NOW THEN—WE'RE OFF!
Cake and Chamberlain have taken the stump, the former going to Coos Bay and the latter through Eastern Oregon. Both candidates for United States Senator announce their intention of covering every part of Oregon before the June election.

The above bit of news is interesting just now and foreshadows a campaign of vigor for the peoples' choice. The public mind will be agitated all this month with the question whether Cake or Chamberlain is the "truly, truly" Statement No. 1 man, for Oregon politics has reached a stage where it is to jump on the hobby horse of popularity and ride into office.

It is not apparent that Mr. Chamberlain has any odds over Mr. Cake, save for the fact that the Democratic governor of Oregon is generally regarded as a foxy politician, and has twice carried the Republican State of Oregon. "Our George" made a great hit with people when he made a star play in the Title Guarantee & Trust Company mess and he will unquestionably use this as an argument to show that it is better to have a few Democrats in office to keep the Republicans from walking off with everything in sight. And George will also argue that it is not wise to have all the offices filled by members of the majority party, and he will point to his action in appointing a few Republicans in office in Oregon. He will tell, as he did two years ago, what a fine thing he did in naming a Republican to fill a Circuit Judgeship and will wind up by telling the voters of Oregon that it is their duty to ignore party, and vote for a Democrat.

It is a thin veil he wears, after all. If Republicans of Oregon vote for Republicans, as they ought to do, then they are party men, and if they vote for a Democrat, as George Chamberlain says they should, then they are party men, but not Republican party men, but Democratic. This chatter about non-partisanship is wearying, whether it is applied to county or state offices. When the Republicans have as good men as nominees for office, they ought to vote for them and it is to be hoped they will.

In Yamhill and Washington Counties the Statement No. 1 people have executed a deal to nominate candidates for the legislature, in opposition to the regular Republican nominees. In this Democrats and so-called Republicans have joined hands, so as to insure the election of Chamberlain by a Republican legislature, in the event of his receiving the popular vote in June. It is a poisonous kettle of fish that the Republicans of Oregon are having to swallow. The man who is pockmarked has most to say against freckles.

principal towns of the entire Willamette Valley, with an extension to the coast as well. McMinnville, Newberg, Dallas, Eugene, Albany, Cascade, Hillsboro, and Tillamook, with innumerable other communities, are included. The line between Portland and Salem has received such excellent patronage that on several different occasions it has been necessary to revise the schedule to accommodate additional trains. In the Eastern states the multiplication of trolley lines has decreased the passenger traffic on the steam roads, but the latter have felt so marked an increase in freight traffic that the passenger loss has been more than compensated in earnings.

Five hundred and forty-six delegates to the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago on June 16 have now been chosen—a little over one-half of the membership of the convention which was fixed in the National Committee's call at 980. Of these 546, so far named, 256 delegates are either instructed for Taft, committed to his support by resolutions of indorsement or preference, or have publicly announced in connection with their election their intention to vote for him at Chicago. Only this past week twenty Taft delegates were elected in Minnesota, giving Mr. Taft the solid delegation from that State, and in Massachusetts ten Taft delegates were elected.

A very large delegation from Albany visited Portland last week for a double purpose. First, the City Council came to investigate the subject of paving, and as a result Albany will immediately begin the permanent improvement of her main streets. Then the committee representing the Albany Commercial Club completed arrangements with Bury I. Dasent to take charge of the city's publicity work as Manager of the Club, May 1st. Mr. Dasent is now Advertising Manager of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, Secretary of the Rose Festival Association, and Secretary of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association, and his experience will make his work effective.

The greatest success has attended the Oregon Development League meeting throughout the Eastern part of the State. La Grande raised $3300 in a few minutes, besides adding greatly to the membership of its Commercial Club—they will complete a fund of $5000. Elgin business men subscribed $600 to advertise their city; The Dalles will continue their publicity work on an even more liberal scale than heretofore; Baker City is alive to the value of similar work.

CITY

FAIR GOES TO CANBY.
The action of the stockholders of the Clackamas County Fair Association in removing the Fair to Canby cannot be condemned, for that thriving town was the only place in all of Clackamas County to make an offer that was acceptable to the Association. While the selection is not satisfactory to many people living in and around Oregon City, these people have only to realize, too late, that the place that bustles is the place that is bound to win, and Canby certainly has some citizens who are up and doing in the interest of their immediate community. The Wait tract in an ideal place for a fair, the only objection being that the location is not closely affiliated with the centers of population, and that there is a grave possibility of the County Fair ultimately resolving itself into a local exhibition. However true this may be, Canby is entitled to the Fair, for the people of that place showed the "get there" spirit that wins.

No announcement made in years has been more interesting to the state at large than the publication of the plans of the Oregon Electric Railway Company, which mean a system aggregating three hundred and eighty-one miles in length, and reaching the

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE.

J. W. Gray Has Had Many Years of Experience in Educational Work. Joseph W. Gray has announced his candidacy for County School Superintendent and his name will be on the ballot for this office at the June election. Mr. Gray, who is an independent candidate and is independent in every sense of the word and is not affiliated with any parties or factions and solicits the support of all voters who desire to see the office of School Superintendent occupied by a man who is highly qualified for the position.

Mr. Gray stands high in the educational ranks of the State. He was for many years identified with the educational interests of Clackamas County as vice-principal of the Oregon City schools, and was for nine years principal of the Parkplace high school. Prof. Gray was one of the originators of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association and when he resigned his position to go North, he was serving on the county examination board. As secretary of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association for four years, Prof. Gray formed a wide acquaintance.

He was educated in Northern Indiana Normal School and also in the Business College of the same place. He holds a life diploma from the State of Oregon and is in every way qualified for the position to which he aspires. Prof. Gray is a man of family, 44 years of age, and a taxpayer of Clackamas County. He has served 17 years in the schoolroom as a teacher and knows fully the needs of the common schools.

SOCIETY

Oregon Lodge No. 3, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, celebrated the 89th anniversary of the founding of the order in the United States, Saturday evening in Woodmen of the World hall, and 200 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were present to assist in the affair, which was one of the most enjoyable of its kind ever held in Oregon City. The following programme was rendered: Instrumental music, J. J. Cooke and Miss Bertha Freidrich; address, John F. Clark; song, Mrs. Walter A. Duffick; music, The Teifords; song, Miss Carr; instrumental music, Miss Gertrude Fairclough; recitation, Miss Lucy Humphrey; song, Miss Ellen Brobst; piano duet, Miss Bertha Freidrich and Oscar Woodfin. The programme was followed by an elaborate banquet, and dancing was indulged in by the young people and in formal social hour closed the affair.

There was a large crowd of people present Saturday night at the grand ball of Company G, Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard. The affair was held in the Armory which was gaily decorated with flags, guns and trophies of war. The spectacle of three score of men in uniform was inspiring and the dance was very successful. A Portland orchestra provided the music.

The first anniversary of the organization of Cataract Temple, Pythian Sisters, was held Tuesday night in Woodmen of the World hall and about 75 people were present to enjoy the pleasant affair. Mrs. Elizabeth Bunting, of Portland, Grand Chief of the order, delivered an address. Ice cream and cake were served to the guests and dancing was indulged in. The event was a very happy one. The Pythian Sisters was organized here a year ago and now is in a flourishing condition, having about 50 members. It is auxiliary to the Knights of Pythias.

Pioneer Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held an enjoyable meeting Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple and played progressive whist, the prizes being won by Mrs. Eugene Avison and Charles W. Evans. The affair was well attended and late in the evening a toothsome supper was served. Miss Edna Daulton rendered a number of piano selections during the evening.

Tualatin Tent, Knights of the Macabees, held a meeting in Woodmen hall Monday night and initiated one candidate. State Commander J. W. Sherwood was present and the attend-

The engagement of Miss Bursie Reddick, daughter of W. R. Reddick, of this city, to J. A. Cummings, of Ilwaco, Panay, Philippine Island, has been announced, and the wedding will take place early in June. Miss Reddick has a host of friends in Oregon City and Mr. Cummings is a government engineer in the Philippines, where they will make their home.

The marriage of Miss Amelia Schwabauer to Mr. Fred Miller was solemnized at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwabauer, in Gladstone. Invited to the affair were the intimate friends of the bride and groom, and Rev. John M. Linden, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the officiating clergyman.

The St. Johns Young People Club will give a dance this Friday evening in the Armory and the members are making extensive preparations for the event. Fox's orchestra from Portland, will furnish the music and the hall will be elaborately decorated. Punch will be served.

The marriage of Evermann Robbins, of the well known Molalla firm of Robbins Bros., to Miss Clara Belle Hayhurst, will be solemnized Sunday, May 4, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hayhurst.
