REED MUST PAY $1,000

FORMER MAYOR OF ESTACADA GUILTY OF FRAUD IN COUNTY ELECTION.

SUPREME COURT ACTS

Reed Colonized Voters for the Purpose of Controlling the Election on Liquor Question in Sellwood Precinct.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment against former Mayor J. W. Reed, of Estacada, who was convicted of election frauds in colonizing voters for the purpose of controlling the election in precinct 37, in Multnomah county. The charge and proof against Reed was that he procured Harry Young to remove to precinct 37, the night before the June election, 1906, for the purpose of voting on the liquor question which was submitted in that precinct at that time. Young voted on that question and for state, county and precinct officers as well. After trial before Judge A. L. Frazer, Reed was found guilty. He appealed, assigning as his principal ground for appeal the denial of his motion for a directed verdict of acquittal. His contention was that though a vote is taken on the liquor question at a general election, the election, so far as the liquor question is concerned, is a special election. The statute providing a penalty for inducing a voter to remove from one precinct to another applies only to general elections.
