

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

While endeavoring to stop three runaway horses hitched to a harrow, Mrs. Ed Kinsel had the misfortune to break her collar bone and wrench her shoulder. She also received several other injuries of a less serious nature. The accident occurred last Friday. Mrs. Kinsel is very cheerful and is slowly improving.

One of the Italians working in the Stepland wood camp fell from a log Saturday and broke his collar bone.

The sixth W. C. T. U. silver medal contest which was held this week was a success, even in the face of the rowdiness of some of the younger generation. Mabel Chase was awarded the medal for her rendition of the piece entitled, "How a Little Girl Emptied the Jug." There will be a gold medal contest in the near future. All of those who hold silver medals will be allowed to compete.

There will be no services in the Methodist church, with the exception of Sunday school, during the session of Camp-meeting. Sunday school however, will be held as usual.

L. A. Bair had the misfortune to lose a fine driving horse last Tuesday noon. The beast was suddenly seized with colic. The Canby Band will give an open concert on the first and third Thursday nights of each month in the City Hall.

Gertrude and Amelia Geisy, of Aurora, were visitors in Canby Friday.

Canby lost to the O. P. & N. Co. of Portland last Sunday by a score of 3 to 2. The second team beat the North Portlanders in a hard fought game by a score of 4 to 3.

John Redman is now furnishing water for Andrew Kocher, George Penman and Harry Bair from the tank on his place.

George Kesslering and John Graham are inclosing Henry Knight's water tower. The baseball team has had a number of uniforms. Now they will win every game they play, sure pop.

Capt. James Evans was taken suddenly ill last Monday, while residing in a lock on his door. He is on the road to recovery.

Fred Wilcox is visiting F. H. Hampton. Canby is patiently waiting for the lease to the Fair grounds so she can put up the fence.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mizz are on their way to Minneapolis, Minn., to visit Mrs. Mizz's relatives.

David Cox is visiting here from Pueblo, Colorado.

Bain H. White, who had the misfortune to break his leg in the logging camp, is at home navigating on crutches.

Jackson Knotts, who has been ill since the first of February, was in town this week for the first time in many months.

Grand Master, E. E. Kilder, and Grand Secretary, James F. Robinson, were in Canby Wednesday evening to institute Canby lodge, No. 134, A. F. & A. M. They installed the following officers: C. L. Bates, Worshipful Master; Chas. Ken-knight, senior warden; M. C. Faber, junior warden; L. H. Wang, treasurer; L. D. Walker, secretary; J. D. Craig, senior deacon; J. F. Deal, and E. F. Veto, stewards. A number of fellow Masons from Oregon City and Aurora assisted. A banquet was served at the home of C. L. Bates.

The Methodist Camp-meeting opened Wednesday. Many of those who are expected, will not reach the grounds until after the Fourth. Among the old timers who have already arrived are Mr. and Mrs. Woods, of Corvallis; Lee Robinson, of Shedd; and Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Jones, of Brownsville. Evangelist C. N. Van Mester and wife, will have charge of the meetings. This camp ground has had its regular camp meetings since 1872. The land, consisting of 40 acres, was given for this purpose by Ben Holliday.

NEXT COMES CHAUTAUQUA.

thrusts at the Court and Jury ever written.
This Opera will be the main part of the concert on Wednesday evening, July 3, at the Chautauqua. Mr. W. H. Varney, of Portland, will sing the Judge; Edna E. Browning, the plaintiff; Mr. E. E. Garlich, the defendant; Mr. W. A. Ross, the Counsel; Mr. C. A. Miller, the Usher; and Mr. V. Harris, the Foreman of the Jury. The brides maids and the chorus are taken by Oregon City singers. The opera will be well costumed and given with appropriate stage action. Every soloist is working out like an old professional. (In fact Mr. Varney and Mr. Garlich are old opera singers) and the chorus is splendid. This only demonstrates what amateur singers can do when trained by a master who knows how to get the best out of people in the shortest time possible. It is marvelous what Dr. Heritage can do with a lot of amateur singers who never appeared in opera before. This is Oregon City's night and it is expected that the people will turn out en masse to hear how well home singers can be made to do.

Rose of Savoy.
This is a little one act Operette translated from the French. It is bright, musical and catchy. The situations are well worked out and the entire piece is very satisfactory to a musical audience.

The plot is laid in a dressmaking parlor in Milan, Italy. The modistes are discovered busily at work on a costume for one of the Prima Donnas of the "La Scala" Theatre. After the busy chatter of the girls the proprietress sings them a ghost story. The strange flower girls then comes and tells of her native home in old Savoy. At last the Prima Donna comes for her costume and sings an operatic aria for the dress makers. She meets the Flower Girl and discovers that they are long separated sisters. After a hasty review of their past lives and the old home in old Savoy, they sing a duet in which they pledge themselves for life, witnessed by the astonished modistes. Time, 40 minutes. This will be the "Curtain raiser" at the Operette concert at the Chautauqua, Wednesday evening, July 8th. Miss Edna E. Browning, of Enterprise, Oregon, will sing the part of the Prima Donna; Miss Ruth Field, of Salem, Oregon, will sing the part of the Flower Girl; and Miss Eleanor Colony, of York, Nebraska, will sing the part of the head Modiste. The chorus is sung by young ladies of Oregon City.

SOCIETY

Miss Marjorie Caulfield entertained the Gypsies and other guests Thursday evening. Five hundred was the amusement, with flags and forts accompanying, and the prizes went to Mrs. Wisner, Mrs. Newton and Miss Pope. Luncheon was served.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Wednesday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Exon. Their daughter, Jennie, was the bride, and George Andrew Kitamiller, both of Dover. The bride was becomingly dressed in white Swiss and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, and wore a wreath of the same in her hair. Rev. Exon, the bride's father, performed the ceremony, after which a beautiful luncheon was served. Only near relatives were present. They were Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Exon, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kitamiller, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Eilers and daughter, Maxie; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Woods, son, Roy and daughter Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Perry E. Kitamiller, and Walter Kitamiller; Mr. and Mrs. Kitamiller will reside in Dover. They have the best wishes of the entire neighborhood. Many valuable presents were presented to the young people.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, June 17th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Martin, of 488 E. Sixth St., Portland. Their sister, Miss Lillian F. Gans was united in marriage to Bayne A. Howard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Mulhgan, uncle of the groom. After congratulations, light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Howard left for a short sojourn at The Dalles. Mrs. Howard is a well-known school teacher of Clackamas county. Mr. Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Howard, well-known residents of Mulino.

Williamette Rebekah Lodge held an enjoyable meeting Friday evening. The members acted as royal entertainers. What was the evening's amusement and the prizes were won by Mrs. Harry M. Shaw, Miss Eva Koulter, and J. E. Jack. A beautiful lunch was served.

The marriage of Miss Etta Idella Young, who has relatives and many friends in Oregon City, to Mr. Dale F. Young, of Sellwood, was solemnized at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, at University Park, where the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Young reside. Rev. Arthur B. Waltz was the officiating clergyman and there were a large number of guests present to witness the impressive ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated in pink and white, and the bride was handsomely gowned in white net over silk, while Miss Gracie Maude Marshall, the maid of honor, and Miss Rual Shearer, the bridesmaid, wore pink silk. Little Marshall Meyers, of Athena, was the ring bearer, and wearing a natty white suit, he made a pretty picture, carrying the ring in a calla lily. P. H. Batton, of Portland, was best man, and the ushers were Roy Burnett, Harry Reed, of Portland, William E. Marshall, of Russellville, and Walter Wentworth, of Oregon City.

Mrs. Frank Horseman played Mendelssohn's wedding march and just before the ceremony Mrs. Viola Holland sang "O Promise Me."

The ceremony was followed by a large reception at the home of the bride's parents, and the happy pair received the congratulations of their friends. The parlor was decorated in pink and white, and the dining room in red and white, with green. Miss Genevieve Johnson caught the bride's bouquet. Refreshments were served to the bridal party and guests and amid a shower of rice Mr. and Mrs. Young departed for their future home in Sellwood.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Wallace to Fred Kennedy was solemnized at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Fannie Kennedy. Rev. R. C. Blackwell, and the guests included the members of the families of the bride and groom and a few friends. A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony and the happy pair received the congratulations of their friends. Many handsome gifts were presented. Miss Kennedy, who will make their home on Fourth and High streets.

The marriage of Miss Ella D. Kellogg, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kellogg, and Mr. George H. Frost, of Lewiston, Idaho, which took place Wednesday afternoon, June 24, at the suburban home of the bride's parents at Creswell, Oregon City, was a very pretty affair. The bride was gowned in white and the groom in a dark suit. The bride's maid, Miss A. T. Kellogg, and Geo. E. Kellogg, ushers, Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of Highland Congregational Church, officiated. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Pearl H. Jackson, of Portland, presided at the piano and played the wedding march, and the bride and groom, during the ceremony. The bride was gowned in white satin and lace, carrying a large bouquet of white carnations. The large house was literally banked with roses, marguerites, sweet peas, ferns and vines. The ceremony was performed within a bower of white roses, ferns and Marguerites. After congratulations, followed by refreshments, beautifully served in the dining room, the bride and bridegroom took their leave amid a shower of rice. They are visiting on their future home, visiting en route the South cities and Walla Walla. Among the many gifts were some very elaborate and beautiful, some coming from several out side states. The guests at the wedding included: Miss Emma E. Simpson, Mrs. Arthur Kraft, Miss Marguerite Swain, Miss Letta Minkler, Mrs. J. D. Jackson, of Portland; Mrs. Wm. M. Powell, of Baker City; Miss J. D. Gullik, of Spokane; Mrs. Geo. Walte, of Newberg; E. D. James, D. A. James, E. S. Kellogg, D. W. James, of Oregon City; R. K. Powell, of Portland.

Company G, Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, are making arrangements for their grand ball, which will take place in the Armory next Saturday night. The affair will be a military ball, and the members of the company will be in uniform. There will be no day celebration at Oregon City and it is expected that a large crowd of people will attend the ball, as Company G always makes its social affairs enjoyable.

Miss Sallie Sullivan, who has just been graduated from the musical department of Mount Angel Academy and College, made her debut in piano recital at Mel-Loughlin Hall, Wednesday evening, and was cordially received by a large number of people, who were eager to hear the young pianist, whose work is decidedly brilliant. Her programme required strength and endurance as well as technique. The Schubert-Liszt "Erl King" struck a popular chord, and Miss Sullivan's best numbers were the Chopin "Military Polonaise," and the Liszt "Rhapsodie No. 12." Miss Audrey Davis, a Salem student of the Mount Angel Academy and College, sang several numbers, and was encored. She has a pleasing voice and manner, and her renditions were delightful.

The golden wedding anniversary of Captain and Mrs. J. M. Graham was celebrated Wednesday at their home in this city, and the day was happily spent, the well known couple receiving the congratulations from many of their friends. Captain and Mrs. Graham were married at Mel-Loughlin Hall, Wednesday, 50 years ago Wednesday, and have resided in Oregon City for the last 25 years. Captain Graham and his sons have for years conducted the Oregon City Transportation Company. Their children yesterday presented the captain with a gold seal ring and Mrs. Graham with a ring of pearls and amethysts. A beautiful dinner was served and those who spent the day at the home were Mr. and Mrs. Newton Graham, Mrs. A. W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Morrill, Mildred Graham, Catharine Graham, Dorothy Morrill, of Portland, and Mrs. William Anderson and Miss Julia Haskell, of Oregon City.
