

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

The Molalla Light and Power Co. has filed its articles of incorporation under the names of John B. Hurst, W. S. Hurst and Fred P. Hurst. The capital stock is to be $10,000. Their principal office will be in Canby. They will flume water from the Molalla for irrigation, household, fire and power purposes. The company also expects to generate electricity for Canby and the surrounding country. The plant will be situated one-half mile east of the town and the company will employ a force of men at once to install the machinery, etc.

W. H. Bair is tearing down his old warehouse in preparation for the new building. The new warehouse is to be 50x100, two stories high, with a seven foot concrete basement. It will be built on the refrigerator plan having two 6-inch air spaces and being lined with two thicknesses of frost proof, tar paper. This will make the whole building completely frost proof. Mr. Bair expects to have everything in shape for the fall crop. As soon as the Molalla Light & Power Co. is ready to furnish the juice, he will install a motor and a new feed chopper and mill.

Remember the development League meets Wednesday, June 25, and it is your duty to be present.

The committee on grounds for the County Fair is waiting for the lease before they can begin to make things hum on the fair grounds. Judge Ryan, who is to draw up the lease is waiting for a description. Everything will be moving in a few days.

At the school meeting held in Canby last Monday night, H. J. Wang was re-elected as director for a term of three years. Wm. Knight was re-elected school clerk for a term of one year. Mr. Knight has full confidence of the people and has held this office almost continuously since 1870. The only times that he has not served as clerk were the four years when he was sheriff of Clackamas County, two terms, when he filled the office of school director and two additional years.

Mr. Pfeister, of Seattle, agent for Walkin's Stock Food and Medicine, has rented the new house owned by Mr. Zeek.

Mrs. Cassy Evans, of Portland, visited her father, William Cantwell and relatives this week.

Adam Knight is building a new house on the old home place.

Canby came home from St. Paul last Sunday with the laurels of the day. The score stood Canby 9, St. Paul 5. How's that for a game on St. Paul's home ground?

Canby's second baseball team beat Macksburg by a score of 6 to 1.

Next Sunday Canby will play the Union Meat Company. The game will be called at 2 P. M.

The young people of Canby gave a party at Knight's Hall last Thursday. Dancing and games were indulged in.

Mrs. A. Martin returned Saturday evening from a visit with her son, J. S. Martin. She brought her grandson, Tom, with her.

Ida Krueger went to Portland last Saturday for a short visit.

Mr. Smith, of Harrisburg, is visiting friends here.

Mr. Porter's team ran away Wednesday morning, turned four sharp corners at breakneck speed and then slowed down of its own accord. No damage was done.

Mrs. H. Falkner and daughter, Violet, are visiting Mrs. E. Saltmarsh.

A. M. Condit had the misfortune to severely lacerate both hands in the gearing of his logging camp the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wingfield came in from the mountains Wednesday to do some trading.

Real estate has been moving this week. Mr. Rones sold his home place of 70 acres to M. Haines. The consideration was $110 per acre.

Mr. Rones purchased ten acres of unimproved land east of town from Mr. Calfatz and expects to improve it and build a home.

Cantwell & Co. sold two of J. S. Dick's lots to Miss Lottie Swanson. M. E. Church—Sunday school, 10 A. M. Preaching, 11 A. M. Children's class, 3 P. M. Epworth League, 7 P. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening. Ladies' Aid meets every Wednesday, usually at the parsonage.

CENTRAL POINT.

Mike Stauber and Robert Montgomery, of Hog Hollow, drove over to Redland, and purchased a very fine cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Redmond, and Henry Meyers and Miss Wilcox, of Lents, were guests of Mrs. E. A. Scheer Sunday.

The school meeting at Brown's school house Monday night passed off smoothly, nearly all going home pleased over the results. Robert Brown, was re-elected clerk and August Stabley re-elected director. A move has been made toward building an addition to the present school room which is very much needed.

Mrs. Eastman visited Mrs. E. A. Scheer, of Pleasant Flat, Sunday.

Mrs. Lottie Penman last Sunday visited Mrs. Nina Alger, who has just returned from Cascade Locks.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheer and daughter Alta, accompanied by Mrs. Lottie Penman, drove over to Henry Scheer's Saturday night to a surprise party, the occasion being Mrs. Clara Scheer's birthday. About 25 of her friends were present. Music and games were the feature of the evening, when at a late hour, a delicious oyster supper was given by the hostess, after which strawberries, cream and cake were passed to the guests of which they did their ample best. All report a very good time and left wishing their host many happy returns.

Don't forget Children's Day at Central Point, June 28, in the evening.

NEW ERA.

On Saturday morning, as Ora Slyter and his father were going out to hoe their potatoes, they came upon a large cougar lying in the lane apparently asleep. When within about 60 yards the animal noticed their approach and in a few bounds he scaled the barb-wire fence and into the brush.

On Monday night Carl Burgoyne and Frank Wirfs reported hearing the screams of the animal in the nearby woods, and on Tuesday morning Messrs. Smith, Mitts and Fish, of Needy, came down with five hounds, but on account of the dryness of the earth it was impossible to start anything.

Mrs. D. McArthur will accompany Miss Clara Walker as far as Shoshone, Idaho, on her trip back to her old home in Michigan. Mrs. McArthur will spend the summer with her son Robert and family.

The dance Saturday night was well attended and a very enjoyable time is credited to it.

Harry B. Armstrong, of Portland, was a guest at the Veteto home last Thursday and Friday.

Miss Carrie Burgoyne left Sunday to work in her brother Herman's confectionery store in Portland.

Robert and Grover Clements and party, of Oak Grove, were up fishing Sunday.

A surprise party was given Mr. Ferguson Monday night in honor of his 59th birthday. It is needless to say that everybody present was royally entertained as the doctor knows so well how to attend to those things.

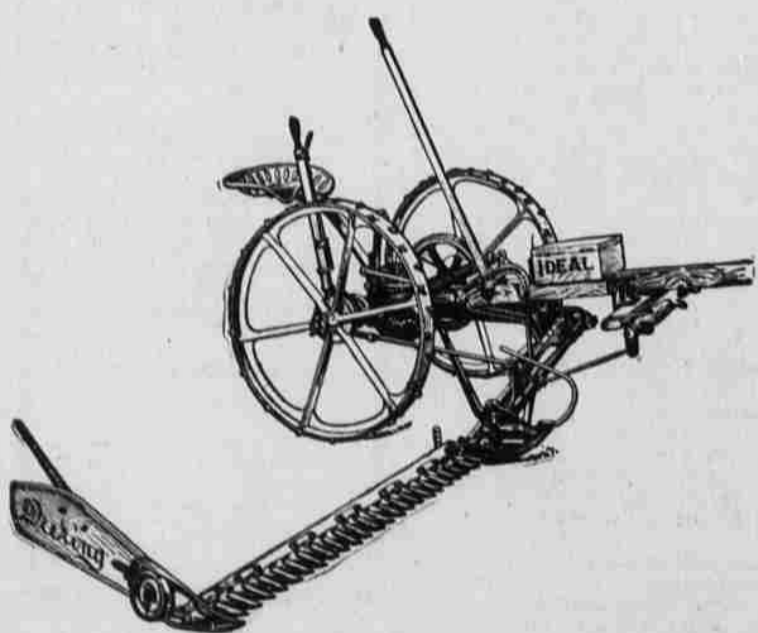

Edgar Judy, Delle and Roxie Veteto, of Barlow, were visiting in New Era Sunday.

Children's Day at the Grange Hall was observed Saturday and all present had a splendid time.

Wallace Porter took a picture of the Grange Hall and the people who celebrated Children's Day Saturday.

Mrs. Churchill, and daughter, Miss Vesta, and Lewis Churchill were visiting at J. J. Mallatt's Sunday.

Everyone who attended the social hop at the Grange Hall report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mallatt spent Sunday at Mr. Davis's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Evans called on Mrs. Orem's.

Mrs. Ed. Trullinger, of Eagle Creek, is making a visit to friends and relatives here. She is accompanied by her son Millard and daughter, Corrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manning were callers at Mr. Crook's.

Miss Nada Lee returned to town Sunday.

Miss Minnie Trullinger is visiting at the home of Mr. D. Skeen.

A band of bunch grass horses passed through here, en route for Silverton. Horses are getting rather plentiful around here now.

SHUBEL.

Frank Grossmiller came near losing one of his fingers one day last week while adjusting a belt on David Moehnk's shingle mill. As it is, he is laid up for a few weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Staub, of Portland, are visiting with Jacob Grossmiller's for a short time.

Lydia Hornshuh has returned home, after visiting relatives in Portland a few weeks.

The Beeson Hill road has been put in shape to receive the rock.

The young people of the neighborhood gave Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ginter a surprise party last Thursday night. It certainly was a complete surprise as the innocent and vacant look on Mr. and Mrs. Ginter's countenances plainly indicated. Everyone had a pleasant time.

The picnic given by the Lutheran church last Saturday was a complete success in every way. A good program was rendered by the members and a good game of baseball was played between Canby first (chiefly), and Shubel first, resulting in a victory for Canby, 8 to 6.

The Shubel first nine played the Liberal team on the home diamond this afternoon and defeated the visiting team 25 to 7. While the visiting team was no match for the home team, they showed themselves a courteous lot of young fellows.

Jim Fryear and family, of Canby, visited with relatives here a few days during the past week.

At the annual school meeting, Jack Grossmiller was re-elected director, and David Moehnk, clerk.

George Kirbyson and Harry Kirbyson are home from the logging camps until after the 4th.

Rev. Emil Hornshuh, of Portland, is out home on a short visit.

HAWLEY IS ENJOINED.

Crown-Columbia Company Stops Work on New Paper Mill.

The Hawley Pulp & Paper Company has been enjoined from proceeding with the construction of its main machine room building below the Falls and north of the Basin on the east side of the Willamette River. Judge McBride has granted a temporary injunction, based on a suit instituted by the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, which holds possession of premises below the Basin under a lease from the Portland General Electric Company. It is stated in the complaint that a condition of the lease that 40 feet of land north of the Crown-Columbia Company's pulp mill, 20 feet west and four feet south shall be kept open and unobstructed for the convenience of the mill property and other adjacent real property and that a wagon road shall be kept open from the mill to the county road. It is charged that the Hawley Company is preparing to erect concrete walls and permanent buildings across the whole north 40 feet and west 20 feet, and that the concrete walls will destroy the use of the land and the Crown Columbia Company will suffer great damage.

Motion to dissolve the injunction will be argued Friday afternoon before Judge McBride at Astoria.

Grays Will Play Wabash.

The Oregon City Grays have arranged a game on the Canemah Park grounds next Sunday with the Wabash team of Portland. Neither team has suffered a defeat this season, and the line up of the Grays will be effectively strengthened by the addition of several men who have been playing with the Papermakers of the Tri-City league. Robinson or Hurd, who has been in the box for the University of Oregon team, will pitch, and the make up of the team follows:

Shaw, catcher; Roberts, shortstop; Hill, first base; Telford, second base; Kruger, third base; McFarland, right field; Douthit, center field; Long, left field.

East Portland Beaten.

Oregon City carried off the baseball honors Sunday in her game with the Triple T's of East Portland.

The lineup was:

Oregon City	East Portland
Shaw	Brook
Robinson	Huriburt
Craig	Kennedy
Telford	Barrel
Duval	2b. Sigbee
Locke	Myers
Long	Maness
Douthit	Tanscher
Hamilton	Lerch

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Oregon City	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	1	1	1
Hits	1	3	0	0	1	1	1	1	1	1
Hits	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Oregon City's basemen did some fine work. Long made a very difficult catch in the left field. The Oregon City Grays, who disbanded last week, have decided to reorganize.
