Sue Canby Bank.
The Norris Safe & Lock Company has filed a suit against the Canby Bank & Trust Company for $300 damages, stating that the Canby institution refuses to deliver possession of two safes, owned by the Norris Company, and valued at $650.

TEAZEL CREEK.

The glorious Fourth is over and everybody is getting ready to make hay while the sun shines. Francis Quinn, who lately came in from Idaho, is preparing to cut and take care of the hay on the Kaylor place. Campmeeting will begin July 9 at Glad Tidings' camp ground. All are invited to attend. The little daughter of Francis Quinn had the misfortune to step on a nail while playing, making an ugly wound which makes the little one quite lame. Frank Melton and wife are stopping again with his parents for a while. They are talking of a trip across the Cascades to Eastern Oregon in the near future. Several Teazel Creekers spent the Fourth at Wilhoit Springs, preferring soda water to so much bad whisky. Mr. Burgreen is going to have a part of his place summer fallowed. Francis Quinn will do the work.

RUSSELVILLE.

Most every body here went to Wright's Springs to celebrate. Hay harvest begins this week and the crops are very good. The strawberry crop is excellent and will be at its best this week.

Quite a number of sheep and goats have been killed lately by coyotes. Mr. Tires is building a new barn. His son Roscoe is with him now. The camping out season is at hand, and Wilhoit Soda Spring is the best place for coolness, quietness, rest and health. Quite a few campers are here now. Mrs. M. J. Trullinger started for Iowa last week. Tom Husband, of Hood River, spent his 4th here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Johnson are home from a trip to Hood River. The county surveyor and road viewers were here week before last trying to locate some new roads on better grades than the old ones. We hope for good results. If a five-mill special tax was a good thing this year why won't an eight-mill special road tax be a better thing next year?
