MARQUAM.

Marquam is progressing rapidly; two new houses are nearing completion. Mrs. M. J. Stockwell is improving her lot by digging a well. We are glad to see Mrs. O. A. Marquam home again from Portland, where she has been visiting with her sister and her aunt.

We are all very proud of our teachers. The primary teacher is Miss W. Roake and the principal Mr. C. Anderson. They have won the good will of the children as well as of the parents.

Many from here attended the Canby fair; all report a splendid time.

H. A. Hibbard and family have moved on in the old Delph Meyers place. We miss them very much and especially their little son, Roscoe.

Mrs. Sylvia Speed and husband are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Marquam. Last Friday evening a surprise party was given them. About twenty-five young people were present and all declare they had a good time.

Our ninth grade has at last been established, and we have a class of two boys and four girls.

We are glad to see Mrs. Belle Skirvin up and around, after her illness of a week.

Mrs. Magie Bentley and daughters will occupy the house recently vacated by H. A. Hibbard's family.

A basket social will be given at the pavilion Saturday night, October 17, for the purpose of raising funds for the Tennis club. They intend to have their grounds prepared soon so they can play the few good days before winter sets in.

Our new preacher and his wife arrived last week and are settled in their new home.

Mr. J. E. Marquam and wife spent last Sunday at the home of William Miller, on Rock Creek.

Business meeting of the Epworth League met last Tuesday night at the M. E. church. A small crowd attended. However, we intend to have better attendance in the future.

Rick Eisenhart and family have moved to Silverton, where their son Merle attends school.

We thank the ladies and every one who helped clean the school house very much.

Miss Cora Hubbard has returned from Silverton and is now attending our school.

A pound party was given Rev. Hamlin and his wife last night. About fifteen were present and each one took a pound of groceries or other useful thing. All enjoyed the evening and many promised to return.

The school has been furnished with a new supply of winter wood.

Miss Jennie Marquam spent last Saturday night with her cousin, Miss Myrtle Albright.

Services at the M. E. church at 11 o'clock on Sunday; Sunday school at 10; Epworth League at 7, and preaching services at 8. Everybody come and hear our new minister.

HARDING GRANGE HAS WONDERFUL EXHIBITS

Annual Display at Logan Attracts Many Hundreds of People.

By O. D. Robbins.

LOGAN, Or., Oct. 14.—(Special Correspondence).—The weather was ideal on October 6 and 7 and large numbers of people from Logan and some from surrounding country made use of it to take in one or both days of the fair and enjoy themselves to the limit.

Considering that it was an off year in some respects, the visit of Jack Frost and some other discouraging things, the display was better than has been anticipated. In the woman's department, the exhibits of fancy work, which included carving by Mrs. Hagaman, was especially good. Besides the two mentioned, Mrs. A. F. Sloper, Mrs. Fred Bowman, Mrs. Geo. L. Carr and Mrs. F. Moser and Mrs. L. E. Robbins were exhibitors.

Le Funk, Fred Brown and O. D. Robbins had exhibits in the mechanical line. At the stock show, Le Funk had chickens, turkeys, and Cotswold sheep. J. F. Fullam had registered Cotswold sheep and A. O. Hollingsworth had registered Lincolnshire sheep. Mrs. L. E. Robbins had a coop of Leghorn chickens and J. M. Griffith had a Plymouth Rock rooster. Phillip Kohl and sons exhibited a registered Jersey cow and heifer.

When it came time to find the best farm team it seemed as though every farmer present was going to try for the prize. The contest was not quite so lively for the best brood mare with foal or for the best roaster.

To return to the general department, Fred Moser had a fine show of photographs and writing exhibit. There was a game of ball between the Logan Lobsters and the second team, to close the fair, the score being 6 to 14 in favor of the first team.

The judges in the General Department were John Berrett, O. D. Robbins and Henry Babler; in the Woman's Department, B. Corless, Mrs. Thomas Gray, Mrs. V. Hattan; baby show, Thomas Gray, Mrs. Withycomb and Mrs. S. I. Wilson. Seven were entered for the prizes and the judges had a long job. The stock judges were J. W. Allison, H. S. Anderson and A. A. Allen. Following is a list of the prizes and ribbons awarded:

Best general exhibit, first, O. D. Robbins, lamp; second, W. P. Kirchem, lamp. Best collection of grasses, first, O. D. Robbins, purse; second, W. P. Kirchem, purse. Best grain, first, O. D. Robbins, bill book. Vegetables, first, O. D. Robbins, potato fork; second, W. P. Kirchem, potato fork. Raw fruit, first, Mrs. A. Fallert, basket; second, O. D. Robbins, basket. School exhibit, Souse school, dictionary, machines and devices, first, Le Funk, butcher knife; second, Fred Brown, hammer, threshed grain, first, W. P. Kirchem, spring balance; second, L. Funk, spring balance.

Fancy work, first, Mrs. Withycomb, water set; second, Mrs. A. F. Sloper, chocolate set. Canned fruit, first, Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, dish; second, Mrs. O. D. Robbins, dish. Bread plate, White bread, first, Mrs. O. D. Robbins, bread plate; second, Mrs. A. Leek, platter. Jelly, first, Mrs. R. Kerr, jelly dishes; second, Mrs. E. Newkirk, jelly dishes. Preserved fruit, first, Mrs. P. Kohl, dish; second, Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, dish. Pickles, Mrs. A. Fallert, pickle dish. Butter, Mrs. L. Funk, butter molds. Cheese, Mrs. F. Moser, dish. Plants and flowers, Mrs. O. D. Robbins, vase.

Best farm team, first, W. M. Kirchem, halter; second, W. P. Kirchem, singlet. Brood mare and foal, first, H. Babler, brood; second, J. T. Fulman, brood. Roaster, first, W. P. Cramer, whip; second, F. P. Wilson, singlet. Lincolnshire sheep, A. O. Hollingsworth, bell; Cotswold sheep, J. T. Fullam, bell. Leghorn chickens, first, L. Funk, nest eggs; second, Mrs. O. D. Robbins, nest eggs. Plymouth Rock, first, E. J. M. Griffith, lice killer. Turkeys, first, H. Babler, poultry food; second, L. Funk, poultry food. Jersey cow, first, Phillip Kohl, milk pail; second, for Jersey heifer, Phillip Kohl, milk pail.

It would take too much time and space to give a list of the ribbons awarded for the many fine things in each subdivision. A large and life-like portrait of the late James Brown seemed to greet his old friends on the last day. Master Oliver Gerber was the youngest exhibitor, and carried off the blue ribbon on squashes.

BUYING RUBBER

There's a certain satisfaction in saying to a customer: "If this hot water bottle or fountain syringe doesn't last a year or is imperfect in any way we will give you a new one to replace it." We say it's a real pleasure to sell goods with such a perfect guarantee as this; and just such a guarantee goes with everything in rubber that we sell, excepting some of the very cheapest kinds, and we tell you about that, too.

We have all sorts of small cans of paint for brightening up things around the house. Here are a few:

- Enameloid, all colors, from 20c up, for chairs, bedsteads, etc.
- Varnish stain, from 15c up, for doors, etc.
- Stovepipe Enamel, 15c up.
- Floor Paint, 50c up.
- Japalac, 15c up.
- Alabastine, 50c pkg, for wall finish.
- Electro 40c pkg

We will gladly supply you with a color card of any of the above

CLARKES.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Glick and L. J. B. De La Roche took place Saturday, October 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hofstetter. This day was chosen in honor of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. Hofstetter, as her fortieth birthday. The marriage took place at high noon. The service was read by Rev. Bache, of the Methodist church. The bride was dressed in white and navy blue. After the ceremony an excellent dinner was served, which was heartily enjoyed by all the guests. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Before the departure of the guests, the wedding cake was cut and presented by the bride. A number of splendid and useful gifts were received, which the bride prizes very highly.

In the evening a number of young folks honored Mr. and Mrs. De La Roche with a nice serenade. The door opened and the young folk received a hearty welcome from the bride and groom. After an enjoyable evening was spent, refreshments were served, and all departed, wishing them much joy and happiness in their married life. Mr. and Mrs. De La Roche will make their future home in Portland.

SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK.

Harris Deardoff's place has been sold by Mr. Outback, a newcomer, who has recently been working in Alaska. Mr. Tong has also sold his place and bought a place at Firland.

Alex. Hunter is building a log cellar.

A sad thing occurred in our neighborhood last Sunday. The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson got hold of some pills that they had got for one of the older boys, and had eaten. It is supposed, a dozen before they found it out. The mother immediately gave an emetic, but he went into spasms and from one to another until he died at 4 o'clock Sunday evening. The parents are grief-stricken over their loss. The child's name was Jesse. If he had lived until Nov. 3, he would have been two years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Oleson were guests at their parents', Mr. and Mrs. O. Hunter's, last Sunday. They all spent a very pleasant time.

The farmers can now dig their potatoes, as the rain has moistened the earth and people won't probably need to haul water until next summer.

Mrs. J. H. Reid took dinner with Mrs. Bertha Deardoff last Saturday, it being her sixty-sixth birthday. Mrs. Lillian and Mrs. Elva Hunter, Mrs. Lydia Ellis and daughter Nita went and spent the afternoon with her, as she has been having lagrippe. They thought it better not to get a party. The presents were thankfully received.
