

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.
O. R. Mack is again able to take charge of the store, although he is not as yet very strong.
Adam Knight has a force of men helping him build a new crossing and sidewalk over the railroad tracks opposite E. street.
George Meeks and Leo Eckerson have already started work on their new homes.
Mrs. Martin is again able to be out.
Howard Patch has the mumps.
J. E. Kaubitsch has gone to Twin Falls, Idaho.
Mr. Carl Sannon has started for Norway, the home of his birth, to be gone for an extended visit with relatives.
C. C. Chaugen has left for a visit in Wisconsin.
T. P. Lee has sold his prune orchard to H. Larson, of Astoria. Mr. Larson will begin the erection of a home on the place at once.

Canby Won Game.
Canby won the ball game Sunday, defeating the Co. C, team of Portland by a score of 8 to 7 in an eleven-inning contest. R. Baty was the star batter, making a long three bagger just when it was needed. The batteries were Baty and Baty for Canby, Simple and Durke for Company C. Baty got fourteen strikeouts to nine for Simple. Next Sunday the boys play the University Park team of Portland.

J. E. Mitts of Needy, was a Canby visitor Wednesday.
Mrs. May Robinson, daughter of John Zeek, is very low in the hospital at Portland.

Mrs. Caroline Mayer and Mrs. Emma Krueger have left for a visit with friends in Wisconsin.
A goodly number of invited guests enjoyed a pleasant evening with a bonfire and taffy pulling at the home of Mrs. Antoine Zic. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Zic's niece, Mrs. Carr.

The funeral services of Charlie Palmer were held at the cemetery Wednesday, J. P. Cole taking charge. Charlie was well known in Canby and the funeral was largely attended by the people of this vicinity.

Andrew Kocher has rejuvenated his home with several coats of paint and is further improving the appearance of his residence by the addition of a new fence.

Rev. Mulkey will talk on temperance at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon.

W. H. Bair loaded three cars with one thousand sacks of potatoes in one day. The potato crop is pretty well cleaned up and if the farmers will sell at the prevailing prices Mr. Bair thinks the entire crop can be disposed of at once, and the growers will not need to use spuds for feed.

Canby people are already thinking about celebrating the Fourth of July. Now that the Fair is assured, it is planned to get up a rip-roaring celebration and get the people to come to see the new grounds.

R. S. Coe reports everything progressing smoothly on his petition for money for the fair. Over $700 is absolutely sure at present and the balance is in sight.

Word has been received from Frank Weed that he has taken up a homestead in the Silver Lake country.

Mrs. Warren Lee was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Wells, of Mackaburg, passed through Canby Wednesday en route for Portland.

Mrs. T. Zollner was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

Some miscreants broke into the school house the other night and stole nearly all the Principal's books.

School closes May 22nd with exercises in the City Hall. Whether Canby gets a high school or not the additional room in the school building will have to be used next year, if the present enrollment of 200 remains as large as it is to take care of the primary department which too large for one teacher at present.

BARLOW
Percy Catleb, who is working with the tie at Molalla River, ran a pick-up room nearly through his foot Thursday morning.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a sale the 16th of this month and will also serve ice cream, cake, coffee and sandwiches.

Dave Sheppard is quite ill with the mumps.

Wilmar Sandness, Will Tull and Cora Sandness have also been suffering with the mumps.

Mrs. J. A. Andrews and Mrs. Lidie L. Irvin leave Monday for Eugene, where they are sent as delegates by the Twentieth Century Grange to the Oregon State Grange.

A special school meeting was held Saturday evening for the purpose of enlarging the school house. The small room will be enlarged twelve feet, steps and porch repaired and outside doors to swing each way.

Some of the young men from here went to Aurora Saturday evening with the expectation of attending the dance, but the announcement was a misrepresentation.

Mrs. W. W. Irvin, of Aurora, was the guest of Mrs. L. L. Irvin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel King entertained their friends at their home a week ago Saturday evening. The evening was spent in various games after which dainty lunch was served.

Olga A. Howe entertained the Busy Bee swing society Thursday evening.

Most of the Barlow boys attended the ball game at Canby Sunday.

C. G. Tull spent Sunday in Portland.

CENTRAL POINT.

All of our Central Point neighbors are busy planting potatoes.

W. S. Rider, of Hog Hollow, is improving the looks of his place by a new house.

Mrs. Stauber must intend going into the creamery business, as she has purchased a cow of Frank McArthur.

Last Thursday evening George G. Randall and Mrs. Lottie Pennman were initiated in the Lodge of United Artisans of Oregon City; also Miss Maggie McDonald, a former resident of this place.

Hobart Eastman became a member of Canby Lodge of Odd Fellows last Friday night.

By the looks of things Mr. George Randall, Sr., is getting young again. He has been helping break land out on the farm.

Mrs. Randall has also been out a few days at the old farm, visiting among her sons and their families.

Where was you Sunday, Jim? We saw you come home father late.

Mrs. Gilbert Randall and Mrs. August Scheer must be going into the poultry business, as each one started their incubator Sunday. Mrs. Randall with a capacity of 50 eggs and Mrs. Scheer 150.

Mr. Marshall, the binder repairer, of Portland, and Mr. Bennet, of Iowa, were callers at Mr. Gilbert Randall's Sunday. Mr. Bennett is traveling agent for the Champion Binder, and also inventor of the Champion Wobble gear mower.

Mr. and Mrs. Steer and daughter, Alta and Mr. and Mrs. Heerd, were guests of Mrs. Ella Randall Sunday.

Mr. August Staehly, our new road boss, is repairing the bridge over Parrot Creek, East of New Era. A work that has been badly needed for the past year. Newt Creitzer is doing the carpenter work.

Stauber, Scheer and Hughes think they are the only pebbles on the beach now days. Each has a new trotter.

Mrs. Mead and Mrs. Dundas were among the many at the birthday party of Mrs. Joe Hoffman at New Era last Wednesday, April 23.

Little Willie Heerd, infant son of

"THE STORE THAT RIGHTS THE WRONG"

SOL GARDE

THE NEW PROPRIETOR CHICAGO CLOTHING CO. 69-71 3rd. St. Portland Bet. Oak & Pine

AFTER EASTER Reduction Sale

Men's Suits, $15 Values Reduced to $9.35

Fifteen dollar suits for $9.35 require no argument to sell. The way these suits are being snapped up shows that men know values when they see them. Our line of men's suits now at is the equal of any $20.00 Suit in the city. Newest shades, latest effects.

$14.35

CAR-FARE ALLOWED ON ALL PURCHASES OF $10.00 AND OVER

Kindly Let Our Salesmen Show Them to You

Mr. and Mrs. William Heerd, died, April 28th, of Bright's disease, aged 3 months and 1 week. Little Willie was a delicate child from the time of birth and every hope was cherished for his health, until Tuesday when the little life slowly ebbed away. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood. Burial was at Rose City Cemetery, East Portland.

NEW ERA
John and Chas. Bradt are hauling piling from Adkins camp to Oregon City this week.
The Canby ball team came down Sunday and were defeated by the New Era Orioles, 9 to 23.
Paul Snieder, of Needy, and Elmer Veto are building a schoolhouse at Twilight, 24x38 ft.
Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bremer, Sr. were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.
Mrs. J. L. Hoffman was surprised by her lady friends last Tuesday on the occasion of her birthday.
Supervisor Staehly has repaired the Moore bridge in the East part of town.

STAFFORD
Very pleasant weather again. Soon late gardens can be planted and various ends on the farm caught up, which has been delayed by the spasmodic rain.
John Mays, who has been ailing the past year, at times suffering intense pain, which only an iron constitution could withstand, has been very ill again the past week, but a little easier at last accounts. He has been up and about for the past two months, but unable to work.
Mrs. Powell is very sick with, we fear, typhoid symptoms. Mrs. Farson is caring for her.
Fred Baker has begun to finish the inside of his new cottage.
May baskets were in evidence Friday night. A knock at the door, scampering feet, and sometimes a low happy laugh, and upon investigation a pretty May basket on the door knob with no card to aid the happy recipient in guessing who cared so much to take all that trouble. Whoever they were your correspondent is commissioned to tender sincere thanks for each and every basket.
Mrs. Reuter had the misfortune to lose one dollar and half, which some sneak thief took, and Mrs. Gebhardt found her purse rifled of a five dollar gold piece and two dollars in silver, possibly by the same sneak. It is strongly suspected who the person is, and he is being watched and some fine day the young gentleman will be brought up with a round turn and the sooner the better for undesirable citizens are not wanted in Stafford. If a fellow won't work neither should he eat or prey upon those who have to work for him.

TEAZEL CREEK.
Weather damp and warm; everything growing nicely.
Mrs. Joe Simons is on the sick list.
Rev. Quinn went to Missouri Ridge, where he preaches every first Sunday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Bessie.

Vernon Pittman visited with Willie Quinn last Sunday. They report a good time.
Fishing seems to be the pastime at present. Several anglers were seen along Rock Creek last Sunday.
However well the farmers' wives enjoy raising chickens, the hawks seem to enjoy it equally as well. However their way of raising chickens differs from the farmers' wife, their way being to raise them off the ground to some favorite tree, where they may make a meal at leisure.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bagby are rejoicing over the birth of a little girl, born April 28.
Mrs. Lulu Herman's uncle, from Silverton, has been visiting with her a few days.
Preaching next Sunday at Teazel Creek and Sunday school at 10 a. m. All invited.
We seek to know what the future holds;
Although anxious, cannot see it. Yet when time the truth unfolds, How many vain would flee it.

MOUNTAIN VIEW
The thermometer rose, to 76° last week which seemed quite warm for this time of the year.
Mr. Gillett is putting a concrete walk around a lot in the graveyard this week for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson.
Messrs. White have rented Mr. J. D. Locke's house on Duane street and are hauling poles. They will keep their three teams in Ed. Gottberg's new barn at the blacksmith shop.
Mrs. Ott entertained the members of the D. of H., Tuesday afternoon.
There is still a great deal of sickness in this burg.
Mrs. Henderson is on the sick list again.
Harold Albright has the pneumonia. Dr. Strickland is in attendance.
Mr. Mattock, who bought Mr. Bishop's place on Roosevelt street is making improvements there.
J. W. Curran is going into the business of raising turkeys.
Miss Mary Ott has gone out to stay a few days with Mrs. Mitchell.
C. A. Frost is making fence this week around the Neudall property, so that he can pasture his cow.
Mr. Strece is at the hospital again this week. Mrs. Stuart is taking care of the children. Mrs. Strece is still in the asylum.
We have a new mail carrier, this week. John Etchison has gone on his annual vacation making a tour through California.
Grandma Beattie and Mrs. Schuebel were on the hill and at the cemetery Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Welsh, Miss Winnie Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Ray Welch and Millard Gillett, went on the excursion to McMinnville last week.
Walter Bruce went as a delegate to Forest Grove last week to the Sunday School convention.
Born, May 1, 1908, to the wife of Mr. Lon Baker, a daughter.
Born, May 2, 1908, to the wife of Mr. Henry Cromer, a daughter.

Mr. Lewellyn says he feels quite aged now that he is grandpa.
Auntie May Fairclough is the proud woman in town.
Mrs. Raber's little girl is still on the sick list with no improvement.
Miss Bertha Priebe was taken to the hospital again Tuesday.
Pearl Selby has another attack of the mumps on the other side of his face this time.
Miss Maude Moran is helping Mrs. Charles Ely sew this week.

STONE.
The trees are beautiful, the grass is nice and green, the fruit trees are white as snow and all nature looks lovely this May day.
Everybody is busy around here.
Mr. H. F. Marshall from Virginia, with his family of four children is looking at Clackamas county, and expects to settle in our county if favorably impressed with this part of the country. There is plenty of room in Clackamas county for all the Virginians that want to get good homes.
The frost we had last week here did but little damage. Corn, that was up was not hurt, potatoes scarcely wilted.
One of the assessors was around to see how rich people are this year. He got off of his route and could not find his part of the real estate to assess.

The Clear Creek cream haulers are bringing in loads of the Oregon Cream. It keeps the creamery man at the churn with a helper.
Part of the Mumpower outfit and Arthur Smalley and his team are rushing in saw logs to Grant Mumpower's and Lillie's saw mill.

"Ear-Marks of Booze."
I propose on next Sunday evening, May 10, 1908, to answer all adverse criticism regarding my recent sermon on the subject: "Hop Growing and Picking, or Should Christians Indulge?" My subject will be: "Why I am Opposed to the Liquor Business. A Personal Experience with all the Ear-Marks of Booze."
JOHN M. LINDEN,
Pastor First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Heckel Awarded Divorce.
In the Circuit Court Monday Mrs. R. C. Heckel was granted a decree of divorce in her suit against George Heckel. They were married in this city several months ago and separated after a few days. Heckel was formerly one of the proprietors of The Hub saloon.

GGUSTA

Percheron Stallion Ggusta will make the season as follows:

Tuesdays-Logan, Henry Babler's
Wednesdays-Estacada, Morrows Barn
Thursdays-Viola, W. Ward's
Fridays-Springwater, C. L. Bard's.

Terms $10. Single leap; $15. for season; $20. to insure with foal. Owned by H. M. Mullen. Managed by C. L. Bard, Springwater.

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

Of High-Classed Canned Fruits and Vegetables, Preserves in Glass, Maple Syrup, Buckwheat Flour, Soaps etc.

Beginning May 1st, we inaugurate an extraordinary Clearance Sale of the following High-grade Canned Goods, etc. Positive reduction of from 10 to 25 per cent, off the regular retail prices. The stock is the largest and best selected of Groceries in Clackamas County. Terms, Cash.

- Tomatoes, Extra Standard, 3 for 25 cts, 95 cents per dozen.
- Tomatoes, Extra Fancy, 2 for 25cts, $1.35 per dozen.
- Corn Extra Standard, 3 for 25 cents, 95 cents per dozen.
- Beans Extra Fancy Refuge, 2 for 25cts, $1.40 per dozen.
- Peaches, Apricots, Pears, Extra Standard 20cts each, or $2.00 per doz.
- Peaches, Apricots, Pears, Strawberries, Blackberries, Cherries, Extra Fancy grade, 25 cts per can, or $2.75 per dozen.
- All of Bishop's, Long's, Griffin's Extra Preserves in glass, regular 25c to 35cts, now 20cts each.
- Maple Syrup in gallon can, regular $1.40 now $1.15 per can.
- Eastern Buckwheat, 10lb. sacks, regular 50ct, now 40 cents per sack.
- Soap, Swift's Pride, 8 bars for 25 cents.
- Soap, Sunny Monday, P. & G Naptha, Johnson & c, regular 4 for 25cts, now 5 cents each.
- Extra Singapore Pine Apples—large size, 2 for 25c, per doz...$1.45

A. ROBERTSON
THE SEVENTH STREET GROCER