FIREMEN'S BARBECUE.

Day is Marred by an Accident to Peter Younger.

The volunteer firemen held their annual banquet Sunday at Gus Schnoor's Grove on the Tualatin, and the day was on the whole enjoyable, though slightly marred by an accident that befell Peter Younger. In the morning informal speeches were made by Mr. Schnoor, Charles W. Pope, William R. Logus, A. Knapp, Sam Stow and others, and races and sports were indulged in until a late hour in the afternoon. The big barbecue was the finest ever, and the firemen appreciated the feed thoroughly. The day closed with a dance in Canemah Park pavillon. Peter Younger, a well known member of the department, joined in the sports and was making a jump, swinging from rings. He landed on one side of his foot, and his leg doubled up and the bone snapped, resulting in a compound fracture below the knee. He was brought to Oregon City by Chris Hartmann and the fracture reduced. The accident is a serious one, and Younger will be confined to his home for some time. The list of prizes follows: 125 yard dash—Schoenborn, first; C. Orem, second; William Peters, third. 100 yard dash—C. Orem, first; Schoenborn, second; Beaulieu, third. 50 yard dash—Hendrickson, first; Jefferson, second; C. Bullard, third. Makes Galvanized Iron Boat. David Norris, janitor of the First National Bank, has constructed a gasoline canoe that he expects to launch in a few days. The material of the craft is galvanized iron, and by means of air chambers Norris has made the boat non-sinkable. He will later install an engine. The Remedy that Does. "Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson of Auburn Center, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at Howell & Jones drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
