

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

William Cantwell and daughter, Mrs. Cassie Evans, went to Oregon City on business Wednesday.

Mabel Lowrie, of Canby, who has been visiting her step-sister, Mrs. Fred Ferguson, of Portland, returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grove arrived Sunday morning from Moscow, Idaho, and are the guests of Mrs. George Penman, of Canby. Mr. Grove and Mr. Penman left Wednesday evening for Nevada, going to the mines. Mrs. Grove will remain in Canby during her husband's absence with Mrs. Penman. They will join their husbands early next Summer.

Word was received here Saturday of the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kaldesech, of Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Kaldesech is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Lucke, of this place.

Misses Ethel and Myrtle Zinsel, of Portland, spent Sunday in Canby, the guests of Miss Ora Lee. Miss Lee, who is stenographer for the Tufts real estate company, of Portland, has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lee, returned to Portland Sunday evening to resume her position, and accompanied the Misses Zinsel.

The daughter of John Daly is making a visit with her father here, and upon her return to her home in California, she will be accompanied by Mr. Daly, who will remain in California for some time. Mr. Daly has disposed of his property interests near Macksburg.

Miss Tena Bernoer, of Portland, has returned to Portland after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bernoer.

Miss Stella Bratten, of Portland, visited Miss Ora Lee Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson and children Rena, Allen and Myrtle Hutchinson, went to Portland Monday. Mrs. Hutchinson went to the metropolis to select her fall line of goods, and expects to have her display of goods in the near future. They also spent an enjoyable afternoon in the city park.

E. P. Rands, of Oregon City, was in Canby Wednesday, where he went to survey a piece of property for the Adkins Lumber Company. As Mr. Rands was alighting from the train as it rolled into the depot at this place, he was confronted by one of the best premo, who asked him if he had a No. 3 film, thinking that Mr. Rands was a photographer, supplied with all the necessities of the camera fiend, but Mr. Rands blushing told her that he had left them at home, as the transit was all that he cared to carry about seven miles. The woman disappeared around the corner upon discovering the mistake. It is presumed that Mr. Rands will bring with him on his next visit to this place a camera, with extra films.

Mrs. R. S. Coe, who accompanied her daughter-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Coe, and children to Portland, a week ago, returned to her home in this city Monday evening. Mrs. Coe visited with friends at Leuts on Sunday before returning to this city.

William Cantwell and daughter, Mrs. Cassie Evans, of this place, went to Oregon City on Wednesday, where they went on a business trip. They returned home the same evening.

The Willamette Fruit Company started up their fruit dryer near Pruned Thursday morning, and will dry prunes.

The baseball game between the Woodburn and Canby teams on the Woodburn field was one of the best played games this season. The game was well attended by an enthusiastic crowd. The score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Canby boys. Sherman and Lindsey, of Woodburn, and Baty and Knight, of Canby, did excellent work during the game. There will not be any game on Sunday, but it is probable that these teams will put up a game during the county fair. The Canby team can boast of having some of the best players of any ball team in the county.

Miss Lillian Wang, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wang, returned to Portland Tuesday, where she will resume her position. She was accompanied to Portland by her sister, Florence, who will take up a course of studies at the High School at that place.

Miss Della Zimmerman, of Portland, arrived in Canby Sunday, and is spending the week as the guest of Miss Grace Patch.

Miss Ada Miller, of Oregon City, was a business visitor in this city Wednesday.

The M. E. Conference was held at the M. E. Church on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, and the attendance was large. The meeting was in charge of Rev. B. F. Rowland, of Salem, District. The topic of his sermon was "The Lord Reigneth," or "The Divine Government," and was appreciated by his listeners. Rev. Weber has been working faithfully for the past year, and his work has been rewarded. Rev. Weber will attend the Oregon Conference, which convenes at Salem, September 23, and where it will be decided upon his next parish. Mr. Weber will be accompanied by Mrs. Weber and children. The committee to serve for the coming year were appointed at the meeting on Monday evening.

Miss Hattie Hutchinson, Miss Marie Digerress and Mrs. Digerress have gone to Gerasis where they expect to remain for several weeks picking hops.

On Sunday evening the last of the series of six mission sermons will be given by Rev. Weber. These illustrated lectures have been very instructive to the young as well as the old, and have been well attended by large congregations. The subject for Rev. Weber's Sunday evening sermon will be "At the Gates of With- in," or "The Work of the Home Missionary Society Among Foreign Emigrants." The sermon will be beautifully illustrated by appropriate views. All are invited to attend these services. The regular morning service and Sunday school will be held.

Wilson Evans has commenced the construction of a modern cottage on his property near the M. E. church. The building will be up to date, with all of the modern improvements. There will be five rooms with bath, and the veranda will extend along the front of the building. Mr. Evans will push the work of construction along, and expects to move in about a month.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kocher in Portland last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kocher's sister, Mrs. Allie Phelps. Mr. and Mrs. Kocher were quietly married in Canby last Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vorpahl. Only relatives of the bride and groom were present at the reception. A wedding supper was served by Mrs. Phelps. Mr. and Mrs. Kocher have returned to Canby, where they will make their future home, the groom being associated with his father, A. Kocher, in the hardware and implement business.

The handsome residence constructed by Eckerson & Grasier for Lee Eckerson, has been completed, and Mr. Eckerson will move his family into it this week. The structure is of two stories, with living room, dining room, den, kitchen, pantry, and on the second floor are the four sleeping apartments, bath and clothes closets.

Lawrence Bair has just added a new coat of paint to his cottage and makes it very attractive.

Mrs. Lee Eckerson and baby are visiting in Aurora, the guests of Mrs. Eckerson's parents.

During the past week several real estate deals have been closed in Canby, among them being the following: Mrs. Dora E. Collins has bought 40 acres of the Col. Bair's old place, and was purchased from J. C. Roth, consideration being $2800. Phil Tucker has bought 40 acres of land west of Aurora, consideration being $1800. Charles C. Edwards, son-in-law of J. H. Colby, from Grants Pass, has purchased the John Taylor place, the price being $2250. Mr. Tucker has moved to Canby, and is delighted with his new home. The Adkins Lumber Company is also making preparations to sell some of their property near Canby. The property around Canby is an ideal place for farming purposes, and also as a residence, as it is convenient to the town, and to the railroad.

A large shipment of cantaloupes was made from this place Wednesday afternoon to Portland. The melons of Canby always find a ready market. The pear crop of Canby is unusually large this year, and is of excellent quality. Many are selling the Bartlett pears at 25 cents per box to parties gathering the fruit themselves.

The mother of Mrs. William Cantwell, who made many friends here during her extensive visit, and who is at present visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Dan, of Gladstone, is lying seriously ill, having been afflicted with a stroke of paralysis. Her condition is serious as she is over 80 years of age. Mrs. Cantwell returned to Canby Tuesday, evening from Gladstone, where she was called by her mother's illness.

The city council met in the city hall on Tuesday evening, Monday evening was the regular night for meeting, but as that fell on Labor Day, it was decided to postpone the meeting until the following night. Much business was brought up for discussion. At the recent trial held in this city, in which William Cantwell, the real estate man brought suit against H. K. Tackelson for abusive language, C. Schuebel, of Oregon City, attorney for Mr. Cantwell, presented his bill for attorney's fees to the city council which was read by the city recorder, William Knight, but the bill was disallowed. The order for the witness and court fees in the case were read and laid on the table. A petition was presented to the city council by 50 property owners in regard to the extension of C street across the Southern Pacific railroad track.

A road will be established along the southeasterly side of the depot grounds, and the street superintendent, Adam Knight, was ordered to proceed with the work at once. It was ordered that side walks leading to the school house be repaired, and other walks in the city will be repaired immediately. Mr. Telford, of Oregon City, who owns about two acres, where the proposed extension of C street is to be established, will be communicated with by the city recorder in regard to having the road run through a portion of his property. It is probable that a special meeting of the council will be held in regard to the extension of C street. The street will be 80 feet wide.

Robert Allred, a sergeant in the U. S. army stationed at Fort Columbia and who has been on a month's furlough, visiting with his family near Macksburg, died suddenly Tuesday morning. Mr. Allred, who has been suffering with melancholia for several weeks has been taking morphine to produce sleep, and after his death, a large quantity of the drug was found in his pocket. Dr. Sommer, of Oregon City, and Dr. Giesy, of Aurora were summoned, and worked with him without avail, and death soon followed after taking the medicine. It is probable that Mr. Allred took an overdose, there being no cause for suicide. At the time of his death he was about 25 years of age and leaves a wife and a baby one month old. Mr. Allred would have received an honorable discharge from the regular army in about a month. The interment took place on Thursday.

Miss Nellie Nesbeth, of Portland, visited Mrs. Wink and family several days last week.

Mrs. Alice Pitts, of Milwaukie, is staying with her father, D. McArthur, while Mr. Pitts is spending his annual vacation at Tillamook, Marshfield and Astoria on the coast. Mr. Pitts is looking for a location to purchase a farm.

Charles Bradt went to Roseburg a few days ago and purchased a fine trotter. Now boys, if you can't beat P. O. Charley will kick dirt in your face.

William Dustin, William Newbury, Earl Wink and Joe Feaster are in the mountains living on venison, porter house steak and other delicacies this week.

Emery Noble, of Oregon City, was seen strolling northward Sunday on Railroad avenue.

Dr. Ferguson fears blood poison has set in on one of his hands.

Miss Josie Sevelik, of Portland, is visiting her brothers, Joe and Wesley, since Tuesday.

Some people call Dr. Sommer's auto a rumbler, but by the way it moves we would call it a tyabouter. Our next council will draft an ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles in the city to fifty miles an hour.

Mrs. M. F. More is on the sick list this week.

A mild type of scarlet fever has been going the rounds in our eastern suburbs. Mr. Chinn's whole family has had it.

Hop picking and hay baling are the main topics of Central Point.

Miss Myrtle Henderson, of Oregon City, is visiting Miss Clara Rutherford this week.

Alvin Alger is reported very ill at his home on Rock Point with typhoid fever.

Charles Rieder, of Hog Hollow, is improving slowly under the good nursing of Mrs. Rieder.

Mrs. E. A. Scheer visited the United Artisans of Oregon City, and heard the address given by Dr. Manion, of Portland, after which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Hr. and Mrs. Rettinger visited Mrs. Gelbricht Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jude Kella, of Mt. Pleasant, visited Mrs. E. A. Scheer Wednesday evening.

I see that ye scribble at Stafford would like to know where several of our nice little bargains are out in the country, but never mentions Central Point. Well Central Point is five miles due south of Oregon City in the summer and ten miles in winter, and just three quarters of a mile from New Era, and about three miles in winter. He boasts good roads. Well, we do not wish to dispute his word, as we are well aware that the money much needed at points between Oregon City and Central Point has been used at Stafford for the benefit of ye scribble.

Next morning after I had returned from a stroll about the premises and was seated on the cool porch reading Parker's Commentaries, an invalid's chair on which reclined an aged and feeble gentleman was wheeled from an inner room by the matron of the inn, a rather portly lady with hair streaked with gray, intelligent, and her every action bespoke refinement, to this cool, shady porch near where I was seated.

THE INDIAN GIRL CACOCOOKEE ALEEMOO OR SINGING BIRD OF MORNING

In traveling over the country a few summers ago, I found it convenient to halt at a wayside inn for refreshments and rest. The inn was of rather ancient model, yet neat in its every detail, and the table was abundantly supplied with the country's luxuries. Here I concluded to rest for a day and enjoy the novelty of a Sabbath among strangers. Next morning after I had returned from a stroll about the premises and was seated on the cool porch reading Parker's Commentaries, an invalid's chair on which reclined an aged and feeble gentleman was wheeled from an inner room by the matron of the inn, a rather portly lady with hair streaked with gray, intelligent, and her every action bespoke refinement, to this cool, shady porch near where I was seated. "Mr. Phillips this is my father, an immigrant of '46. He has heard of you," "Happy to meet you, Mr. Phillips," "Happy to meet an immigrant of '46."
