Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

Mayor and Mrs. Heylman gave a house party in honor of Mrs. Hoffman of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, from Friday until Monday last. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. T. O'Connell, of Winlock; Miss Esther O'Connell, Mrs. Hubble, Spirit Lake, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Olson, of Portland; Mrs. Hoffman, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin; Master Arthur Hoffman, Miss Mae Stevens, Lake Side Place, Portland, and E. F. Surface.

Last Saturday the residents of Estacada were awakened by the fire alarm at 4 A. M. The home of Mrs. Sarah Jane Chase was wrapt in flames before any body discovered it, and nothing could be done except guard the surrounding property. Mrs. Chase had been away for a few days. There was no one in the house at the time of the fire and nobody has been able to ascertain the cause. The house and contents were totally destroyed. Mrs. Chase carried $1200 insurance on the furniture. The building belonged to Mr. A. W. Eckerson, of Portland, who had some insurance in the McMinnville company.

Mr. W. A. Wilcox sold his 81.88 acres near Springwater to S. N. Kilburn, of Portland. Mr. Kilburn expects to put the entire place into fruit.

Miss Gertrude Morron gave a party at the home of Mrs. H. V. Doe last Tuesday night in honor of Miss Carrie Doe. A large party of friends were present and everyone reports a most enjoyable time.

The W. C. T. U. Medal Contest under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church last Friday night, was a decided success. Miss Edna Miller won the honors of the evening a silver Medal. The other three contestants, Mary Dale, Lora Stormer and Kitty Ellen Reagan, each deserve a great deal of credit. Each received a pretty china cup and saucer in token of the appreciation due their work. The music furnished added a finish to the evening. The church was crowded. Mr. Kilgore, Mr. Al. Lindsey and Mr. John Ely were the judges of the contest.

The services at the M. E. Church for next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 11 o'clock; preaching at 8 P. M. Rev. M. B. Paronagian, pastor.

The Sunday services at Mt. Zion are: Sunday School 1:30; preaching, 2:30. Rev. M. B. Paronagian, pastor. Everyone is invited to attend.

School closes Friday for this year. The Rebekas held a very interesting and enjoyable meeting last Wednesday night. The annual election of officers was held and the following officers were elected: Miss Gertrude Morron, Noble Grand; Mrs. Robert Kerr, Vice-Grand. Mrs. E. C. Miller, Secretary and Mrs. J. C. Tracy, Treasurer.

Dr. and Mrs. Adix were initiated into the order. After the business of the evening was completed a delicious banquet was served.

Mrs. A. Morron has been on the sick list the last few days.

Mr. Lou Palmateer meet with a very painful accident last Friday, while climbing a rural telephone pole he plunged the climber into the ball of his foot causing a wound that will lay him up for a time.

Of the 249 who registered in the Estacada precinct only 205 voted. Twenty three additional voters were sworn in making the total vote 228. Of the numerous challenges only one stuck. Estacada went dry by 27.

The county High School lost out by 115 votes. Both fish laws passed by a large majority. The bill to limit the candidates money carried by a vote of 105 to 53. The appropriation for the U. of O. lost by 81 votes. The winning candidates carried in Estacada by the following majorities:

Geo. E. Chamberlain 37
Willis C. Hawley 94
Robert S. Bean 145
J. W. Bailey 81
Thos. K. Campbell 70
E. B. Tongue 123

The three highest voters for Representatives were W. A. Heylman 128, Walter A. Dimick 125, J. U. Campbell 119.

FALLS FROM BICYCLE.

Harry McClure Sustains Severe Injury on Singer Hill.

Harry McClure, office boy for the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co., sustained severe injuries Monday by a fall from a bicycle while coming down Singer Hill. His wheel struck a telephone pole, and the boy was cut behind the ear and over one eye. In a dazed condition he walked down to Frank Busch's store forgetting his bicycle and asked for some screws, having an order from the mill. His behavior was strange and he remarked that he had been held up, but that the highwaymen did not get his watch.

The boy was placed in the care of the company's physician and taken home, he will probably be all right in a few days.

Boys Brigade Break Camp.

Company A, First Regiment, Sunnyside boys' brigade, under command of Captain H. C. Krum, broke camp at Wilcox grove Sunday afternoon, folded their tents and rolled up their blankets, and left for Portland on the 3:35 car. The boys marched from Portland to the grove on Friday and camped there during their stay in this city.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25c box won the day for me by affecting a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones drug store.

Compang G. In Parade.

Company G, Oregon National Guard, went to Portland Tuesday night and in command of Captain Loomis, marched in the Rose Festival Parade. The entire regiment was in line and the Oregon City contingent made a fine showing.

Mrs. William Schwabauer, be with her husband who has work in Mrs. William Schwabauer, of Glad that locality. She leaves seven children, three boys, Aleck, John and Wil at a late hour Sunday night at Macksburg. She went there just lately to Ameliam and Emma.

Canemah Park Opens.

Canemah Park was formally opened Saturday, and during the afternoon and evening many people indulged in dancing at the pavilion. The Park has for several years been a rendezvous of pleasure seekers on Saturdays and Sundays and this season will be no exception.
