

Milwaukee and Vicinity

MILWAUKEE.

Our Milwaukee carried off the first prize for the best exhibit of cut flowers at the Chautauqua on Saturday.

Mr. B. Buck and wife have returned home after an extended trip in the east.

Mrs. J. G. Simmonds sold her lot in Milwaukee Heights to Miss Cornelia McCown of Selwood.

Mrs. G. Hatchan, who has been ill from a sun stroke which overcame her last Tuesday, is about again.

Mr. J. Miller and wife have rented the house keeping rooms owned by Mrs. Sullivan. Mr. Miller is a motorman on the Selwood car line.

The Woodmen and Ladies of Woodcraft held a public installation last Wednesday night. The following officers were installed: Mrs. R. Gibson, grand neighbor; Mrs. Mary Arnold, advisor; Mrs. Addie Matthews, past grand neighbor; Anna Mullen, past grand neighbor; Mrs. E. Mullen, captain of the guards; Mrs. Lu Albee, musician; Mrs. Lena Kellar, attendant; Carrie Mullen, clerk; Mrs. Emma Hicks, banker; A. C. Arnold and A. A. Webster, inner and outer guards. Ice cream and cake were enjoyed after the ceremony.

Last Friday night some one stole the horse, harness and saddle belonging to the matron of the Open Air Sanatorium. Detectives were put to work on the case, but so far no trace has been found of the missing articles.

Ray Stryker and wife are visiting at the home of Mrs. Pearl Wisliger. Mr. Stryker is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Wisliger. M. A. Lehman and wife are visiting at the Lehman home. Last Sunday Mrs. Lehman, Sr., had all of her children about her at their family reunion. This is the first time that they have all been together for fifteen years.

A camp meeting of the Evangelical church will be held at Jennings Lodge beginning July 23. This will also include mass meetings of the Sunday School Convention, the Young People's Alliance and the Key Stone Endeavor. The meeting will last for ten days. There will be about fifty ministers present.

The services at the Evangelical Church for next Sunday are as follows: Preaching 10 A. M.; Sunday School, 11 A. M.; Young People's Alliance, 7 P. M.; Preaching at 8 P. M.; Rev. Noah Bishop, pastor. Everyone is cordially invited.

Rev. Shupp is overseeing the shipping of about 200 pounds of Royal Ann cherries to Chicago. This is being done as an experiment and if it is a success this year a company of Milwaukee men will ship no less than a car load of our fine cherries next season. The first installment of this year's experiment was billed to reach its destination last Monday morning.

The Dennis & Davis Shingle Co. sold plant and business to the Rose City Lumber & Shingle Co. This is a large lumber company that has branch offices in Texas, Louisiana and Oregon. The mill will be under the supervision of G. W. Akers, who will probably build somewhere in Milwaukee and move his family to this place. G. M. Standifer will have charge of the sales department. It is the intention of the new company to push the plant to its utmost capacity, taking into consideration the demand for their wares. They think they will like the work as they say that Milwaukee looks good to them. While we are sorry to lose the Dennis & Davis Shingle Co., we extend a hearty welcome to the Rose City Lumber & Shingle Co., and trust that their venture in our city will be mutually beneficial to both the company and the city. The ex-Dennis & Davis Shingle Co. will open offices in Portland.

Some miscreant, without the fear of God or man, broke into the stables of the Open Air Sanatorium some time during the night of last Friday, and stole a fine horse, a large bay animal of considerable value. Up to this writing the thief has not been apprehended.

Again the public schools of Milwaukee have made a record. This time in a floral display at Chautauqua, on Saturday of last week. They won first prize of ten dollars for the best display of flowers, both cultivated ones and those grown wild. At the same time and place, Little Ellen Jackson, also of Milwaukee schools, was awarded first prize of five dollars for the best display of sweet peas.

Will Edwards, of Milwaukee Heights, and family, together with friends, leave next Tuesday for Mount Hood. They expect to be gone ten days. They will climb the hoary sides of Hood to the peak, inscribing their names on the roll to let those who follow know of their daring.

A new rural route is soon to be established out of Milwaukee. The route will branch off at Harmony, supplying several families along the road towards the Moon and Wise Teachers' Club, of Milwaukee, had a picnic in the Chautauqua grounds, on Tuesday, at which time the Minthorn Flower Club gave a flower drill of more than ordinary merit, eliciting much applause from those who witnessed it.

We note many improvements going on in and about Milwaukee; new houses are to be seen in course of construction on every hand. This is particularly noticeable along towards that beautiful section lying between Milwaukee and Clackamas, known as Harmony.

Vegetation is lagging for want of rain. Garden "saws" in particular, is suffering for want of the fostering care of old Jupiter Pluvius, who seems bent on ignoring their cries for rain.

The Oregon City division of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, are replacing the old sixty-pound rails through Milwaukee Heights with ninety-pound steel, and otherwise improving the road-bed. A new station has been established in the cut between Milwaukee Heights station and Island near Thendara. Captain Shaw's residence.

Center station, a few stations south of the Heights, is becoming quite a business center. In a business block just finished, there is a well filled store, this being the second one; a butcher shop, barber shop and confectionery stand.

COUNTY COURT

Be it remembered, that at a regular session, held in the Court House in Oregon City, for the purpose of transacted business in July, the same being the time fixed by law for holding a regular term of said court, present Hon. Grant B. Dimick, County Judge, presiding; T. B. Killin and W. H. Mattoon, commissioners, when the following proceedings were had, to-wit:
