A large delegation of the members of the Oregon Federation will leave Portland on June 13th, for the National Federation.

The sympathy if the Women's Club is extended to Mrs. P. J. Mann, whose husband died suddenly on Thursday, May 28. Mr. and Mrs. Mann are well known to pioneers of Oregon City. Mrs. Mann is a prominent club woman of Portland.

Miss Marvin, secretary of the state library commission, sends the following timely suggestions for club programs, and it is hoped many clubs will take advantage of her generous offer of assistance:

"Would it not be possible to have one day in each club upon the sanitary conditions of public schoolhouses and outhouses? The conditions in many of the towns and country districts of Oregon are shockingly bad, unsanitary, filthy and disgusting. If this subject could be added to other public questions, we might be able to send a small pamphlet to each district in the state telling exactly what the conditions ought to be, how closets should be built and how they should be cared for. Also point out the essential facts in regard to ventilation, lights, heat, etc., and tell them what to notice on inspection day. I am more than convinced that we can do what we want to do only through clubs. I wish we might get a double number this next year. I shall be glad to help in every way I can to get them organized and I think if we offer them ready-made programs and materials to study it will be some incentive toward club work."

Shakespeare Day at the Women's Club was one of much interest, and was held last week at the home of Mrs. Linn E. Jones. The programme was in charge of the Shakespeare department, and consisted of the production of a farce from "Thisbe and Pyramus," and several scenes from "As You Like It." The participants were: Mrs. E. W. Scott, Miss C. Barclay Pratt, Mrs. Linn E. Jones, Mrs. H. E. Straight, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. E. P. Rands and Mrs. J. W. Norris. They were in costumes, and the house was fittingly decorated to represent a forest scene. Much praise was heard for the productions.

Deviled Ham Hash.

Take 1 pint of cooked potatoes, and three or four green onions. Place in a bowl, chop fine, add 1 small can of deviled ham and a pinch of salt. Mince well together and turn into a frying pan that has a small piece of melted lard or butter.

To Can Rhubarb.

Wash and slice rhubarb you wish to can (do not peel), place in a large sauce pan. Pour boiling water on, then take out immediately and pack in jars leaving the first water in the sauce pan. Pour on enough boiling water into the jars to cover the fruit and seal. This makes a good pie in winter as fresh fruit and the juice can be put with sugar and made into good syrup for hot cakes.

George C. Brownell Delivers Impressive Oration and Graves are Decked By Loving Hands With Flowers.

Last Saturday was devoted to the commemoration of the noble deeds of the soldiers of the War of the Rebellion, who gave up their lives that the Union might be preserved. Meade Post No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, and Meade Relief Corps, No. 18, conducted the annual ceremonies incident to Decoration Day. People from Portland and other Oregon towns as well as residents of this city, visited Mountain View cemetery and laid flowers on the graves. The cemetery was a veritable garden of beauty.

The pupils of the city schools assembled Saturday morning and marched to Willamette Hall, where they listened to patriotic speeches and then joined the ranks of the veterans and members of the Relief Corps at 9:45 o'clock, and preceded by the Oregon City Band, marched to the Suspension Bridge, where flowers were strewn on the waters in honor of the dead sailors of the Civil War. The procession then marched north on Main Street to Tenth, up Singer Hill and on Seventh street to the City Park, where the public exercises were rendered, as follows:

Musical selection, Oregon City Band; Prayer, Rev. T. F. Bowen; Announcements, President of the day, W. P. Hawley; Quartette by choir of the First Baptist Church; Recitation, Thomas Sinnott; Address, ritual, Post Commander; Drill, by pupils of Willamette School; recitation, Mrs. Frances Evans; solo, Miss Ona Renner; oration, Hon. George C. Brownell.

The veterans and members of the Woman's Relief Corps were then driven in carriages to Mountain View cemetery, where the following ritualistic ceremonies were performed: Dirge, by the band; address, ritual, page 8, Commander; prayer, ritual, page 11, chaplain; crowning monument, officer of the day; response, "Our Unknown Dead," Rev. R. C. Blackwell; Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg; ceremonies of Meade Relief Corps, No. 18; prayer, ritual, page 11; Chaplain; roll of honor, adjutant; taps, Bugler Frank McArthur.

The graves of fallen comrades were beautifully decorated by the veterans and members of the Relief Corps.

A delegation from Meade Post and Meade Relief Corps on Friday visited the McLoughlin Institute, where they were cordially received by Rev. A. Hillebrand and the teachers and pupils. Interesting exercises were held in the auditorium, and the following program was rendered:

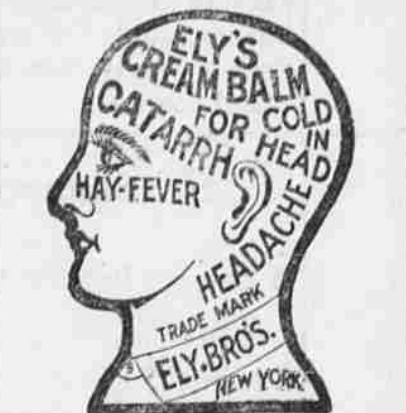

"Over the Waves," string quartette, first violin, A. McMillan, second violin, E. Downey, first mandolin, E. Trovenger, second mandolin, E. Telford, guitar, M. Flanagan, piano, John Busch; address of welcome, Master Francis Soghan; "Froggie," song by Minnie; "The Darkies Dream," duet, Misses E. Telford and E. McMillan; "The Boot Blacks," song, sixth grade boys; "Two Dying Soldiers," recitation, Miss E. Telford; "I'd a Letter From Papa," solo, Louise Weber; fire cracker drill, third grade boys; "Boatman's Song," chorus, sixth and seventh grade girls; "Wrap Me In the Dear Old Flag," song, senior pupils; "Flowers," recitation, Miss A. Falert; "Bugle Song," vocal quartette, senior girls; "Daughters of the Regiment," overture, Misses Carrie Werner and Gladys Boys.

Friday afternoon the delegation went to Parkplace, where they were right royally entertained by the teachers and pupils of the school. The following programme was given:

"School Days," song by school; "The Lost Dolly," Viola McNulty; recitation, "The Children Saw the Flag," Grace Clyde; drill, "The Little Army," by 20 primary boys.

Mrs. Brayton talked along patriotic lines, as did George A. Harding, James F. Nelson, Dan Williams, J. A. Tufts, Dan Hasbrouck, Mr. Corbett, Patrick Johnson, O. L. Clyde, J. T. Apperson, Faxon Hayford, and Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, president of Meade.

GRAYS TRIM ARLETA.

Game With Colored Players Will be Feature Sunday.

Oregon City carried off the honors of the day in baseball at Canemah park Sunday afternoon. After a well fought game between the Oregon City Grays and the Arletas, the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the home team. The battery was: Endres and Shaw, for the Grays, and Hess and Galentine for the visitors. The long wished for sunshine brought out a good crowd. Both teams seemed to be in good trim.

Manager Nehran, of Grays, has arranged a game for next Sunday with the Golden West team, from North Portland. This aggregation is a fast bunch of colored ball tossers, and will be a new spectacle for Oregon City. The game will be pulled off next Sunday afternoon at Canemah Park, while the Papermakers will play at Woodburn.

Papermakers Lose Two.

The Decoration Day double header matinee here Saturday was played on a sloppy field and the Albina Wanderers took two from the Papermakers in games that were devoid of features, save the slugging of the visitors. Most of the first game was played in a drizzling rain, and the spectators were not numerous. In the second game Kruger threw the ball at McBride, an Albina player who was standing on the side lines, letting three runs in, and the Oregon City third baseman was sent to the bench by Captain Chapin.

Thinks It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones drug store, 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Break Even at St. John.

The Apostles and Papermakers broke even at St. John Sunday. The Apostles took the first game with a score of 8 to 1 and ought to have won the second just as easily, but errors galore at critical times, coupled with a lucky hit or two, gave the game to the up-river boys by a score of 6 to 3. This was to be a seven inning game, but was tied 3 to 3 at that time. The first half of the eighth gave the Papermakers three more tallies, made on errors by Brown, Fleming, and Ruple, while the Apostles failed to score in their half. Ernest Keeler, the new twirler, is a wonder and throws five different balls from the same position. They all look the same until near the plate. He is also a good stickler and is a decided acquisition, allowing the Papermakers only seven hits in the two games. Robinson and Habernacht pitched for Oregon City.

MUCH CONCERN IS FELT.

Ordinary Methods for Treating Catarrh Prove Unsuccessful.

Written statistics that show an increase in catarrh have shaken confidence in the usual prescriptions to safeguard human health from the ravages of this disease.

When stomach dosing was proven ineffective it was natural to look for some other treatment, and it is believed that in Hyomeo an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles has at last been found. Inhaled with the air you breathe, its healing medication reaches every part of the nose and throat, and soothes the irritated mucous membrane so that relief is almost instant, while lasting cure is practically sure to follow.

The complete Hyomeo outfit costs but $1.00, and is sold by Huntley Bros. Co., under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.
