

Milwaukee and Vicinity

MILWAUKEE.

The work on the new addition to the school house was started last Friday. J. M. Snyder has been awarded the contract.

Ray Maple, who was fined $1.00 and costs in the recorder's court last week claims that it is a case of malicious persecution and that he will appeal to a higher court before he will pay the fine.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club met last Friday afternoon at the school-house and listened to a very interesting program. The president, Mrs. Roberts, and vice-president, Mrs. Reid, both being absent, Mrs. Maggie Johnson was elected president pro tem. The annual meeting, at which the election of officers for ensuing year will take place, will be held at the home of Miss Estella Niles, Milwaukee Heights, June 12, at 2:30 P. M. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

The graduating exercises of the 8th grade will be held at the Band Hall at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The following are the names of the graduates: Adam Keck, Roy Schroeder, Reginald Witte, Fred Streib, Clayton Coleman, Walter Koenig, Edward Winzenried, Clifford Platz, Ferol Jackson, Eugenie Johnson, Ellen Jackson, Ellen Roberts, Myrtle Mullen, Jennie Mullen, Bessie Holt, Edith Roberts, Hazel Wyman, Ada Lakin.

The services at the Evangelical church for next Sunday are as follows: Preaching, 10 A. M.; Sunday School, 11 A. M.; Young People's Alliance, 7 P. M.; Preaching, 8 P. M. Prayer meeting is held every Thursday evening at 8:00. Rev. Noah Shupp, pastor. Everyone is cordially welcomed.

Milwaukee is not in a state of stagnation even if some people do try to make us think she is slow. She is growing. There are at least five new houses to go up this summer. P. T. Davis will build a five-room cottage on his lots next to Noah Hubler; D. P. Matthews, will build on the two lots adjoining Henry Stucky, which he bought of Mrs. Duerst; Isaac Mullan will put up two houses west of George Miller, and T. C. Livingston will build a house on the two lots he bought of Mr. Sellwood.

The new building of Casper Kerr's where the old blacksmith shop formerly stood, will be ready for occupancy in a few days. It has already been treated to two coats of paint. R. F. Johnson will move his restaurant in there the last of the week.

J. E. Wetzler in addition to treating his business building to a fresh coat of paint, has had a neat and attractive sign painted across the front and along the roof.

The Italians who have rented some of I. L. Johnson's place are erecting a small dwelling house between the Minthorn spring and the railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll, who moved away some time ago, write that their address for the present is Kerby, Or.

Miss Laura Black has bought two lots south of Samuel Hoesly's place and is erecting a neat dwelling house on the same.

The shingle mill received a new raft of logs last Wednesday and is running once more.

A. H. Dowling, the real estate man, has just closed the sale of lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, block 11, of Robertson, from A. Fleehelle to C. E. Gordon. Consideration $1500.

J. H. Beneke, of Spokane, has been visiting friends and relatives in and near Milwaukee during the past few days.

The one all absorbing topic during the past week has been the ballot. Now that election is over we can again get down to business.

Mr. Henderson is preparing to begin work on the road across Clear Creek, which will be a great benefit to the country.

There was a double header ball game played at Springwater Sunday. The first, Springwater vs. Logan; the score standing 9 to 7 in favor of Logan. The second—Elwood vs. Logan, the score standing 24 to 10 in favor of Elwood. There will be a game at the Elwood grounds by Springwater and Elwood.

The cold rain is holding back the early fruits, as we generally have strawberries at this time of the year.

A Grand Family Medicine.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones drug store. 50c.
