brethren, but politics with the Dimmycrats is only a game of "take" and the giving is on the other side. When the polls are opened in June we shall find the members of the minority party in Clackamas trotting up with a sly wink and voting their ticket straight from George Chamberlain down. With a normal voting majority of three to one, the Republicans of Clackamas have no business flirting with the other side, for we have nothing to gain and everything to lose.

TIMELY BUT UNNECESSARY.

The announcement of George W. Dixon, of Canby, that he will support the Republican ticket is timely, but unnecessary. He can do no less. He went into the fight for the nomination for Representative on an even basis with the other candidates, but was unable to command a sufficient following, even though he claimed to be the original Statement No. 1 man and the discoverer of the "nigger in the woodpile" in the single-tax amendment. Early in the campaign Mr. Dixon charged the Enterprise with being against the people, but not wishing to injure his chances for the nomination, The Enterprise made no reply. There are many men in Clackamas County who have lived here much longer than Mr. Dixon and are more entitled to consideration from the Republican voters than he is. Perhaps, (we say perhaps) after we have had the primary law for a number of years, people will begin to realize that the popular call is no more effective than in the days of the county convention. However Mr. Dixon is to be congratulated upon his decision to take his medicine gamely. His opposition against the Republican representative ticket would count for nothing.

Arthur A. Greene, dramatic critic of the Oregonian, discussed the drama at a meeting of the Women's Club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Norris. The attendance was large and much interest was manifested in the remarks of Mr. Greene, who answered many questions at the close of his talk. He said the Sunday closing movement was heartily endorsed by actors and the public in their attitude to the stage had in their hands the reformation of the theatre. He laid particular stress on the fact that the moral and religious people have it in their power to influence and uplift the stage. He talked enthusiastically of Ben Green and his company of English players and said that Charles B. Hanford was a poor actor in his Shakespearean productions. Speaking before a club of women, Mr. Greene said that the best dramatic authors of recent years have been women.

The splendid rain all over Oregon caused a light vote to be cast at the Primaries, but it put thousands of dollars into the pockets of the producers—in fact, it was worth millions to the people of the State.

A great campaign of publicity and correspondence is to be carried on by the Yamhill County Development League, with Mr. J. C. The grain crop of the Pacific Northwest has exceeded every estimate made by commercial organizations, railroads, newspapers and exporters. The 1907 crop of Oregon, Washington and Idaho was: wheat 58,000,000 bushels; barley 10,000,000 bushels; and oats 12,000,000 bushels. Farmers received fifty millions of dollars for this crop. More than fifty per cent of total marketed was shipped from Portland.

Several years ago Gen. Corbin in his annual report said that the early marriages of officers in the army should be discouraged on account of the insufficient pay, and now President Elliott of Harvard urges the young college instructor to remain single until his salary will "enable him to support a wife and children comfortably but not in luxury".
