THIS IS YOUR FAIR! BE READY FOR THE EVENT

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

The work at the County Fair ground is being pushed rapidly along, and soon the big gates will be thrown open to the immense crowds that will come here to see what Clackamas County can do in the raising of vegetables, fruit, and a general exhibit of art work, machinery, cattle, poultry, etc. The first year of the Fair at Gladstone was a success, but the Association wants the second year to be even better. The windows in the main building are being replaced this week and if there are as many exhibits to be brought here as reported, it will be necessary for the Association to have the second story completed, and a stairway placed in. The poultry houses, under the supervision of R. S. Coe, have been finished, and other buildings to accommodate live stock will be completed by the latter part of the week. The grove, where campers can enjoy themselves, is being cleaned up. The race track will be rolled and dampened. The fence enclosing 30 acres of ground has been completed. There will be only one entrance gate, and this will be at the south end of the grounds. John Hurst was in the city on Wednesday in regard to installing electric lights in the building and on the grounds. He will proceed at once and have the lights in readiness for the opening day. Canby and vicinity was visited with a light frost on Tuesday night, which is an uncommon occurrence for this time of the year. The frosts caused the pumpkin, tomato, and potato vines to turn black, but the watermelons are too far advanced to have been injured. The vegetable yield has been unusually large this year. The fruit that is ripening on the trees was uninjured.

The potato market is moving freely in Canby now, and each week the commission merchants, W. H. Hair, W. S. Hurst and W. H. Lucko, are shipping out carloads of potatoes, which are bringing a price of from 70 to 90 cents per cwt. The potatoes are in excellent condition this year. Melons are also being shipped by these men.

The Canby melons have a reputation throughout the state, and there is always a ready demand in the market for the same. The soil of Canby is light and well adapted for the raising of watermelons and musk melons.

There have been several land deals during the past week in Canby and vicinity, and several other important transactions are expected to be closed in a few days. There is a demand for Canby property which is convenient to the boat and railroad, and an ideal place for a country home. John Wells of Mackburg, has leased the Keserling place on the Gibble Prairie for a term of three years.

Mrs. Kauffman has leased the farm of Dr. Gleay on Marks Prairie, formerly occupied by Mr. Berg.

Charles Brewer has sold his farm, he purchased from Charles Bates west of town, to J. C. Wilson, of Eugene. Mr. Wilson has taken possession, and Mr. Brewer will move to Canby.

Business is lively this week as the hay pickers have returned and the commencing of school. The dealers in school supplies have done a rushing business this week. Next week Canby will witness one of the liveliest times in its history, when large crowds are expected to arrive on the opening day of the County Fair, Thursday, October 1, to continue for three days. Many people, who are coming to spend the three days' session, are making arrangements for room and board.

B. F. Linn, of this place has gone to Salem, where he is working in a fruit drier.

Arthur Chase is visiting his parents in this city.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lee, a daughter, on Tuesday morning, September 22. Mother and child are doing well.

The report is current that a woolen mill will be built at Canby by an Eastern company. If such is the case, the manufacturing establishment will give employment to several hundred people, and will be one of the inducements for newcomers.

During the past few days many people have visited Canby with the view of a location. On Tuesday William Cantwell had inquiries from people from Vermont and Kentucky, who are here looking for a desirable location. They were all well pleased with the Canby country and are contemplating purchasing farms near the city. Within the past few months Canby has experienced one of the greatest building booms of its history, and many handsome residences are at present under construction. Others who have purchased property recently are contemplating building in the near future.

Tuesday of next week has been designated as "clean-up day" in Canby, and young and old will be out with rakes, hoes and wheelbarrows in preparation of beautifying the city before the opening of the Fair, which will attract crowds to Canby. Many people in Clackamas County have never visited this thriving little city, and it remains with the people to make it as attractive as possible to the visitors. Adam Knight, street commissioner, has given orders to have all the streets and alleys cleaned on that day.

Miss Anna Knight has returned from Aurora, where she has been visiting. Willie Walker was one of the Aurora visitors last week.

Seven to one was the score of the baseball game played by the picked-up team of Canby and the Woodburn team on the latter's diamond. The playing of Roy Knight, of this city, was one of the great features of the game. Had the Canby baseball team gone to Woodburn it is an assured fact that the Canby boys would have returned home with flying colors, but as it was only a picked-up team, the Woodburn boys made some showing. During the progress of the game the Woodburn boys lost sight of the ball at times. The game scheduled for Sunday between the Canby team and the Maroons of Portland, is looked forward to with much interest. The Portland boys will arrive on the morning train.

Mrs. A. B. Dedman, of this city, returned from Salem Sunday, where she spent a few days at the State Fair. Mrs. Dedman, who is an artist of much promise, has been awarded two prizes at the State Fair for her work. The paintings this year at the State Fair were exceedingly fine, as a special effort was made to secure only those that were of exceptional quality. Mrs. Dedman had several handsome paintings of her large collection, on exhibition which were two of portrait, two of still life, two of flowers, and one of scenery.

The first prize on still life paintings was awarded to her, and was also awarded the second prize on flowers. Mrs. Dedman is planning to have a large number of her paintings, and also tapestry, at the County Fair. She has made a study of art for the past 15 years, and will study under one of the leading artists at Chicago this winter from life, making a specialty of portrait work.

O. R. Mack, the merchant, is improving the appearance of his store building by placing a new eight-foot sidewalk in front of the building on First street. Mr. Mack is carrying a full line of furniture and notions. School opened here on Monday with a large attendance, considering the number of children who are still hopping and engaged in prune drying.

Professor F. Mitts, as superintendent, has given entire satisfaction here as principal and with his efficient corps of teachers. It is probable that the coming school year will be a very successful one. Miss Marion Swaby and Miss Florence Stittler are the teachers elected by the board this year and both are experienced teachers. The school building has been thoroughly renovated during the summer vacation, and the interior presents a very attractive appearance.

John Hurst, owner of the electric light plant, of Aurora, was in Canby on business Wednesday, and arranged for the installing of electric lights in several buildings here. A Kocher, the implement dealer, will have his large new building lighted by electric lights, and Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, the milliner, is also to have electric lights installed in her building immediately.

O. A. Barber, of Woodburn, was a Canby visitor Monday on his way home from Oregon City, where he had been on a business trip.

H. K. Tackelson met with an accident a few days ago which will lay him up for several weeks. Mr. Tackelson was engaged in cutting wood when a piece struck his arm and was such force that it caused a fracture of the bone. The arm was set by Dr. Dedman and Mr. Tackelson, although suffering with much pain, is getting along well.

Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson went to Portland on Tuesday, where she purchased a full line of millinery of the latest designs.

Word was received in Canby of the serious accident met by Mrs. Nordhausen, who resides near Aurora. Mrs. Nordhausen was seated in a vehicle near her home when several children dragging hop baskets passed her, which frightened her horse, causing it to run away and throwing Mrs. Nordhausen to the ground, who is now suffering with a broken collar bone.

Mr. Ketsalt's boy, residing near Mackburg, fell from a perch a few days ago and is now laid up with three fractured ribs and a severe shaking up.

The opening of C street has been commenced, and when that thoroughfare is opened, it will be a great convenience to the people on the south east of town. Adam Knight, the street commissioner, has a force of men on the road, who are pushing the work ahead.

Miss Helen Graham and Miss Mildred Wane, of this city, left on Thursday morning for Portland, where they will spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. J. Knight, the efficient clerk at the postoffice store, has resumed her position after a three month's vacation. During Mrs. Knight's absence, Miss Grace Patch, of this city, assisted with the work at the postoffice. The commission house of W. H. Bair is to be ornamented with a weather vane, which is the handiwork of Ed Kinzel. It is made of galvanized iron, and is an excellent sample of workmanship. The circular sphere is made of hammered galvanized iron, and this with the arrows are painted in attractive colors. The weather vane will be placed in position before the fair opens. The large, attractive sign, also constructed by Mr. Kinzel, is ready to be placed on the center of the building. Mr. Bair's commission house was recently completed, and is one of the large structures near the Southern Pacific depot. The building is 50x100 feet, with a full basement and two stories high.

Mrs. R. S. Coe left Wednesday for Portland, where she will visit with her son, R. S. Coe, and family, for a few days.

Miss Hattie Hutchinson and Mrs. Dugerness and family, who have been spending about three weeks near Monitor, Or., returned home Thursday.

The W. C. T. U. of the M. E. church met on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Harvey Douglas. A literary programme was rendered during the afternoon, including the Bible study, which is a great benefit to the members, and aids in interesting the women in their church work. There are 29 members belonging to the society, and deserve great credit for the work they have accomplished in the past year.

Mrs. W. C. Clark was the guest of Portland friends last week.

Mrs. L. C. Mox has returned from a three months' visit with friends in St. Paul, Minn.

J. B. Howard has purchased a home near Newport, and will soon leave Canby for his new home.

Mrs. A. H. Knight has been spending a few days with Portland friends.

Prof. Mitts has received word from the Post Office Department, at Washington, D. C., that only one school child from each family is allowed to call for mail, and only once a day.

Perry Meeks and family have moved to their farm south of Canby.

Henry Meeks and family have moved into the house recently vacated by Perry Meeks.

Clover seed hullers are doing a rushing business in this vicinity during the fine weather. One man having nearly 200 bushels.

Mrs. Mary Streje, of Portland, is visiting relatives here.

Wilbur Newbury presented his mother, Mrs. Dustin, with an elegant burner Perfection cook stove one day last week.

F. C. Wirtz and son Frank, were Portland visitors Monday.

Lyman Skinner, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with his parents on the farm.

August Schoer left Saturday afternoon for Oklahoma by freight. Mr. Schoer chartered a car and took all his household goods, farming implements, horses and cows and 2 acres of Clackamas County's choicest potatoes. Mrs. Schoer and daughter Alto will follow in a few days after visiting friends.

Supervisor Staebely is graveling the Kyle hill.

Wallace Woodcox is working in the wood camp on the river above town. Agnes Reif, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with her parents, of this place.

George M. Lazelle, of Twilight, was a visitor Monday.

William Blasel, of Oregon City, passed through town Sunday en route for Canby.

Alto Anthony almost severed one of his fingers one day last week in grinding a sickle for a mowing machine for Robert Brown, for whom he was working.

Dwight Parks, manager of the Union Tea Co., of Oregon City, was a guest at the Veteleto home Monday.

It is reported that Frank McArthur has sold his farm east of town.

Mrs. P. H. Mead and son Albert, of Central Point, were in town Monday afternoon.

Mr. McArthur will leave Sunday for Shelbyville, Cal., where he will spend a month visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles Newman and have a good goose and duck hunt. Mrs. McArthur will accompany him home on his return, she having been called to Shelbyville several weeks ago on account of a sick grandson.

What are you getting ready to exhibit at the County Fair?

Ed Stauber stepped on a nail several days ago and is just getting able to hobble around.

Special Rate to Gresham.

The O. W. P. Ry. Company will make a rate of 40 cents for the round trip to Gresham from this place during the Fair, October 7. A special car went from this city last year filled with Oregon City people who took in the exhibits.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houston, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses again more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones' drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
