Miss Veda Williams, of Oregon City, instructor of the Haggerman Col lege, Lexington, Ky, who has been spending her summer vacation with relatives in Lenazzee, Mich., has returned to Lexington, where she will take up her duties for the second year at an advanced salary. Miss Williams for the past three weeks, has been traveling with the vocal instructor of the same college, these two young women having been appointed by the president of the institution to work up the musical course of the college, and they have visited many states during the past three weeks. This is an honor to Miss Williams, as last year was her first year as instructor there. She is meeting with great success in her profession.
