and were beaten by the "Farmer Boys" by a score of 9 to 12. Perhaps a "professional" team had better come and play these "Farmer Boys," a game and see which will be the winners.

Next Sunday the Eagle Creek team intends to go to Sea Side to play a game of ball.

Roy Cooper, of Barton, was visiting with friends on the hill Sunday.

DOVER.

Three days of sunshine and already some are kicking "Too hot," they say. Is it because they are natural born kickers, or it is because they are true web-footers, and can't stand much sun? Who will answer?

TACKLESON TO STAND TRIAL IN NOVEMBER

Former Canby Saloon Is Again Indicted By the District Attorney.

District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges surprised H. K. Tackleson Tuesday by returning a new indictment against him, and Tackleson was arrested without warning on a bench warrant and his bail was fixed at $600, which is double the amount of his bond under the former indictment, which charged him with selling beer to minors at Canby. The new charge is for selling whiskey and is connected more directly with the Kinzel case. Tackleson will be tried at the November term of the Circuit Court. Ben Bermosher, Peter Holberg and James Jesse were indicted last Fall, the first two pleading guilty and escaping with light fines, while Jesse fought the issue and was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine and serve a term in jail. Upon petition of nearly all of the residents of Canby, including two ministers who had been prominent in the effort to suppress the liquor traffic at Canby, Jesse was finally paroled by Judge McBride, in order that he might support his family. Tackleson was given a trial, but the jury failed to reach an agreement, and it was supposed that he would consent to plead guilty, but he evidently changed his mind, if he ever had any such intention. Should Tackleson be convicted upon a second trial he will not get off with light punishment.

Licenses to marry have been granted to Laura Miller and Henry J. Stiekney, Anna L. Shubert and Arthur L. Kuehl, and Nellie F. Flynn and George A. Killian.
