TAFT GETS CLACKAMAS

REPUBLICAN TICKET HAS A MAJORITY OF 903.

RESULT IS SURPRISING

Bryan Receives Heavy Vote in Oregon City Precincts, But Country Falls in Line With the Republicans.

The vote in Clackamas County Tuesday was not heavy, but came up to expectations. The result is rather surprising, but not even the most sanguine Republicans supposed that Taft would have had more than 500 in the county. Democratic money went begging on election day, and the Bryanites had the Republicans bluffed to a standstill on the proposition that Taft would carry the county by 500.

Hundreds of people sought points of vantage where election returns were being received Tuesday night. Crowds thronged the Arcade Theatre and blocked the street in front of it loudly cheering when returns were read. The Arcade management arranged for a direct Western Union wire, and received early news. Down at the Riverfront Bank returns were also received, while scores of Democrats crowded the law office of O. D. Eby, where news was received by telephone.

The first precinct to come in giving the local vote was West Oregon City, showing a plurality of 11 votes for Bryan. This was an indication that Bryan had carried Clackamas, for West Oregon City ordinarily returns a Republican majority of 50. The three Oregon City precincts gave Taft a plurality of less than 100, and Bryan received practically the solid mill vote. But when the country returns began to come in, a difference was at once noticeable. Up to midnight returns from 28 precincts had been received, giving Taft 2179 and Bryan 1517, a lead of 642 for the Republican candidate. The complete unofficial returns give Taft a plurality of 903. The precincts heard from are:

BUT EVANGELIST DAN SHANNON DELIVERS THE GOODS FROM THE SHOULDER STRAIGHT.

HITS TELLING BLOWS

Daily Meetings at the Baptist Church Are Full of Enthusiasm and 170 People Have Been Converted.

Large results are attending the revival effort at the First Baptist Church. There are now 170 reported conversions. Last Sunday 31 received the right hand of fellowship and Tuesday evening 12 more were baptized. Oregon City and suburbs are moved as a result of these meetings. Many people are no longer criticizing the evangelist's methods of work and labors, but they are falling right in line and helping out. His peculiar method of work is overlooked especially since so many are being helped. Shannon sways the people with his preaching and while there is a great deal of criticism in it, one cannot help feeling a deep understanding of earnestness and feeling.

COAL PROPERTY AT MARQUAM.

J. E. Jack Reports Conditions Bright in That Section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jack returned from their trip last evening. They have been visiting relatives at Marquam, Silverton, Mount Angel and Scott's Mills. Mr. Jack visited the coal mines at Scott's Mills, which is in close proximity to his property, and says great headway is being made. The main ledge has not yet been struck, but it is expected that this will occur at any time, and at present the workmen are engaged in drilling. They have reached a depth of 800 feet, and the prospect is bright for those who are interested. Modern machinery for drilling, including compressed air drills, are on the grounds, and the work will be pushed along as rapidly as possible. Mr. Jack says that the country surrounding Marquam is excellent for the culture of walnuts, and that an Eastern firm has 60 acres in walnut trees, and that 60 more acres will be put in, which will make 120 acres in English walnuts. This will be the largest walnut farm in the state. The company purchased the 60 acres, now under cultivation, about four years ago, and the trees, which are three years old, are thriving well. Rev. Chapman, who came to Oregon for his health, has charge of the company's walnut farm, and is very much encouraged over the company's outlook.

DOG TRAINER IS HOME.

Owner of the Famous Maximo Will Spend Winter Here.

Elmer Farr has returned to Oregon City and will spend the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Farr. Mr. Farr has been connected with the Nat. Reia Carnival Company for the past two years, and has traveled through the Western States, Canada and Mexico. The company is now wintering in Twin Falls, Idaho, the last place where the show exhibited. Mr. Farr brought with him his two famous Maximos, and expects to join the company in Idaho in the early spring. The dogs that Mr. Farr has trained give the double jumping act. He was formerly owner of the well-known Maximo that gave high jumping acts at the Oaks several years ago, but this dog was poisoned in Oregon City after its engagement at that resort.

NEW MEMBERS AT ABERNETHY.

Captain Apperson and T. R. A. Sellwood Give Talks of Interest.

Abernethy Grange met Saturday in regular session. The forenoon was taken up with the transaction of business of the organization. There was an unusual number of applicants, being ten in all, and it is probable that they will be initiated at the next meeting. At noon a hot dinner was enjoyed in the dining room adjoining the assembly room, after which the lecturer's hour was taken up. The afternoon session was opened with a prayer by the grantee, followed by an address by the Worthy Master, Captain J. T. Apperson. Mr. Apperson, who recently returned from an extended eastern trip, spoke on the beauty of Niagara Falls, and of the scenery from Buffalo to Niagara. He gave his listeners an excellent idea of the beauty of this great waterfall, and of other scenery of New York. T. R. A. Sellwood, of Milwaukie, was present at this meeting, and gave a talk upon the Oregon scenery, his remarks being greatly appreciated by his audience.

Brain's Ankle Bone Splintered.

William Brain, an employe of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, slipped and fell on a piece of tin last Friday night while walking past the sulphite storeroom. A bone in his right ankle was splintered and he will not be able to walk for about six weeks. Mr. Brain is confined to his bed at his home in Canemah.

Mr. Bradley Sells Interest.

The interest of George W. Bradley in the Pioneer Transfer Company has been purchased by W. E. Young, who was formerly a well known Clackamas County school teacher and has been farming for a number of years. J. G. Wood will retain his interest in the company. Mr. Bradley may leave for Klamath Falls, Or., to go into the moving picture business.

HUMANE SOCIETY MEETS.

Re-elects Officers For the Coming Year's Work.

Miss Anita Hensley McCarver delivered the following address Monday night at the annual meeting of the Clackamas County Humane Society in the parlors of the Bank of Oregon City. Miss McCarver is president of the association. The Clackamas County Humane Society was organized October 10, 1888, for the purpose of preventing cruelty to helpless children and dumb animals. Through the efforts of the society two beautiful drinking fountains have been installed in Oregon City, and much good has been done in relieving brute creatures from cruel treatment. The society feels under obligations to Mr. Darwin Bradley, who has kindly acted as humane officer for the past two years without compensation. The demands upon the growth of the city, and many times hours ago spent and repeated trips by the officers made before the results are obtained. "In view of the public good accomplished by the officer, it is the sentiment of the society that he should receive some pay from the city. The society does not ask for a large fund to maintain the work; yet, while the members are giving much valuable time and influence for the benefit of suffering creatures and the public good, the request that the humane officer be paid from the city's funds seems deserving and just. "The society is doing all in its power to carry out the object for which it was organized, but could do a great more were the financial conditions more favorable. An increased membership list would be much appreciated. In conclusion, we cannot forget the many courtesies extended to our society through the columns of the press and vote of thanks is hereby expressed. "All the officers of the Society were re-elected.

WARREN CASE ON TRIAL.

Publicity Man Sues Railway Company For $10,000 Damages.

The damage suit of Charles A. Warren against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for $10,000 was on trial in the Circuit Court Wednesday. The company confessed its liability and it is up to Judge McBride to assess the amount of the damages. He has taken the matter under advisement and will render a decision next week. Warren, while riding from Portland to Gladstone, became engaged in an altercation with a conductor over the payment of his fare, and was struck by the carman, who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery and paid a fine. Warren is manager of the Warren Publicity Company of Portland.

BUSY TIME FOR COURT

MANY IMPORTANT CASES SET FOR TRIAL AT REGULAR NOVEMBER TERM.

HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS

Matt Jancigaj to Defend His Life on Charge of Murdering 16-Year Old Mary Bmerkar in Cold Blood.

Not in many years has there been such a large number of unusually interesting cases on the docket for a regular term of circuit court in Clackamas County. The November term opened Monday, and from the venire of 31 Jurors, the following grand jury was selected:

E. W. Scott, foreman; R. A. Looney, J. H. Tracy, Geo. E. Morse, Eli Fel-lows, William Todd, Thomas Turner. The first murder trial in four years will be heard at this term. Matt Jancigaj is charged with the murder of Mary Smrekar, a 16-year old girl, who was killed by the Slavonian at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smrekar, last July. Jancigaj was infatuated with the girl, who spurned his advances. Going to her home at midnight, Jancigaj climbed a ladder and gained entrance to her room, and there shot her to death. The murderer fled, and though the officers searched for him all night, he was found a refuge at the home of a countryman only four blocks from the scene of his crime. The next morning he gave himself up to the police. The evidence against him is so conclusive that there is little question of his conviction.

August Erickson, whose former connection with a North End resort at Portland is well known, and who for the last year has been conducting Clackamas Tavern, will be placed on trial on a charge of selling liquor without a license. The chief witness for the state is Constable Miles, who purchased beer and whisky at the tavern from Erickson himself. Three Indians, Albert and Louisa Ferris and Harry Clark, are held in jail to answer to charges of burglary. John Wallace is charged with grand larceny, and P. J. Wilson and Paul Schroeder will be tried for statutory offenses.

Two damage cases are exciting particular interest, those of Mrs. Rose Nehren against Ernest Mathies and George Jorgi against the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. Jorgi was employed in the mill and broke his leg there. He claims $10,450 for his injury and $10,000 more for the alleged unskillfulness of the physician. It is stated by Jorgi's attorney, Iken & Schuebel, that the officials of the company were well aware that Dr. Carl was incompetent and there will be offered in evidence a number of X-ray photographs.

The damage suit of Mrs. Rose Nehren against Ernest Mathies will be on trial this week, and on Friday the jury will hear the damage suit of George Jorgi against the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. This suit will probably occupy two days. During the following week of the court may hear a number of criminal cases. The suit for damages of Dr. E. A. Sommer against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is set for trial on November 16. Dr. Sommer's buggy was smashed on the Canemah road by collision with a car. On November 17 the suit of the First National Bank of Oregon City against J. T. Apperson, Thomas Charman, H. H. Johnson and Henry Meldrum will be on trial. This is a suit on a promissory note and the amount involved is something like $8000. Apperson and Charman were sureties on the note.
