old, standard bred, for sale reasonable.

C. F. Frey, Milwaukee.

R. F. Johnson, the restaurant man, has moved into his new quarters.

Will Lang of Portland, who formerly lived here, was a visitor in Milwaukee, Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Simmonds went to Clackamas Monday.

A. T. Elmer is building a new barn on his home place.

Mrs. A. H. Dowling presented her husband with a fine, nine one-half pound baby girl last Wednesday, June

3. Both mother and baby are getting along fine.

The Milwaukee Band is preparing for a big concert June 27. A full musical program will be rendered and a good time is promised to all.

Jake Stuke, one of the Southern Pacific section men met with quite a serious accident Monday. When the freight came along he did not step away very far from the track and a loose door of a box car struck him on the head. He was getting along as well as could be expected.

C. F. Witte is employing a force of men to get Crystal Lake Park ready for the opening day. Mr. Witte has one of the finest amusement propositions in this part of the country. He has 150,000 trout, several hundred gold fish and bass in his ponds. The fishing rules that are in force make fishing in this place great sport and are at the same time so humane that not even the most tender hearted woman could find any real grounds for complaint. The new pavilion is being planned and every convenience for visitors is being provided. This little park ought to be a great help to Milwaukee and we all ought to help boost it.

The cement foundation for the new annex to the school house is almost completed.

Mayor Shindler began the construction of his new home last Tuesday.

This will be a five room strictly modern bungalow.

The services for the coming week

went dry.

Mrs. Chapman, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard, has returned home.

Mrs. Roy Pollock, from Eastern

Oregon, is here on an extended visit.

Mrs. Lena Battin has safely recovered from an attack of mumps.

Mrs. I. L. Clarke has gone up to Clarks to visit with her son Will,

and his family.

A game of baseball was played between the Harmony baseball team and Damascus last Sunday afternoon. The score stood in favor of Damascus.

Mrs. John Davis is on the sick list but we are all glad to hear that she is improving.

There will be a social given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wise by the Young People's Society next Friday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Mrs. Walger, of Hood River, is here visiting with her sister, Mrs. John

Davis.

GLADSTONE.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen,

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Roberts, of Portland, visited Mrs. P. G. Wells and

Mr. Thomas Gault Monday.

Mr. Richard Warren is making extensive improvements to the interior of his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewthwaite and daughter are guests of Mrs. McAlpin

this week.

The baseball field at Gladstone Park is being improved. It will be in better condition this year than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry and family are visiting Professor and Mrs. L. A.

Reed.

There will be services next Sunday morning, afternoon and evening, at Gladstone Park, Mr. Berry in charge.

There will be a basket dinner. Every one is requested to bring their lunch and spend the day.

Mr. E. P. Carter is painting his house.

Mrs. Ida E. Reeve of St. Paul, Minnesota, who has been visiting on the Pacific Coast this winter, is a guest of Mrs. C. A. Warren.

OVERTAXED.

Hundreds of Oregon City Readers

Know What It Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed;

Have too much to do.

They tell about it in many aches and pains—

Backache, slouchache, headache,

Early symptoms of kidney ills.

Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

G. H. Springmeyer, expressman, of 1016 First St., Portland, Ore., says:

"Exposure to rough weather and the jarring of my wagon brought on kidney troubles. My back ached almost constantly and the action of the kidneys seemed weak and the passages of the secretions too frequent. Doan's

Kidney Pills came to my notice and I got a box and began using them at once. The pain in my back was soon relieved and the kidney secretions became normal. Two boxes of Doan's

Kidney Pills brought about this result." (From statement made Feb. 23, 1903.)

Cured to Stay Cured.

On January 12, 1906, Mr. Spring-meyer confirmed the above statement and added: "Since the time referred to in my former testimony, I have not had to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to many people and am always glad to do so."

ESTACADA.

A sister of Mrs. Kimmel arrived at Estacada Saturday night.

L. J. Palmateer had his foot hurt a few days ago. He is getting along all right.

F. M. Gill and Geo. E. Dale worked several days last week for the Gill Bros. in Multnomah county on their large truck farm.

Election day was very quiet here, and 228 votes were cast out of 249 registered and 24 sworn in. Prohibition carried by 27 votes in Estacada and Gill had two more votes than women in that precinct and 64 more at Eagle Creek, defeating women by a majority of 67 in the district. Boswell had 62 votes so that Gill had a majority over all, of five votes. W. A. Jones was not opposed and received a large vote for constable.

The Estacada school closed Friday. Josie Caranau and Bert Page were graduated from the 8th grade. Several completed the ninth grade successfully. S. J. Flint was principal. Miss Eva D. Pruner had the intermediate department and Miss Stevens the primary.

Miss Anna Harkenrider and August Paulsen, son of Hon. Hans Paulsen were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, F. J. Harkenrider. Miss Helen Berry arrived at Estacada from Chicago Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. George Dale.

Fred Yohann, a prosperous farmer of Macksburg, was united in holy wedlock at 12:30 Tuesday noon to Miss Martha Sagner, daughter of Mrs. Sagner, of Estacada. The bridal party formed at the bride's home and walked to the Odd Fellows Hall—a distance of one half block. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by a fine graphophone as the couple marched up the aisle to the platform, which was beautifully decorated. Rev. G. Hafner, pastor of the German Reformed church, of Portland, united the couple under a snow white wedding bell with the usual ring service spoken in German. A double quartet sang two German wedding songs. The bridal party was led by two small boys and two little girls all dressed in white and carrying baskets of flowers. Three sisters of the bride, Misses Gertrude, Agnes and Meta acted as bridesmaids. William Yohann, brother of the groom, and Adolph Sagner were the witnesses. The bride looked beautiful in her white silk gown trimmed with hand embroidery and dainty flowers. Her dark tresses were crowned by a white veil and orange blossoms, and she carried a large bouquet of roses. The groom wore a dark blue suit.

After the ceremony the family and friends enjoyed a dinner served in true German style. Mr. and Mrs. Yohann will make their home in Macksburg after a short visit in Portland.

The services at the Methodist church for next Sunday are: Sunday School 10 A. M.; Preaching by Rev. Kerr, acting District Superintendent, and the Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, 11 A. M.; Junior League 2:00 P. M.; Epworth League 7:30 P. M. The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Reed on Friday of this week and on Friday evening there will be the regular monthly business meeting and social of the Epworth League.

Dr. S. W. Striker of Portland, was a visitor at the home of Mr. Estes Sunday.

Mr. E. F. Surfus has gone to Redding, Cal., on a short business trip. Miss Mary Womer and Miss Gertrude Morrow were visitors in Portland last week.

The little town of Estacada was somewhat upset Tuesday, at high noon, by the sound of the fire bell. The town was alive in a minute and many of the fire boys felt like hanging some one when they found that it was only an attempted joke on the wedding party then assembling.

A great deal of inconvenience is given the people on the south side of the river by the closing of the bridge to team travel.

A celebration that will do honor to the founders of our country will take place in Estacada on July 4th. The volunteer fire boys are gradually arranging for the big time, and it is going to be the grandest affair since the last celebration.

Chas. Bronson and family have moved to St. John.

Mrs. R. C. Herring and daughter, Wavo, have gone to Hood River, and will remain during the berry picking season.

There are but two saloons in Estacada now. The license of three of the old places expired on May 31st, and since a tidal wave of cold water rolled over the town it is useless to ask for a renewal. On the first of July when the new law will go into effect, Messrs. Stuben and Close will be compelled to close their places of business, and then the pretty little suburban city on the banks of the classic Clackamas, will be dry—and prosaic?

The righteous wrath of the business men and residents of Estacada was aroused Tuesday by the inhumane treatment shown by C. H. Foster toward his step-son Ed Slesowski. About three years ago, Foster married a widow, Mrs. Slesowski, who had three small boys. Ed now 13 years old, Sam now 10 years old and Alfred now 7 years old. Two years ago the couple moved to Estacada from St. John. At that time the oldest boy was in the boys' and girls' aid. Lately the boy returned home only to lead a dog's life with his brothers.

When they first came here they rented Mr. G. F. Warner's property, but Mr. Warner says he was compelled to eject them on account of the actions of Foster, himself. Tuesday the second boy notified a neighbor that his step-father was going to take his brother to Portland and place him on some ocean vessel. The neighbor immediately reported the matter and the authorities stopped Foster and the children as he was boarding the car
