

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

Yesterday at high noon Miss Edna Kenknight was united in holy wedlock to William Lewis Buckner, of Canby. Only a few friends and the immediate relatives of the family witnessed the impressive service.

Miss Esther Knight is visiting in Canby from Seattle.

E. H. Cantoni, of Portland, was a Canby visitor Tuesday.

A horse, attached to a buggy, belonging to Mr. Parmenter, of Barlow, took fright and ran away through the streets of Canby Tuesday evening. The frightened animal stopped in front of Kocher's barn after it had made the rig look somewhat worse for wear.

The camp meeting of the Methodist church closed last Tuesday.

Mrs. Vesta Clark, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Beck, left the early part of the week for home, after an extended visit with friends.

Mrs. James Kueber, Zeck Smith and Wang attended the Chautauqua at Gladstone Thursday.

Canby did not mean to, but she let the Spantons have the honor of Sunday's game by a score of 6 to 10.

Next Sunday the Canby ball team is going to Seilo.

Miss Florence Stoddard has been offered the position as teacher in the Canby school.

Miss Hattie Hutchinson was a New Era visitor Sunday.

Joe Fletcher is nursing the mumps. Miss Egge, of Willamette, was in Canby Sunday. She was formerly a teacher in our school.

Howard Eccles was home over Sunday. Mr. Eccles is teaching at the Summer Normal in Oregon City.

The grading of the race track at the Fair grounds will begin on Monday, so say the authorities. The grade will compel a fill of from one inch to almost seven feet.

Chris Yost was mixed up in two run-ways within the last week. Last Saturday his team became frightened at an automobile near Barlow and dumped the wagon into the ditch almost killing one horse. On Monday as he was driving to Canby, the bridge hit broke, the team got from under his control and was stopped at Wehner's farm. Mr. Yost saved himself by jumping.

There are four cases of diphtheria in James Jesse's household. Everyone is getting one nicely.

Word has been received that Mrs. Dosea Watkins died at Dayton, July 5. She leaves a husband and four children. Mrs. Watkins formerly lived in Canby.

Joseph Lee of Cottage Grove is visiting his sister Mrs. Sheppard. This is the first time Mr. Lee has been here for 18 years. He sees a great many improvements in the old town and is thinking of locating here.

Dr. Frank Walgamot, of Portland, was in Canby Sunday.

Henry Hougham visited his mother on the camp grounds Sunday.

Ole Gurly was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

George Ruseck, who lives on the Aurora road, lost a horse last Monday. The animal fell into an old well.

BARLOW.

Ferd, Otto and Leonard Rodby were visiting their parents Sunday.

The baby daughter of G. A. Simpkins, who just recovered from spinal meningitis is now ill with whooping cough.

Fred Rodby returned home Friday from Portland, where he spent the Fourth.

Mrs. Johnson is ill and is under the care of H. A. Dedman, M. D., of Canby. Many of the people here attended the Methodist camp meeting at Canby last week.

Mrs. O. W. Quint, Lillie Irvy and son Elmer went to New Era Wednesday to camp during the session of the Spiritu- alists camp-meeting there.

Leonard Parmenter, of Portland, is visit- ing his parents.

The Twentieth Century Grange held its regular meeting in Columbia Hall Saturday evening.

Cascawest, the well known remedy for babies and child- en, will quiet the little one in a short time. The ingredients are printed on the bottle. Contains no opi- ates. Sold by Howell & Jones.

CENTRAL POINT.

Several of our neighbors are preparing to cut wheat this week, which has ripened very fast the last few days.

Mrs. Rosa Beck, of Chehalis, Wash., is home on a visit. Mr. Stauber, She came home to consult Dr. Rockey, of Portland.

Mrs. Lottie Penman and Mrs. Nina Alger met with what might have been a serious accident while going to New Era dance Saturday evening. They were going up the New Era hill when confronted by an automobile on its way to Portland, when the horse became frightened, and tried to turn around, breaking the shafts. Mrs. Alger jumped out in time to see Mrs. Penman thrown to the ground and the buggy on top of her. The men in the automobile stopped their machine, and went quickly to the ladies aid, just in time to stop the horse from backing on Mrs. Penman under the buggy, which would have resulted in instant death. Thanks to the men for such level heads.

Mrs. Eastman, of Rock Point, was a Chautauqua visitor Friday and Saturday and reports a very nice time. Mrs. East- man heard the distinguished Dr. Ira Land- drith, of Tennessee, who gave a most en- tertaining address, his subject was "A Citizen Though a Christian," which was received with praise. Mrs. Eastman also heard John Sharp Williams, of Missis- sippi, the Democratic leader in the House of Representatives, and has come to the conclusion that she is a true born Demo- crat.

A beautiful little surprise was tendered Miss Alta Scheer on Thursday, July 9, the occasion being her birthday. When eighteen of her little friends stepped in to visit her. Delicious refreshments were served, candies and nuts, lemonade, ice cream and cake. Those present were: Miss Alta Scheer, Misses Essie and Ettabell Creitzer, Myrtle and Mable Penman, Clara Releford, Oneta and Mattie Heerd, Pearl Scheer, of Mt. Pleasant, Minnie Miller of St. Johns, Al- ber and Johnie Scheer of Mt. Pleasant, Ernest Penman, Henry Heerd, George Creitzer and Ezra Scheer of Portland, and Mrs. Minnie Scheer of Portland. Mrs. Henry Sturm and Mrs. Anna Heerd. Games and music was the feature of the day, which at a late hour they de- parted wishing their little host many happy returns of the day. She received many beautiful presents.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, July 8, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Breaker, of Central Point, when their daughter, Miss Ruth, was united in marriage to Walter Mead, of Central Point. Rev. A. May, of Salem performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives, and a few in- timate friends of the young couple. They wish them all the happiness and success that mortals may attain.

Are you coming to camp meeting Sun- day to hear some of the best lectures ever given on these grounds. Don't forget the dance Saturday night in the gym- nasium. The floor space has been en- larged and music will be furnished by a 5-piece orchestra. If you miss it you will be sorry.

SECOND WEEK OF CHAUTAUQUA.

on birds and their habits at 5 o'clock every afternoon in the auditorium. In the mornings he takes rambles through the parks and studies the birds that he sees and is glad to have lovers of the feathered ones accompany him.

Dr. Hoadley's class in English litera- ture studied "The Victorian Age" with interest Tuesday morning. Attention was directed to the conditions of intellectual, social, political and material life during the reign of Victoria. England has be- come a great modern Democracy and all this has made literature.

The "Foghorn" speaker, otherwise Dr. Edwin "Cyclone" Southern, was on the platform Tuesday night garbed in the fantastic costume of his Satanic Majesty. His topic was "If I were the Devil," and he told what he would do if he were that most abused gentleman. Dr. Southern is from the South and his lecture bore the stamp of originality and forcefulness.

W. G. Hale, of Portland, an attorney, a graduate of the Harvard law school, and president of the associate alumni of Pacific University, created no little stir Wed- nesday by declaring from the Chautauqua platform that the University of Oregon ought to be made an institution for gradu- ate work only. His plan was one for the small college, of which Oregon has many. He said that the State University should be thoroughly supported by the people of the State and that Oregon peo- ple should patronize Oregon institutions for their college work before going abroad for advanced study.

Pacific University Rally was very suc- cessful. Miss Frances Clapp rendered a piano number, "Widmung" (Schumann- Liszt), and Miss Wilhelmina Heide re- ceived from Tennyson's "Gynivers" Miss Leah Sussner sang "Go to Sleep My Baby" and "Burst Ye Apple Buds" and was heartily applauded.

The college mornings are an appreci- ative feature of Chautauqua and the next comes Friday at 11 o'clock with the State Agricultural Rally, President Kerr in charge.

Mrs. Fred Olson sang Tosti's "Good Bye" Wednesday afternoon and Dr. Ed- win "Cyclone" Southern gave his final lecture. His subject was "Mary Magda- lene," and he said when Jesus could say to an erring woman "Go, and sin no more," we in this present day and age can do no less. Dr. Southern was in- clined to be critical of womankind for their disposition to be uncharitable to- ward their unfortunate sisters.

The Graham Giants surprised the Chautauqua fans by winning from the Spantons with a score of 2 to 0. If Ore- gon City beats Gresham Friday the game from the Falls City will play the final game against Lebanon on Saturday after- noon.

The stereoscopic lecture Wednesday night by Dr. F. J. Van Horn, of Ply- mouth Church, Seattle, attracted a large crowd to the auditorium. The topic was "Roundabout in Old New England" or "Scaling the Heights" and was intensely interesting.
