

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

William Clinton Looney died Saturday night, May 16, at his home near Currinsville. He was born in Rome County, West Virginia, Oct. 18, 1873, and came to this section in 1885. Mr. Looney leaves a wife and three children, a father and mother. The cause of his death was consumption which resulted from an accident a few years ago. He was a member of the Estacada lodge of Odd Fellows, and the funeral was held Monday under the auspices of this lodge, Brother De Moy conducting the services. Interment was in Wade cemetery.

Henry Palmeter, of Silverton, was renewing acquaintances in Estacada this week.

Messrs. Boswell and A. N. Johnson were among those from here who went to Seattle to see the fleet of battleships.

A demorest medal temperance contest will be held next week. Some five or six young ladies have already arranged to take part.

The firemen are already making arrangements for a rip-roaring celebration on the Fourth.

Rev. M. B. Paroungian will preach the Memorial sermon Sunday, May 31, the day after Decoration Day.

D. N. Bridenstein's team got very much excited when the band began to play the other day and the music did not have charms enough to soothe their savage breasts, for they took a bee line for home and went lickety-split for their barn in Garfield—and they didn't stop till they got there.

W. H. Cary, John Ely and A. Hawkins are at Salem as delegates to the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. this week, and Mrs. J. W. Reed is the delegate to the Rebekahs.

Prof. J. E. Stubbs, wife and son, went to Gresham Sunday to visit his former home.

F. M. Gill returned from Eugene Saturday. He had been in attendance at the sessions of the State Grange. He was elected a member of the legislative committee—the grange lobby, and expects to be in Salem during the session to watch the interests of the grangers.

M. V. Thomas, of Bull Run, a member of Eagle Creek grange, attended the State Grange last week.

The Democratic candidates spoke at Estacada Friday evening and the Republicans Saturday evening. Both had good audiences.

A. D. Burnett, of Eagle Creek, was in Estacada Monday attending the funeral of W. C. Looney.

F. M. Gill has filed a nominating petition with County Clerk Greenman as an independent candidate for justice in Justice District No. 14, comprising Eagle Creek, Estacada and George precincts.

KELSO NOTES.

We have been having so much cold rain this spring that crops, gardens and pastures are not as far advanced as they should be.

Mr. S. E. New, a resident of Oregon for 22 years, has gone to visit relatives in Kentucky.

Jarl Bros. and Leo Rath are logging and running their mill.

Mrs. P. Rath, of George, was in Kelso visiting relatives last week.

Birch and George Roberts, of Dover, passed through Kelso Wednesday en route to Hood River to pick strawberries.

Mr. David Croyle, of Clackamas, was in Kelso Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Frances went to Portland Monday.

Joel Jarl purchased some fine Jersey cattle and Berkshire hogs this spring.

Mr. O. Mikkleson sold 80 acres of land on Sandy Ridge to Mr. Miller and two of his friends from the east.

We see by the Enterprise that Marvin Dickenson, of the Hindu case sold his 40 acres of land to Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City.

John Dickenson was in Kelso last week.

Charlie Sinclair is staying with T. G. Jonsrud and is going to school.

R. E. Jarl, the Kelso store keeper and Leo Rath, visited in George recently.

David Schwartz bought two cows from Joel Jarl Monday.

Mr. Young bought a cow from Mr. Lindholm last week.

Bert Jonsrud came near meeting with a serious accident while jogging.

on a hillside. A log rolled down hill and would have rolled over him had he not jumped over it.

Bertha Albel is home again after a brief visit to her sister in Portland.

The Firwood Lumber Co. has all of the plank sawed and most all delivered for the new plank road between Sandy and Kelso. We will have some long buggy rides when Supervisor Krebs gets the road finished.

Gilbert Haugulum and Mr. Thielke are proud of their new colts.

Miss Dora Kline went to Portland shopping, Saturday.

Kelso will lose one of its young ladies next week, but Sandy will give her a new home.

EAGLE CREEK.

Dick Gibson and wife called on Mrs. Cora Udell Monday last.

Mrs. Cora Robertson was visiting with friends and relatives at Gresham, Rockwood and Fairview the latter part of last week.

Walter Douglass returned home on Sunday, having made a brief business trip to Eastern Oregon last week.

Mr. Wolfe, of Dover, passed through this burg one day last week on his way to Eagle Creek with a load of potatoes.

H. S. Gibson has his new wire fence completed and he thinks he is rather proud of it.

Eagle Creek Grange held a short session, Saturday, May 1; was small attendance, only twenty being present.

J. F. Brower and daughter Mildred, of Orient, were in this burg Sunday. Mr. Brower held services at the school house Sunday noon and evening.

Mrs. Edith Douglass and children and Miss Cleo Douglass spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Douglas.

Mrs. Menane and family moved from the Gibson ranch to Mrs. Freda Vancouver's farm last week.

The Eagle Creek team played the North Portland team Sunday afternoon and won by a score of 14 to 4.

GEORGE.

With the advent of Spring the farmers of this vicinity are bestirring themselves in all kinds of ways.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt had company from Portland last week. The latter's mother and sister were here on a visit.

F. Lins has begun work on the inside of his new house.

Henry Johnson had the misfortune to lose his young colt. It died of some unknown sickness.

Carl Lins is making several ricks of firewood for the Presbyterian church.

Fishing seems to be the pastime at present for some of the town people, as quite a number were seen on Eagle Creek Sunday.

Henry Johnson, our road boss, has been repairing the Graham road and also planked a little over 600 feet of it. This is work that has been badly needed for the past year, as it is almost impossible to haul any load over it in the winter.

Peter Ruhl has his new woodshed completed.

DODGE.

Early fruit is looking good, but the cold rains of late are quite hard on late apples.

J. M. Park made a trip to Estacada the fore part of the week for a new axle to replace the one he broke in his buggy.

Miss Ethel Keller spent Sunday with Mr. D. Horner's folks.

Our school will close in three weeks. There will be a school exercise on the afternoon of the last day.

Mr. J. M. Park has his new separator running and is saving about ninety pounds of cream a week from five cows.

The ball game between Elwood and Colton resulted in a victory for Elwood by a score of 10 to 6.

Mrs. I. D. Surtus and Miss Marsh, of Elwood, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Park, of this place Sunday.

Mrs. Della Gotberg's little boy doesn't seem to be improving or falling either. He has been very seriously ill for several days. It is sincerely hoped he will recover from his illness.

Drug Firm Dissolves. The drug firm of Howell & Jones has dissolved partnership, and the entire interest of Chambers Howell has been purchased by Linn E. Jones.

INSANE MAN DEFILES OFFICERS AND POSSE

THOMAS MAROJ BRANDISHES AX AND IS SHOT, SUBDUED AND FINALLY CAPTURED.

Deputy Sheriff Baker Friday afternoon directed a party in West Oregon City, intent on the capture of Thomas Maroj, who was wanted to answer to a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Maroj was employed in the paper mill and about a month ago he chased Frank Bullard and Mr. Cole around with a long sharp knife, indicating his mind was unbalanced. Constable Bradley and Special Officer Miles made an effort to effect his capture, and fired 11 shots at Maroj, not intending to hit him, but the Polander took to the tall timber, where he remained for three weeks and came home Friday half starved.

John Turner notified the sheriff's office of the wild man's return and Mr. Baker, accompanied by William Reams, Ed. Surtus, Mr. Clark and John Turner surrounded Maroj's house and demanded his surrender. The man came to the door with an ax in his hand and a determined expression of resistance on his countenance, but several shots were fired at him, one of them striking the fleshy portion of his forearm. This subdued Maroj, and he surrendered and was lodged in the County jail.

Maroj was committed to the insane asylum from this county last Fall, and for a time thereafter his wife and two children were aided by neighbors, as Maroj had left them in destitute condition. Maroj was not searched Friday until he was landed in jail, when he delivered a loaded revolver over to his captors. He made no attempt to use the weapon. He is aged about 35 years. He was committed to the insane asylum Saturday.
