Roy McFarland has moved to Portland and will reside there.
Novelty and Fall and Winter Novelties. Miss Celia Goldsmith.
E. D. Kelly returned Saturday night from a month's visit with relatives in Michigan.

R. S. Cox, of Canby, was in Oregon City Friday, on his way to Gresham, where he attended the fair. Mr. Cox is one of the enthusiastic workers in the work of this kind, and was one of the active promoters of the county fair held at Canby. He returned to Oregon City Saturday and was accompanied by his wife, who has been visiting in Portland with relatives, and they both attended the fair at Maple Lane.

Miss Ethel Cheney, who has been visiting here, has returned to McMinnville, where she will spend a few days before returning to this city, and will be in partnership with her sister, Miss Edith Cheney, in the photograph business. Miss Cheney and Miss Boss Krum, who have been successful in the photograph business in McMinnville for several years, have disposed of their studio, and will also dispose of their home at that place. Miss Krum will go to Portland, where she will take up art during the winter.

Miss May Walker, who has been spending the past nine months with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Walker, of Twelfth and Madison streets, has returned to her home in Palo Alto, Calif. She was accompanied to California by her cousin, Miss Laura Shino, whose home is also in Palo Alto, and who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walker for the past four months. Miss Walker is delighted with Oregon and expects to return here next summer for an extended visit.

Good time to dig borers out of the tree trunks. Use a small knife and a flexible piece of wire.
A winter overcoat of straw manure is a good thing for the asparagus and rhubarb beds. Apply it now.

Both the big parties promise tariff reform soon after election, it will be of interest to all farmers to recall just what the duties are on their products. On hogs brought into the United States there is a duty of $1.50 per head; $20.00 per head and up on horses and mules; $2 to $14 per head on cattle; seventy-five cents to $1.50 per head on sheep; fifteen cents a bushel on oats; twenty-five cents a bushel on wheat; ten cents a bushel on corn; fifteen cents a bushel on buckwheat; thirty cents a bushel on barley; two cents a pound on rice; six cents a pound on butter or cheese; forty-five cents a bushel on beans; three cents each on cabbages; five cents a dozen on eggs; $4 a ton on hay; twenty cents a gallon on honey; twenty-five cents a bushel on potatoes; two cents a pound on lard and three cents a pound on poultry. Notwithstanding the above tariff on importations there were the past year $414,000,000 farm products brought in. There are corresponding duties on the things he buys.

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA. Last Saturday evening just after the 8 o'clock car had left for Canby, Agent P. S. Kelly of the O. W. P. Station of this place, was held up and robbed. While the car was at the station a number of town boys were around the freight room and when the car pulled out they left for up town. Mr. Kelly went from his office to the freight room, and as he opened the door, he was struck on the head by a blunt instrument. Later he was found by John and Tom Jones in an unconscious condition. His pockets had been rifled and an empty pocket-book was found on the rear platform. The highwayman did not take Kelly's watch nor did he disturb the bill containing the company's money. The only clue to the holdup is his tracks in the mud at the back of the depot. He wore new shoes, about No. 8, that were sharp-toed. The heel of the shoe had a peculiar cut and had not been purchased in Estacada. He was tracked down into the park and thence east to the high bridge, over which he went to the south through the Springwater country. He has not been traced further.

DAMASCUS. A nice shower of rain has appeared which seems nice after a dry spell. A large number of people attended the Clackamas and Multnomah County Fairs from this neighborhood and all report it splendid.

W. T. Cary and Miss Ruth Dale, both of this place, were united in marriage by the Rev. T. C. McPherson, in Portland, Wednesday, October 7. Mr. Cary is a prominent hardware merchant. The happy couple have begun housekeeping in the house formerly owned by Mr. Cary.

On Friday evening of last week a reception and fruit shower was given to Rev. and Mrs. Kuhlman, who recently arrived from New York City. Mr. Kuhlman is to take the place of Rev. Phronagian, who has been called from this place. Between 60 and 75 quarts of fruit were given. Refreshments were served, after which Mr. Bellis and Mrs. Adix entertained with musical selections. Everyone reports having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Rev. M. R. Paroungian and family left for Gresham, where he has been sent as pastor of the M. E. Church of that place.

Miss Mary and Stella Womer spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Oregon City.

P. J. Ward is moving his family to Portland this week.

Somebody looted the hen-roost of Ed. Scott, the painter, and departed with all of his chickens, with the exception of three old hens and a rooster. Ed says that if the person or persons will leave their car, he will call for the rest at any time.

I. A. Bonney, the photographer, and family, returned home Friday after spending a ten days' vacation with their parents at Hubbard.

Chas. Ferry secured the contract for painting the Stubbe bungalow. He expects to commence work, just as soon as he gets the material.

Guy Wilcox, of Springwater, was kicked last Saturday by a horse, below the knee. He was brought here and several stitches were taken by Dr. Adix.

Boys, don't charivari an empty house, it does not pay.

George Townsend is helping Mr. Kelly in the O. W. P. depot.

Mrs. Mollie Hughes, who has been nursing at the home of M. Curran, of Currieville, left for her home in Portland Friday.

Carl Cary fell down the steps at Ferry's hotel and received a few bad bruises.

Shrimp and Carle will give a dance at the pavilion on Saturday evening, October 17. Everybody invited.

EAGLE CREEK.

Rain, rain, is the order of the day. Mrs. A. E. Roberts, of Berkeley, Cal., was the guest of Mrs. Howlett Wednesday evening and Thursday of last week.

Miss Elsie Hatz and Mrs. R. B. Gibson called on Mrs. Howlett last Wednesday evening.

Miss Meda Murphy is on the sick list. We hope she will soon be able to be about again.

Mrs. Viola Douglas, son Ed, and daughter Bina, Henan Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, attended the Grand fair at Gresham last Friday.

There was a sort of a family reunion at James Gibson's on Sunday. Four of his children with their families, and his son Heman, taking dinner with him.

Mr. Lazarus has been reinstated as foreman of the Sellwood Lumber Company.

Henry Udell and family intend to move down and make their home with James Gibson this winter. Mr. Udell will work for the Sellwood Lumber company.

Miss Carrie Ellis, of Boyd, is the guest of Mrs. L. A. Woodie. Miss Ellis is a lady preacher of the Advent Christian denomination and will hold services at the school house this week, and also next Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

BARTON.

What might have been a serious runaway occurred here Sunday evening. As Miss Dora Gibson alighted from her buggy to open the gate, the horse became startled and ran, throwing little Hazel and breaking up the buggy some. Miss Hazel's head received a bump some smaller than a hay stack and she will remember that day for 50 years.

We are supposed to have our new school ground surveyed this week. Twice it has been reported that the building contract had been let, but a director said Sunday it had not been let.

Roy Waters is still sawing lumber at the Drake Mill.

Roy Glover will finish taking wood out of the river in ten days.

Roy Davis is hauling cordwood.

Roy White is still farming.

Roy Cooper is E. Phurub Unum.

Roy Kerr is East with his mother.

There are a lot more Roes around here, but for lack of stationery we must omit further items.

Mr. Kingsbury, of Portland who has been looking something on a piece of land which he owns, two miles west of this place, died in Portland last week.

Verne Ward, a brother of H. S., moved out from Portland last week and will make this his home for some time.

A sister and family of the Wards is expected to come here from Michigan.

WOMANLY WISDOM.

Lift up! Give a word of good cheer! Lend a hand and make the world better for your having had a place in it.

Rest your weary bones by having a chair in the kitchen to sit in while doing the work you can do in that way.

If blankets are rather too short sew a piece of stout muslin or Canton flannel to one end for the "tick in."

You will spill your rice china washing it in water that is too hot. Have the water fairly warm. Use a bit of soap and you are all right. No cracked china then.

OUR FARMERS' PAGE.

ENTERPRISE READERS ARE INVITED TO CONTRIBUTE AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL, LIVESTOCK, POULTRY, DAIRY OR "BIG CROP" ITEMS FOR THIS DEPARTMENT.

A Profitable Crop in the Northwest. The second factor making for the new prosperity may be termed the "discovery of flax." For years there had been a few scattered flax fields, but it was only in the middle '90s that the Northwestern Pioneer awoke to the discovery that flaxseed oil was a more truly golden hue, not only than the wheat field, but than any gold-bearing quartz California ever saw.

And so the endless golden yellow of the fields in August and the tinkling bells in September, or the flax field.

Those who have never heard of the ringing of the flax bells have missed a truly wonderful sensation. The round seed pods, smaller than peas, which contain the seed, give a faint metallic sound which as one drives or walks through a field, setting thousands in motion, seems like myriads of infinitesimal bells tinkling so faintly as to be all but inaudible. Nor is the mere sight of a flax field in the mellow August soon to be forgotten. Imagine a 100-acre field, filled with flowers of blue more delicate than violets. And of its profitable character one illustration will suffice. In June, 1900, Ole Janssen bought 160 acres in the heart of the great flax belt for $10 an acre on the crop payment plan. Ole "broke up" that fall and the next spring 135 acres and planted it in flax. In round numbers, he thrashed in the fall eighteen and one-half bushels to the acre; sold it for $1.25; a bushel; total, $22,500; a little more than twice enough to pay for his land out of his first crop. Not only was the flax immensely profitable itself, but it removed from the country the stigma, "one-crop country."

Buried Seed. The Department of Agriculture has undertaken a series of experiments intended to answer, if possible, the old question, "How long can seeds remain buried in the soil and still retain their power of germination?" Many extraordinary stories have been told of the prolongation of the vitality of seeds during many years, and even centuries, but very few actual experiments have hitherto been made.

Dr. Beal has reported that he has found seeds that responded to germination tests after having been buried twenty years. The seeds buried by the experts of the Agricultural department at the Arlington farm last year were packed with dry clay in porous clay pots, covered with saucers and placed at various depths from 6 inches to 2 1/2 feet. There are 32 complete sets, in 2584 pots, representing 100 species, 84 genera and 34 families. Tests are to be made at the end of one, two, three, five, seven, ten, fifteen, twenty, thirty, forty, fifty, sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety, and one hundred years.

Do not prune the new raspberry and blackberry canes until next spring. The old canes should have been cut out a month or so ago (as we then advised), but the work may be done even now, if you neglected it.

Clean up all the trash in the orchard. Mow the weeds (these shouldn't be any). Burn all rubbish. Then owls and hawks, cats and crows can readily see and catch all field mice. Lastly, show this paper to your neighbor and ask him to subscribe; thus you can do him and us a favor at one swoop.

Storing vegetables. Onions: Store in a loft rather than in the cellar. In the latter they will sprout, to their injury. A few parsnips for winter may be lifted, and stored in sand in the cellar; but as freezing sweetens them, it is best to leave many of them outdoors for later use. Potatoes: Store in bins one foot to eighteen inches deep, raised somewhat from the floor. Do not bruise or they will be likely to rot. Roots in the nature of salsify and horseradish, freezing does not hurt, so the main lot may stay out where grown; but some should be dug and put in earth in the cellar for winter use. Spinach: Cover lightly with litter before winter. Sweet potatoes: Pack in boxes of dry earth, not having the roots touch each other; then store the boxes in a dry frost-proof place.

Prepare for early frosts.

When Buying An Umbrella

You want one that will not soak through and get you wet. We have them. Carry a "Rainproof" and you may stay out in the rain for hours at a time; give your umbrella a shake and the water all disappears. Rainproofs cost you no more than other umbrellas and think of what you are saving.

The covers do not soak up and split, thus preventing ribs from rusting and breaking. Any handle that works loose we will gladly fasten free of charge.

We engrave all umbrellas we sell free, making it almost impossible to lose them. A good big umbrella guaranteed not to fade, $1.00, $1.50.

Rainproofs guaranteed not to crack or fade; Ladies and Gents', $2.00 to $10.00.
