AFTER THE BATTLE.
The Republicans of Clackamas County, with a normal majority of something like 1500, went to the polls Monday and elected a Democratic sheriff, a Democratic assessor, and gave George Chamberlain a plurality of something like 500 for United States Senator. Incidentally they elected 10 Republicans to county offices.

Every voter who took upon himself the lesson from Monday's election. It is apparent that when we elect a Democratic official, he is good for two terms, and in the case of assessor, this means eight years. We may also look forward to a beautiful factional scrap for the office of sheriff two years hence. The Republicans themselves are responsible for these conditions, and the Democrats are only to be commended for their shrewd, adroit political manipulation that enables them to show the Oregonians of Clackamas County and Oregon a trick or two worth while.

We have given our Commissioner a plurality of about 450 and corner 300. These figures may be regarded by some as great Republican victories, but the Enterprise does not look upon them as such. The legislative ticket has been elected by something like the normal party vote, and with Statement No. 1 in their bonnets they may now march proudly up to Salem and there vote for a Democrat to go to Washington to uphold the policies of Theodore Roosevelt. The criticism that was directed at The Enterprise for its stand against the statement has quieted to a degree, since the election of Mr. Chamberlain. This newspaper plainly showed Chamberlain's strength and was censured for admitting the possibility of the defeat of the Republican nominee. We have shown what a Republican Oregon will do under the direct primary system as exemplified by Statement No. 1.

Clackamas County has swatted popular education by killing the county high school measure and voting heavily against the appropriation for the support and maintenance of our State University. The endorsement of School Superintendent Gary, against whom a hard fight was made, is extremely gratifying to those who have the interests of the public schools at heart.

The friends of the Secretary of the Treasury, George Bruce Cortleyou, are making an active canvass to ascertain the sentiment toward him as a candidate for the Vice-Presidential nomination on the Republican ticket. Secretary Cortleyou stands high with labor leaders, having risen by his own efforts and merits from a comparatively humble place in the government service to one of exceptional honor, and he enjoys an unsullied record as a public man. He represents, also, both elements in the party, having been the friend of Hanna and McKinley and an appointee of Roosevelt. Secretary Cortleyou has not alienated himself with any faction in his State, New York, but is popular with all. Representative Sherman is, also mentioned as a New Yorker of Vice Presidential proportions, and while his friends have not made much advance thus far with their campaign in his behalf, they point to the highly creditable record of Mr. Sherman in the House, his geniality and personal popularity. Mr. Sherman's work on the Congressional Campaign Committee has won for him the high regard and loyal support of all Republican members of Congress.

In a current magazine Speaker Cannon has an article on "How a bill becomes a law." The general public would be much more interested in an article on Why Bills do not become laws. Speaker Cannon could furnish more information on this subject perhaps, than any other one man.

This session of Congress has broken all records in the number of bills introduced, the total being 29,125. Thirty-eight treaties have been ratified and made public, more than had been ratified during the twenty years preceding.

Accurate figures are not yet obtainable, but a careful estimate put the total appropriations of this session of Congress at $1,020,000,000. This is $100,000,000 more than has been expended by any other Congress.

If you want sunshine in your lives, come to Oregon City next Saturday and enjoy the festivities of Booster and Market Day. The business men have something fine in the way of enjoyment in store for all of you.

This month four years ago the United States took hold of the Panama Canal Zone, and began the solution of a problem mainly to be solved by hard and honest work.

Now that the election is over, let us forget our troubles and all get together and help celebrate the coming Chautauqua Assembly in Gladstone Park.

Now that we have the Recall, let us try it on George Chamberlain, Roosevelt Republican and United States Senator-elect from Oregon.

Question: What will the Oregon legislature do to George Chamberlain next January. Is the programme to be hold-up or otherwise?

The Constitution of Oregon will be shot full of holes by the time the various amendments are finally tacked on.

The women will have to wait another two years before trying it again.

June. O golden month of June! We love the music of thy babbling brooks.

We long to rest within thy shaded nooks,— O Nature's fairest boon! Thou art a gift indeed.

Each wilding flower, each bird in leafy tree, In melody and fragrance speak of thee To bless us in our need.

O days beyond compare! Whose meadows breathe the scent of new-mown hay,

Where we may idly roam the livelong day And drink the beauty there! Fair June, when thou art fled We'll miss thee from the woodland and the dell;

When rose and violet we loved so well Lie withered all and dead.
