BIG CIRCUS COMING.

Norris & Rowe's Shows at Oregon City Saturday, March 9.

Realizing that the public is partially interested in the clowns with a circus, Norris and Rowe have engaged for their big circus, museum, menagerie, hippodrome and congress of nations the greatest number of famously funny Yoricks that has ever been seen with a tented organization. On entering the menagerie one will encounter clowns in funny acts, and on entering the main or big tents of the show, clowns will be in evidence everywhere, in twos, threes and groups and all working hard for the amusement of all that attend the big show. Among the clowns are Toto Duero, the clown that invented the famous burlesque bull fight, the rabbit hunt, the burlesque menage horse act and scores of other amusing acts; Fat Lawson, the clown to look at is to laugh; Silver Smith, the elongated Andrew; Ike Orton, the fat policeman; Willie Sims, the diminutive Pantaloon; Oscar Pepper, straight from Kentucky; Hi Russell, Skinny Gilson, Bill Carpenter, Barry Hodskin, and scores of other funny fellows.

By arrangement the Norris and Rowe circus will be the only big show to visit this section this year. A grand street parade, which is said to be a new and novel one will take place on the morning of the exhibition at 10 o'clock rain or shine.

The greater Norris & Rowe Circus will exhibit at Oregon City May 9.
