

LOCAL BRIEFS

Miss Clara Fields has returned from her month's vacation in Portland and Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cartilage left Wednesday for a fortnight's sojourn on the Coast.

The members of the United Brethren Church held a picnic Tuesday at the grove in Ely.

Miss Leah Miller has accepted a position in the Clackamas County Abstract Company over the Oregon City Bank.

Elton Long, Will Rakel and Rhea Cole returned Saturday evening from their camping trip in the Stamokawa country.

The will of the late Susan Bond has been admitted to probate and William Bond was named as executor. The estate is valued at $800.

Marriage licenses were granted Monday to Martha Zeek and Thomas Barker, of Parkplace, and Rita R. Bowman and Willard Knight, of Canby.

Mrs. Rebekah Turney and Mrs. Ella Farmer, of the West Side, left Monday for a visit with Mrs. Mary Lavergne, daughter of Mrs. Turney.

Mrs. D. P. Thompson, who has been in Oregon City, the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Meldrum, has returned to her home in Portland.

Miss Geraldine McCown, of Sellwood, was in Oregon City Tuesday, visiting with friends. Miss McCown will soon leave for Moscow, Idaho, where she will enter the University.

J. G. Wood, who has been connected with the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, has purchased an interest in the Pioneer Transfer Company from George W. Bradley. This company was established in 1866 by Clark N. Greenman.

Michael Mulvey, who has been in Fairbanks, Alaska, for the last two years, returned Monday to spend the winter. Mrs. Mulvey has been staying with her people in Antelope during her husband's absence, but she will immediately rejoin him here.

Miss Ethel Albright is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Church, of Oak Grove. Mrs. Church and children will leave next week for Condon, Oregon, where she will join her husband, who has accepted a position with the Portland Flouring Mills at that place.

Harold Riggens, who arrived a few days ago from Washington, D. C., and has been a guest of his aunt, Mrs. W. R. Stafford, of Mount Pleasant, left Tuesday for Matchez, Wash., where he has accepted a position as mining engineer, and is employed by the government.

Mrs. C. O. T. Williams has returned from a three weeks' visit with her brother, William Warren, of Hood River. Mr. Warren has purchased land there and is going into the apple culture. The present indication points to a large harvest of the celebrated Hood River apples. Mr. Warren formerly resided in Oregon City. Another Clackamas County man who has gone to Hood River to make his home is Charles Albright, who is also engaged in fruit raising.

L. Schoenborn, accompanied by his brothers, Henry and Harry, who reside near Carus, were in Oregon City the latter part of the week. They have been spending a few days in the mountains picking huckleberries, and succeeded in bringing out the largest amount of berries so far this year. There are 45 gallons in all, and they expect to return to gather more. There are many more berries in the mountains this year than last year, and many people are taking their annual outing in this manner. Last year the crop was unusually short.

Dr. Clyde Mount, Dr. Louis Morris, and Harry Draper, who have been on a three weeks' hunting trip in the Blue mountains, returned to Oregon City Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Montague, of Arlington, Oregon, arrived in Oregon City Thursday evening, having been summoned here by the serious illness of the latter's father, Riley Moulton.

Rev. T. F. Bowen and W. B. Stafford returned Saturday from their trip to Mount Hood, and report a most enjoyable time. They say that there are many berries in the mountains at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding, Mrs. Edward E. Brodie, Lee, Nieta, Lloyd and Evelyn Harding returned Wednesday afternoon from Ocean View, where some of the party has been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cooke, John K. Morris and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Sol S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron and son Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Church, are home from a three weeks' outing at Mount Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Turney, who have been living in Oakland, California, for the past two years, have returned to Oregon. After visiting relatives here for a few days they left for Albany, where they have gone into business.

Carl Schram, who has been connected with the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company in this city for the past three years, went to Lebanon, Monday, where he has accepted a position with the Lebanon Paper Company.

Henry O'Malley, superintendent of the Bureau of Fisheries, and H. C. McAllister, state master fish warden, left last week for Ontario, Or., where they will visit the hatchery for a few days.

Miss Susie McGinnis, of Stockton, is visiting Mrs. E. T. Fields, and will leave for her home next Saturday by steamer accompanied by Mrs. Grafton Cheney of San Francisco. Mrs. Cheney has been visiting with relatives.

John Walling, a prominent hop grower of Lincoln, has been in Oregon City, where he is procuring pickers for this year's crop. Mr. Walling says that his hops are in good condition, but as the prices have fallen for hops, he will pay 80 cents per hundred, or 40 cents per box.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker, who formerly resided in Oregon City, before going to Baker City, have returned to Oregon City, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Walker's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Walker have just returned from a three months' visit to the state of Missouri, where they have been visiting with relatives.

Mrs. C. E. Becker, of Chicago, who arrived in Oregon City Thursday evening, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond at Gladstone, left Saturday morning for Eugene, where she will spend three weeks with her sister, Mrs. P. K. Hammond. Mrs. Becker has been visiting with friends in Seattle. On her return home she will go by the way of California.

Joseph V. Harless was in the city Tuesday from Molalla.

Dr. L. G. Ice leaves Saturday for a brief sojourn on Clatsop Beach.

E. E. Brodie has returned from his two weeks' outing at Ocean View.

L. L. Porter left Wednesday for Roseburg, where he went on business.

Miss Mamie Roake, of Clackamas, was in Oregon City on business last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Barlow have returned home from their outing at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Noble and family have moved to their new home at Gladstone.

A. P. Todd, a well known farmer of Hood View, was in the city on business Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Clarence Oakley have returned from a six weeks' visit with relatives in the East.

Miss Edith Jackson and her sister, Miss Leatha, left Saturday for a two weeks' outing at Seaside.

Mrs. Luella Marshall and two sons, Lon and Duke, of Portland, visited Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson and daughter, Miss Bertha, of Odis, Or., have been the guests of Mrs. Augusta Lutz.

Mrs. Ethel Caulfield Daly, of this city, has accepted a stenographic position with the Oregon Journal in Portland.

Miss Martha Frances Draper leaves next Saturday for a week's stay at the Pope-Griffith cottage at Tioga, on North Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Moulton, of McMinville, returned to their home Friday, after a short visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. A. M. White and son Walter left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit with friends at Brooks and Gervais, Marion County.

Emil Nelson, who recently arrived here from North Dakota, has opened a jewelry store in the Williams building on Seventh street.

A marriage license was granted to Susan Holzworth and L. J. James, on Friday. The parties were married the same day at Milwaukie.

Mrs. Richard Glasspool, of Portland, formerly of this city, has been visiting at the home of Captain and Mrs. John M. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tower and daughter, Miss Mabel, who have been at Mill City during the summer, have returned to Oregon City.

T. J. Gary and Thomas F. Ryan went to Canby Saturday morning, where they went on business connected with the coming county fair.

Miss Marjorie Caulfield, who has been spending a few days with friends in Salem, has returned to Oregon City, and on Saturday went to Newport.

Mrs. Nettie Miller, who has charge of the Palm Confectionery store, is suffering with a severe attack of appendicitis. Her condition is improving.

Miss Winnie Roake, formerly of this place, has accepted the position as teacher in the Marquam school, the term commencing the first of September.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Watts, of Stone, which died at the family home on Friday, was buried in the cemetery on Saturday at that place.

Dr. Clyde Mount, Dr. Louis Morris, and Harry Draper, who have been on a three weeks' hunting trip in the Blue mountains, returned to Oregon City Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Montague, of Arlington, Oregon, arrived in Oregon City Thursday evening, having been summoned here by the serious illness of the latter's father, Riley Moulton.

Rev. T. F. Bowen and W. B. Stafford returned Saturday from their trip to Mount Hood, and report a most enjoyable time. They say that there are many berries in the mountains at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding, Mrs. Edward E. Brodie, Lee, Nieta, Lloyd and Evelyn Harding returned Wednesday afternoon from Ocean View, where some of the party has been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cooke, John K. Morris and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Sol S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron and son Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Church, are home from a three weeks' outing at Mount Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Turney, who have been living in Oakland, California, for the past two years, have returned to Oregon. After visiting relatives here for a few days they left for Albany, where they have gone into business.

Carl Schram, who has been connected with the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company in this city for the past three years, went to Lebanon, Monday, where he has accepted a position with the Lebanon Paper Company.

Henry O'Malley, superintendent of the Bureau of Fisheries, and H. C. McAllister, state master fish warden, left last week for Ontario, Or., where they will visit the hatchery for a few days.

Miss Susie McGinnis, of Stockton, is visiting Mrs. E. T. Fields, and will leave for her home next Saturday by steamer accompanied by Mrs. Grafton Cheney of San Francisco. Mrs. Cheney has been visiting with relatives.

John Walling, a prominent hop grower of Lincoln, has been in Oregon City, where he is procuring pickers for this year's crop. Mr. Walling says that his hops are in good condition, but as the prices have fallen for hops, he will pay 80 cents per hundred, or 40 cents per box.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker, who formerly resided in Oregon City, before going to Baker City, have returned to Oregon City, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Walker's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Walker have just returned from a three months' visit to the state of Missouri, where they have been visiting with relatives.

Mrs. C. E. Becker, of Chicago, who arrived in Oregon City Thursday evening, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond at Gladstone, left Saturday morning for Eugene, where she will spend three weeks with her sister, Mrs. P. K. Hammond. Mrs. Becker has been visiting with friends in Seattle. On her return home she will go by the way of California.

In the Days of Old

Letter writing was a luxury indulged in only by the wealthy and the learned.

Today everyone may obtain, and at a reasonable price, a writing paper far more beautiful than the crude hand-made product of yesterdays.

But to be sure that you are getting the paper of the highest quality, the most pleasing writing surface, and the most correct sizes and tints, but an Eaton, Crane & Pike Paper. We have them as follows:

- Swiss Linen 25c box
- Mouline 35c box
- French Percale 50c box

HUNTLEY BROS. CO.
The Rexall Druggists
OREGON CITY OREGON

Sheriff Beattie spent Saturday at his farm near Beaver Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn are rusticated at Long Beach, Wash.

Ellen Zeta Read, of Portland, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Wilson.

Mrs. Kathryn Ward Pope is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. B. Hamlin, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp, and son John, Jr., are spending a few weeks at Seaside.

Miss Marjorie Caulfield left on Saturday for a week's outing with friends at Newport.

Carl Ganong left Saturday evening for Stanford University, where he will resume his studies.

R. Moulton, who resides on Eleventh and John Adams streets, is improving after his serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooke and daughter, Miss Maude, left last week for Newport for a two weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burns and son are enjoying an outing at Mount Hood, expecting to be gone about ten days.

Duane Ely spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ely, at Seaside, returning on the evening train.

Mrs. Belle Sleight, deputy county clerk, and daughter, Anna Lou, have returned from their two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. V. Harris and two children returned Saturday evening from a month's visit with Mrs. Harris' father Seaside.

Mrs. Charles C. Babcock, who has been seriously ill at her home on Twelfth and Washington streets, is improving.

William Fletcher left Sunday morning for Tillamook, Oregon, where he will spend his two weeks' vacation with his sister.

Charles C. Babcock has returned from his trip from Coos Bay, where he was on business connected with the hatcheries.

Miss Grayce Marshall, W. R. Wentworth and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marshall formed a party that spent Sunday at Seaside.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Watts died at the family home Friday, and the interment took place in the cemetery near Stone.

Miss Beryl Long and Miss Ada Frost, who have been spending the past week at Newberg with friends, returned to Oregon City Monday.

Alice and Morris Holman returned to their home in Oregon City Saturday after a month's visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Holman.

Mrs. Maggie Hanlon and two children, who have been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. S. M. Harris, of this city, returned to their home at Pendleton last week.

Mrs. S. M. Harris left Saturday for Marquam where she will visit relatives. She will also visit her mother, Mary Jackson, of Aurora, before returning home.

George Swafford, who has been connected with the Jones Drug Company, has accepted a position at Condon, Or., and left for that place the latter part of last week.

A. J. Lewthwaite, of Portland, manager of the Crown-Columbia Pup & Paper Company of this city, and at Camas, Wash., was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

D. W. Adams has moved his family to this city from Eugene, and will make their home here. They have taken the Eaton residence on Twelfth and John Adams streets.

Misses Jessie Paddock and Clara Bucherger returned from their two weeks' vacation at Aschoff's on Saturday evening, and have resumed their positions in the court house.

Evan Williams has returned from his three weeks' visit at Seaside. Mrs. Williams and children, who have been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ely, returned also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. For Crissinger left Sunday for Malvern, Ohio, where they will spend several months with the former's parents. This is the first visit in 13 years that Mr. Crissinger has made to his old home.

Mrs. William Nefzger returned to Oregon City Wednesday evening from Camas, Wash., where she has been spending some time. Mr. Nefzger is connected with the paper mills of that place.

SEPT. 14-19 EXCURSION TRAINS AND SPECIAL RATES TO Salem - Ore. SEPT. 14-19 Salem - Ore.

Oregon State Fair and Exposition

CHILDREN FREE Monday, 14

CHILDREN FREE Saturday, 19

FOR 1908

Reserved Boxes Can Be Had in Advance for the Races : : : : :
Greatest Exhibit at any Coast Fair
New buildings all completed.
Walks and grounds the finest
Free camping for thousands
Agricultural College to hold meetings.

Reserved Boxes Can Be Had in Advance for the Races : : : : :
Races six days; commencing Monday
Free evening entertainments
McElroy's Band and Orchestra
Prominent men will Speak
Fancy stock show daily

Complete Program for Six Days--Two Great Shows Day and Night--Something Doing Every Hour

The Largest and Best Pacific Coast Fair

A Week of Profit for You
Enjoyment for the Family
Summer School for All

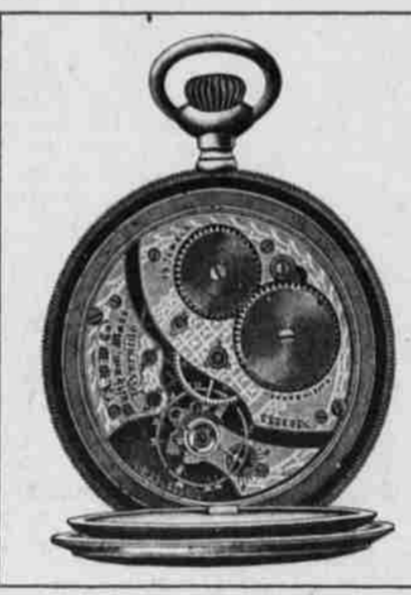

Low Rates Salem, Oregon Sept. 14-19

Low Rates Salem, Oregon Sept. 14-19

COME

Watches Without End!

If you wish to pick from the whole world of worthy watches you can do so here. Our 500 cases in stock, also all the best movements made including the WALTHAM, ELGIN, HOWARD and HAMILTON. Our large buying and close selling puts us beyond all competition and gives you the best watch values that can be found anywhere.

A 7-jeweled Waltham or Elgin watch in Solid Nickel Case, one that will stand the knocks, guaranteed,

$6.00

A Waltham or Elgin in good Gold Filled 16 or 18 size guaranteed to wear and keep time for twenty years,

$15.00

A Fine High-grade Hamilton, Howard, Waltham or Elgin movement in best Boss Filled Case, Railroad Time-keeper, $30.00 and upwards.

An Elegant Ladies Watch, Gold Filled and Solid Gold, Waltham or Elgin movement,

$15.00 to $35.00

These keep just as good time and cost no more on our easy payment plan than if you paid the cash down in a lump. Come in and see us about them.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN
OREGON CITY JEWELERS
Suspension Bridge Corner

WHEN WE LOAD OUR WAGON

the next time we would like to include a sack of "SEELEYS BEST" flour for you. We know if we once sell you a sack that after that we will sell you

ALL YOUR FLOUR

Make your first order consist of the articles you know most about, both as to quality and prices, then the advantage and economy of buying your groceries here will be all the more apparent to you.

SEELEY'S
The People's Store,
OREGON CITY, OR.

there, and all cottages are occupied. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is especially recommended for children. It tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by Jones Drug Co. Mrs. George Boylan, of Cathlamet, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Green. Mr. and Mrs. Boylan will probably move back to Oregon this fall.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt