OREGON CITY, OREGON. FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1908.

ESTABLISHED 1886.

GOOD WORK FOR TICKET

E. C. HACKETT SAYS REPUBLICANS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY SHOULD VOTE THE TICKET STRAIGHT.

NOMINEES GOOD MEN

This is a Presidential Year and the Entire United States is Watching for Oregon to Fire First Great Gun.

Our Representative ticket this season is one of the best, and when the "robbers get together to divide the loot," we need such a man as Capt. J. U. Campbell there who has the nerve to call them down. He was one of the ablest men in the last legislature and did as much, if not more than any one else, to prevent vicious legislation.

R. L. Greaves, for Sheriff, is the right man named for the place. He has grown up from a mere boy in this county and deserves well of his fellows.

C. E. Ramsby, another Clackamas County boy, is serving us so well, that a second term is conceded to him. His father, and his grand-father have also served the people of this county and they constitute a family that has always been respected and deserved well of their fellows.

H. S. Moody, for Assessor, is another deserving tribute to a worthy young man. He has lived in Oregon City for a good many years, and is very popular wherever known.

J. C. Paddock, for Treasurer, our old-time friend, I'm more than glad to recommend. He deserves well at your hands and I am sure you'll think so too.

W. H. Mattson, of Viola, is an old pioneer of this county, and we are going to elect him for County Commissioner. He'll get almost the entire vote north of the Clackamas and more than his share at other places.

R. L. Holman, for Coroner, I'm always pleased to say a good word for him; but he doesn't need it, for every body knows Ross and his election is beyond question.

S. A. D. Hungeate, for County Surveyor, was at one time a pupil of mine and I'm pleased to commend him to the good people of Clackamas County.

Mr. R. T. Barbur, for Constable, will do his duty fearlessly and honestly, and his election is assured.

EUGENE WAS HOSPITABLE

STATE GRANGE IS OVER AND PATRONS ARE PLEASED AT RECEPTION.

FIRM FOR INITIATIVE

Appropriation of $500 Made to Fight Suit Against New Law—McMinnville Is Meeting Place Next Year.

The Oregon State Grange met in Eugene Tuesday, May 12 at 10 a. m. Willamette street was tastefully decorated with flags, pennants and the grange colors.

The election resulted as follows for the principal offices: Austin T. Buxton, Forest Grove, master; A. T. Shoemaker, Selma, Josephine County, overseer; J. R. Johnson, 505 Commercial Block, Portland, lecturer; Oscar Eaton, Oswego, chaplain; W. A. Young, Arleta, steward; Mary S. Howard, Mulino, elected for sixth term, secretary; Eugene Palmer, Albany, executive committeeman; F. M. Gill, of Estacada, and A. I. Mason, Hood River, legislative committeemen.

The grange voted for the "Recall," after Proportional Representation, for the single district plan for election of representatives and senators; to appoint a committee of five to investigate banking laws; for woman suffrage; for local option; to classify values for the purpose of assessment and taxation; for state tax commission; against single tax; for U'Ren's Statement No. 1 Bill; did not favor either fish bill, but favored the removal of all fish wheels, or traps from all parts of the river; did not favor any change in the initiative and referendum at this time; favored making county smallest district for school purposes; treasurer to pay warrants; a board of five to be elected by the people for the county, this board to elect school superintendent and teachers of the schools.

The session was one of the most fruitful, harmonious, and enthusiastic ever held. The next session will be held in McMinnville next May. Five hundred dollars was appropriated to employ legal talent to assist the Attorney-General in defending the suit brought to annul the initiative and referendum law.

In the matter of appointment of fruit inspectors the legislative committee was instructed to draft a bill requiring applicants to pass a civil service examination before a board of three examiners in each county, who shall be appointed by the State Fruit Inspector.

The grange also adopted a recommendation by the state master that the apportionment of assessments for road work should be 25 per cent by the state, 60 per cent by the county and 15 per cent by the district. The report would leave the levy to the state and restrict county boards from making the same. It would also tax special interests using the county roads or make them keep roads in repair wherever damaged. This would apply to automobiles, lumber or wood haulers. It would keep all supervisors in office by appointment.

Those who attended the State grange from Clackamas County were: James Shibley and wife of Springwater, W. W. Everhart and wife, Forest Dunton, F. E. Dunton, J. W. Thomas, Miss Bertha Adams of Molalla; R. Scott, T. R. A. Sellwood, J. James, of Milwaukie, A. J. Thompson, C. T. Dickerson and wife, Oscar Eaton, C. C.
