NEW ERA.

Considerable hay was damaged by the recent rains, but the farmers are going at their hay with renewed vigor.

Mr. McArthur is sojourning at Nye Beach this week with the rest of the old soldiers.

Mrs. George Bowman, of Portland, is visiting friends here.

We presume you have taken notice how much shorter the days are growing.

Hans Mader is the possessor of a Spanish Mauser rifle, and in experimenting with its penetrating power, finds it will carry up and shoot through a 3 foot log at 300 yards distance.

Supervisor Stachely is raising and remodeling the Briggs bridge which was built about six feet too low.

Robert Kyle lost part of one of his fingers by a mole gun, one day last week.

Mr. Chartes, of Portland, ticket in spector for the S. P. and Rae Newbury were out fishing Sunday.

Antone Sevcik, of Portland, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Aug. Bremer, Sr., and Mrs. William Fasel, of Portland, were the guests of August Bremer, Jr., and family Sunday.

The cougar scare has about died out. Mrs. Mabel Truesdale, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony last week, returning home on Friday.

CENTRAL POINT.

Everything in our little burg seems to be refreshed after the beautiful rains, of last week. Sure no one needs to complain not enough rain.

Miss Pearl Chinn, who has been attending school at Oregon City, has returned home for the summer.

Mr. Combs, the life insurance agent, of San Francisco, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eastman and sons Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Shaner, of Chehalis, is home for a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stauber.

Mr. Allen, of Rock Point Avenue, lost a very valuable horse the fore part of the week.

The Misses Bertha and Veda Rider, of Oregon City, visited Mrs. Lottie Penman Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Rider's little baby boy, aged 20 months, was bit quite badly by a horse, but by careful attention the little one is resting easy at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers, of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. Pickel, of Portland, visited Mrs. Gilbert Randall Sunday. Mrs. Pickel is a sister of Mrs. Randall.

Miss Tona Golbricht and brother Ernest visited Mrs. Gilbert Randall Sunday.

Hobart Eastman and Miss Edna Critzer took in the dance at Beaver Creek, Friday night and report a very nice time.

Mrs. August Stahley was Portland visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Eastman, and son Harry and Mrs. E. A. Scheer, were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Don't forget the Children's Day at Central Point the evening of June 28. It will cost you nothing to get in, and nothing to get out, but any way don't forget your pocket book for fear.

We understand that Jude Kellan, of Milk Creek, has sold his farm there, and has purchased one of Mr. Gresshafer.

Mrs. Kellan was one of Central Point's popular young ladies and we are all glad to welcome them back to our midst.

MULINO.

In spite of the rain, several families went to attend the band picnic at Liberal.

H. Turner took a trip to Dix's Mill the middle of the week.

J. J. Mallatt expects to attend the G. A. R. reunion at Newport.

L. Evans went to Mr. Anderson's Saturday to get strawberries.

Mrs. Nelson and daughter were out from Oregon City visiting at the home of H. W. Shaw. Mrs. Shaw, who has poor health, has gone to Oregon City for a while.

There will be a grand celebration at Liberal on July 4. Everybody must go and get a good drink from Wright's Springs.

If this weather continues, lots of hay will soon be down.

MEADOWBROOK.

A number of Meadowbrookites were seen at Liberal Saturday. A large crowd was out, considering the inclemency of the weather.

All three of the eighth grade applicants, Franklin Cooper, Miss Pauline Haafstetter and Miss Myrtle Larkin, who took the examination, passed, the averages being 93, 88 and 86, respectively.

Ben Holman, of Portland, was out to view his old ranch at Meadowbrook Sunday.

Ralph Holman and wife called on Mr. Cooper and family Sunday.

J. A. Cox, of Canby, died at 4:45 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home in Canby. He was past 80 years of age.

Mr. Cox crossed the plains from Virginia in 1848, locating in California, where he mined for six years, and then went to Warren, in Northern Idaho, where he spent several years in mining and then came to Oregon, where he settled on Butte Creek near Molalla, where he was married shortly after to Miss Mary Hall at Woodburn.

They lived there until 1888, when he purchased a farm at Canby, where the family has since resided. Mr. Cox was a veteran of the Indian wars, serving in Oregon, California and Idaho.

Thirteen children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cox, and ten survive, with the widow, as follows: David, of Pueblo, Colo.; Samuel E., of Oswego; Bessie and Lucy, of Seattle, Wash.; Al C., of Oregon City; Ralph, Chester, Victor and Dewey, of Canby. The funeral was held yesterday at Canby and the interment was at Woodburn.

STAFFORD.

All last week heavenly tears fell, just enough to wet the clover ready for the mower, and gentle winds made beautiful curves and curls in the rank and uncut grass, but all day Sunday the bright sun shone clear and warm upon garden and field giving promise of clear weather in the days to come.

Will Schatz, our genial road boss went last week up to the hot springs in hopes of getting relief from rheumatism, which afflicted him more or less for some time.

Rose and Susie Schatz are going to Newport for a few days outing this week.

The wet weather again affected Mr. Crocker, who is stopping at Gage's and he had to lay off a number of days to nurse up his aches and pains. He returned a few weeks ago from the hot springs near Tacoma, where he went in May on account of rheumatism.

Mr. Powell's sisters are out from Portland to visit this week. She and family are late from Dakota, and she cannot say too much of the flowers and fruit in this country.

Mrs. Charlie Tiedeman's sister is visiting here this week. She and family are late from Dakota, and she cannot say too much of the flowers and fruit in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Brink are going to Newport Tuesday to attend the soldiers' reunion. He lost his leg in the war of the rebellion when 25 years old, and his reminiscences of the old war times are very interesting.

Miss Ruby Thompson and Henry Koelermeyer were married last Wednesday at the home of the bride, and early in the evening a crowd of boys numbering about 30 appeared, shot off a gun or two, and their little donation from the room and departed. Why don't you get your pictures taken boys, with the money, and put it in the paper, and keep your heads clear.

The school meeting passed off quietly enough, but it was decided to have a special meeting in four weeks to canvass the question of putting in high school grades.

Mr. Wagner, an old resident of Willsonville, died at the old home and was buried in the family lot at Stafford cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Thus are we again reminded that the young may die, but the old must.

Mr. Weddle has sent Archie, his oldest boy, to relatives near Jefferson in the hopes it may benefit his health, as he is afflicted with a cough and grows poor in flesh.

GLADSTONE.

Sidney Johnson, Charles Selver and Julie Cross have returned from Eugene for their summer vacation.

Miss Hazel Tooez returned from Mouthmouth where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by her sister Hilda, who is attending the Normal.

The First Baptist church of Portland, was well represented at their picnic at Goldstone Park last Saturday.

Miss Freeda is a guest at the home of H. E. Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Wells, Mr. C. A. Williams and Mrs. J. J. Tingle left Tuesday for Newport to attend the G. A. R. convention.

Mrs. C. A. Nash and Miss Mary Bandstrom visited in Gladstone Sunday.

Misses Iva and Pearl Harrington leave Monday for Nome, Alaska, via Seattle.

Mrs. Bowers is tearing down the building on her property in Gladstone, and will erect a strictly modern bungalow.

W. A. Cross left for Tillamook upon a short business trip. Mrs. Cross is visiting her sister in Oregon City during his absence.

Several people united with the Christian church by baptism Sunday.

Miss Anna Smith left Wednesday for Eugene to attend the State Teachers' Association.

Prof. Vedder and family will occupy the Thompson house. He has been elected principal of the Gladstone school.

Archie Cummins had an accident last week. He wanted to catch their horse and he came up from behind and put his hand on his hips and the horse kicked him right in the head and cracked the bones and broke his nose.

R. Robinson went to Portland last Sunday to visit his brother, Frank Robinson.

Elmer came home from college last week.

The German M. E. church had their Children's Day picnic last Sunday.

Will Leache's little girl has been quite sick. Dr. Dedman was in attendance.

Mrs. Freeda and Miss Freeda Gahlyere Canby visitors Friday.

A few of our people attended the picnic at Liberal Saturday.

Royal at Perry Berry, of Ashland, Oregon, are visiting their uncle, J. D. Ritter.

Ogleby Brothers and Jack Kerr and family visited at Dave Voder's Sunday.

George Askins, Jr., is doing some carpenter work for M. G. Smith.

Henry Zimmerman, of Marks Prairie, visited relatives here Sunday.

Marcus Smith and family spent Sunday at William Thompson's.

Frank Fish and wife, were guests of their daughter, Nora Thompson, on the 21st.

We are sorry to learn that Grove McGonegal's are thinking of leaving our neighborhood.

The friends of Miss Nellie Armstrong, a former teacher, will be sorry to hear she is very ill with pneumonia at her home in Portland.

Ted Walter was among us Sunday.

Here is a clipping from the second issue with a score of 23 to 4, Sunday afternoon.

Our road boss continues busy improving our highways.

The farmers will be blessed with another bountiful crop in Clackamas County and western Oregon this year, though this is no new thing for the great Willamette Valley country.

Here is a clipping from The Bloomington Advocate, a Franklin County paper, of Nebraska, of the 12th inst.

"The hail storm last Tuesday, June 9, over south of the river, covered several square miles, probably doing the most damage at Tom Youcum's. All kinds of grain and garden truck was pounded into the earth and the ground was covered several inches deep with hail. At one man's house it pounded holes through the shingles."

Here is a clipping of what one man saw of cyclones at Riverton in Franklin County, Nebraska:

"Mr. Sheppardson knew there were several distinct cyclones in Riverton last Friday for he saw them as he struck his head out of the cyclone cellar."

The school election went off quietly.

For director J. G. Mumpower was the lucky fellow; for clerk, J. J. Hutton. A tax of $400 was levied to have eight months school, and ordered the board to enlarge the school house. Stone is to be front of school privileges, as well as in most other good enterprises.

One of our old hayseeds has been raising the crop off of his house, this wet spell.

The Damascus people are trying to build roads this wet spell. They come down to Stone for material to build a solid road and bridge into Clear Creek to get gravel to put on their mud roads. This looks considerable like foolishness to see Stone furnishing road material when the material is so near the road that is made.

The Clear Creek company's butter maker comes to the front with 23,000 pounds of butter for May. The price of butter fat is 24 1/2 cents per pound. Over $5000 of butter product out of this creamery in one month.

Elder G. P. Rich will preach at the Baptist church house at Upper Logan, June 28, at 11 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.

Thinks It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would no more be without a bottle than I would be without food."

For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones drug store. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sterling McCord have moved to Portland to reside, where they can be near their son, Melvin. They have scores of old friends in the Mount Pleasant section, who are sorry to see them go. Mr. McCord purchased a portion of the old White claim 41 years ago and has lived there ever since.
