OVERTAXED.

Hundreds of Oregon City Readers Know What It Means. The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains — Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ill. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow. G. H. Springmeyer, expressman, of 1016 First St., Portland, Ore., says: "Exposure to rough weather and the jarring of my wagon brought on kidney troubles. My back ached almost constantly and the action of the kidneys seemed weak and the passages of the secretions too frequent. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice and I got a box and began using them at once. The pain in my back was soon relieved and the kidney secretions became normal. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills brought about this result." (From statement made Feb. 28, 1903.)

Cured to Stay Cured.

On January 12, 1906, Mr. Springmeyer confirmed the above statement and added: "Since the time referred to in my former testimony, I have not had any more kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills brought about this result." (From statement made Feb. 28, 1903.)

Did you read Mr. Ellers' "good advice" to a friend in buying a piano published in our previous issue?

If not, hunt up last week's paper and read it, because it gives an unbiased and unprejudiced opinion—from one of the best informed piano men in the United States to one of his friends, Mr. Ellers, the president of the Ellers Piano House—with forty stores under his personal control and with many years' experience in factory work—is beyond question better informed on musical instruments of all kinds than any other man in the West, consequently his advice was given intelligently. To show Mr. Ellers' thoroughness in seeking reliable and authentic information, only last year he traveled to Europe—thousands of miles—to investigate one manufacturer's product. Many dealers would have merely taken the instruments and sold them regardless of what the future might bring to the buyers—not so Mr. Ellers—he must know, and so it has been with every piano of every musical instrument placed in his stores for sale to the public, and in profiting by his experience you buy safely and are guaranteed absolute satisfaction, hence the Ellers' "money back if not satisfied" guarantee—the strongest possible insurance to their customers. Mr. Ellers said to his friend—"Buy a Kimball piano"—and he gave his reasons why. No doubt the reader is considering the purchase of a piano, or a musical instrument of some kind, if so, call at one of the Ellers stores and examine the beautiful new style Kimballs. It is convenient to do so and write and ask for Kimball Catalogue (which will be sent by return mail and will give you reliable information as to prices, terms, etc.) We can sell a "Kimball" by mail with an absolute certainty of pleasing the most exacting and critical musician—one who would be satisfied with none but the best. Send for Kimball Catalogue "1"—postal will bring it.
