

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MULINO.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday. Mulino was visited by heavy showers Friday afternoon, the rain coming down in torrents.

The Halloween party at Mr. Lee's Saturday night was a pleasant affair and greatly enjoyed by our young people.

Lewis Churchill was helping Charles Daniels butcher Friday. No school this week on account of the Institute.

Next Tuesday will settle the agency over the election and the defeated candidate can take a rest.

Archie Davis is spending a few days at home this week. Mr. Douglas had a break-down Saturday while hauling a load of lumber, one wheel of his wagon losing a tire.

The Mulino shingle mill has been idle for several days, but expects to resume work Wednesday. They are turning out five grade of shingles.

Mulino has a new blacksmith, who is a welcome addition to her population.

WILSONVILLE.

Quite a gloom was cast over this vicinity Monday, when it was learned by wire that Fred Phrol, former superintendent of bridge construction here, had died after an operation for gall stones, at 3:30 o'clock. At the time of his death he was general road master of the Oregon Electric line and lived at his home in Portland. Mr. Phrol had made many friends while here, both in a business and social way.

Sara Hillman was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Saturday, but it was found no good could be done. Mr. Hillman has been ill for the last year with paralysis and stomach trouble. He will return to his home in Sherwood soon.

Miss Emma Rieder, who was taken to St. Vincent's hospital by Dr. Ben. Ciesy, of Aurora, and operated on for appendicitis last week, is doing very nicely and will soon return home.

MOLALLA.

The railroad situation seems to be about that; if Molalla is to have such a thing in the near future the people will help build it, and when Molalla wants a railroad somewhere but enough to help build it, why it will surely be done. Now it looks as though the rainy season had set in for some time, and are not near ready for such a condition.

Come to think about it, tomorrow is presidential election day, almost forgot the occasion. Since reading the last account of the probability of Taft and Bryan both being elected with a good running show for several other candidates.

Mrs. S. E. Parker, of Cottage Grove, attended the reunion of the "Three Sisters" at Mrs. R. R. Thomas' and Mrs. M. B. Lett, on account of the birthdays of the two former sisters being on the 2d and 4th of November. Mrs. Parker owns a bakery and grocery store at Cottage Grove and will return home next Monday.

R. J. Moore had a close call for his life last week. A spring seat fell against his old gentle horse which frightened the animal that he sidled around, turning the wagon over and ran away. Mr. Moore was picked up with the "vital ego" nearly gone. Fortunately he was soon up and about again.

Mr. Mallatt, of North Molalla, has his new dwelling house nearly ready to move into and now he has a new house and barn.

Abraham Russell has moved into the Boyles residence and is master mechanic in the P. M. Boyles Shop, which he has purchased.

J. W. Thomas went to Oregon City last week, for an electric light plant, which he expects to have installed at the Oak Point Farm, by Thanksgiving day.

Lomis Nightengale, who was operated on some time ago for an abscess in the head, caused by grip, is slowly recovering.

JOHN W. THOMAS, DENTIST, Molalla Mondays.

CLARKES.

Frank Bingo left for Portland Wednesday. We heard a very interesting story.

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

CANBY.

Canby was unusually quiet on election day, but the streets were filled with people who had come to cast their vote for the president of the United States. The polls were opened at 8 o'clock and closed at 7 P. M. The best of order was maintained at the polls. One of the voters appeared at the polls wearing a political badge, but he was reminded of the fact by the judges, and immediately removed it from his coat. H. C. Gilmore acted as deputy sheriff during the voting. There were two election boards, one serving during the day, and the other during the night. Those who served during the day were Al Vinayard, D. R. Dinalek, Warren C. Kendall, Judges; C. N. Walt, J. A. Graham, L. E. Grazer, clerks. The night board consisted of H. A. Lee, Chairman, C. R. Bates, Leroy Walker, Judges; Howard Eccles, L. E. Grazer, clerks. The following: Taft (Republican), 114; Bryan (Democratic), 71; Eugene Chafin (Prohibitionist), 8; Eugene Debs (Socialist), 5; Thomas Hagen (Independent), 2.

Mrs. J. L. Waldron, of Oregon City, was in Canby on Sunday visiting with her mother, Mrs. L. T. Batten. She returned to her home on the evening train.

Grandma Blacker, mother of Mrs. James Evans, is lying very ill at the Evans home in this city. Mrs. Blacker, who is 80 years of age, is well known here, and her condition is serious.

Mrs. Marnie Knight went to Portland Saturday on business. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Walker drove to Oregon City Thursday evening after banking hours.

Mrs. Jennie Roelofs spent several days with Portland friends last week. Mrs. W. E. Bassell and children visited relatives in Wilsonville last week. Mrs. Wm. Grant returned to her home in Seattle Friday after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Claude Batey is on the sick list. Pete Vandervee moved back on Tuesday morning.

Miss Bertha Holeman and Adolph Forster were married on Wednesday, October 25.

Mrs. Vandervee went to Portland on Saturday to visit with friends and relatives, and returned Tuesday morning. Mrs. Vandervee was accompanied by her niece, who will visit here for a few weeks.

Miss Maud Fasson, of Harrisburg, Oregon, is the guest of the Misses Annie and Vernie Porter Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Hougham has sold her farm for $10,000 to Dr. Snider, of Creswell. The farm is one of the best in Clackamas County, and consists of 104 acres. Mrs. Hougham has moved to Canby and is occupying the place in town, and Mr. Snider has taken possession of his new home.

The Misses Mildred Wang, Nellie Hampton, Ida Krueger, Roland Porter, Mrs. E. E. Hutchinson, Nellie Hampton, Mildred Wang, Mattie Summerfield, Fay Delashmitt, Tilla Mathum, Mabel Saltmarsh, Iva Hutchinson, Carl Krueger, Herbert Hutchings, Carl Smith, Ruby Smith, Tom DeLong, Fred Hutchinson, Roland Porter, C. Harris, Chester, Fred Hampton, Fred Mahlon, Walter Krueger, Frank Patch, Otto Cantrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Obbs, of Oregon City, were up to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Gilbert Noe, which took place on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. O. B. Bates, and was very pleasant. The services were held by Rev. H. B. Bair.

Mrs. Eckerston and daughter, Alma, went to Portland to spend the remainder of the week with relatives. Mrs. Frederick went to Portland on Friday evening to visit her niece, Mrs. Carr, returning home on Sunday evening.

Misses Maud Wasson, of Harrisburg, and Miss Vernie Porter, of this city, went to Portland Wednesday morning, the latter returning Thursday evening. The entertainment given by Charles Riley McCauley under the auspices of the Canby band at the Knight hall on Monday evening was well attended. There was some misunderstanding in arranging for a piano, and it was disappointed. Upon arriving at Canby that such had not been procured, and he was obliged to omit several of his best numbers. Mr. McCauley has been giving a series of entertainments in the county and has met with success. His entertainments were well attended, and appreciated by his audiences.

The Canby whist club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Bradt on Wednesday evening, October 28. This was the first meeting of the club since last winter, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The next meeting will be given by Mrs. J. H. Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paddock, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. A. J. Knight, Mrs. Harriet Bates, Mrs. Ralph Knight and Arthur Knight.

Chet Cox has gone to Seattle, where he will visit with his sister. The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Bates and on next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Koerber. The W. C. T. U. of the M. E. Church are preparing for their first gold medal contest, which will be held early in December. There will be five contestants, who are Crissie Zeek, Frances Springer, Maude Chase, Rex Brown and Florence Knight. Each of these have already won silver medals, and it is probable that they will win the gold medals, and it is probable that the people of Canby will assist them in securing the prizes.

School has closed this week on account of the teachers attending the Institute in the Barclay High School building in Oregon City. On Wednesday, out of respect for Prof. Mitts, sister, Mrs. Albert Noe, whose funeral was held in this city, the school was closed, and many of the school children and teachers attended the services at the M. E. church.

Canby is experiencing a moving period this week, and as soon as a house is vacated there is a really long waiting list. First to go this week move from the Zeek house to the Grant White house; Grant White to the Bernoser place; James Wilkerson from the Saltmarsh place to the house vacated by the family of Jack Howard; Mr. Maggini will probably move to the Saltmarsh house, and Skyles Taylor to the Maggini place, and we are glad to say that moving stops here for awhile, as Mr. Taylor is a bachelor and a recent arrival here, so we presume that this is his first experience in moving and has not the least objection to him for someone else to move into.

The A. O. U. W. will have an open meeting in the hall on Tuesday evening, and those who are interested in life insurance, especially fraternal, are invited to attend. The principal speaker at the evening will be F. L. Bobb, and P. H. J. Baker, of the organization, and who is considered an excellent speaker.

While going up the Aurora hill this week a young man and his mother were in a buggy and were on the bridge, when they saw a runaway horse jumping the barrier. The young man tried to get out of the way, and turning his horse he was struck by the team. He was thrown about 40 feet in the air and had his shoulder badly crushed and his leg broken. The woman was also thrown, and even after the last breath was drawn. The buggy was badly damaged.

The Rebekah Lodge met in regular session on Tuesday evening, and there were four members taken into the order, who are Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Tack and Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland. The evening was very enjoyable, and was witnessed by many of the members. Following the initiation a banquet was served, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

James Evans, a well-known resident of this city, who has been confined to his home for some time, has been taken worse during the week, and his daughter, Mrs. Burgoine, of Portland, has come to be at his bedside. During the summer Mr. Evans had a stroke of apoplexy, and has never recovered from the stroke. Dr. Strickland, of Oregon City, was summoned to his bedside, and a consultation held with the attending physician.

W. P. Weisman, who has been at Newport for the past three weeks, where he went to assist the family of Jack Howard in getting settled in their new home, returned to Canby on Tuesday evening. He will be accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Weisman, who left on Wednesday afternoon's train for Portland on a business trip.

John Daly has returned from a visit to his old home in Missouri, having come by way of California. Before returning here Mr. Daly visited in New York.

The son of Daniel Kruef, who lives near Neely, while playing at school fell in such a manner that his leg was broken. A physician was summoned, who set the limb, and he is getting along as well as can be expected.

A small dog, white standing near the car track at the depot on Wednesday was struck by a northbound train, and his hind legs were cut off. The poor animal, to relieve his suffering, was shot by a bystander.

Wilson Evans expects to move into his new home in Canby, near the depot, on Wednesday. The house is of five rooms, and is a very neat structure.

O. R. Mack, the furniture man of Canby, made a business trip to Portland on Thursday.

Wesley Riggs has returned from his hunting trip. The party he accompanied met with success, and brought back with them one deer, and a timber wolf, the largest that has been killed for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Castro, well known residents of Neely, were in Canby on Wednesday, having come here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gilbert Noe. While in this city they were the guests of Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson. Mr. Castro, who has rented part of his farm, which lies in the lowland, to Mr. Yoder, says that the onion crop this year was good, and that Mr. Yoder will harvest about 200,000 pounds this year. The soil in that section is excellent for the raising of onions and potatoes.

Mrs. Ray Cochran and son, visited Mrs. G. W. Kesseling Tuesday. They were on their way to Neely, where they are to visit with Mr. Cochran's parents for a few weeks.

The services of the M. E. church will be held as follows on Sunday: Sunday school, 10 o'clock; morning service, 11 o'clock; and evening service, 7:30 o'clock. The topic for the evening service will be "The Modern Progression"; Rev. J. W. Weber has contracted for six missionary entertainments to be given this Fall and Winter. These entertainments will be instructive; and each entertainment will be given at each point of the circuit in the church. There will be illustrations of from 80 to 100 years each. The first will be given in December and will be "The Land of the Koran," or "Modern Turkey"; January work, "The Deacon's Work of the M. E. Church"; February, "The Hill Cities of the Himalayas"; April, "The Land of Incus, or From Panama to Cape Horn"; May, "The Social Problem and World's Evangelism"; June, "Japan and the Japanese."

Two of the young men of Canby, who were violating the law on Tuesday evening, stopped in front of Rev. Weber's residence, and were causing a great deal of trouble by firing their pistols, when they had purchased from a town near by. After finishing the bottles they threw them into the minister's yard, making slighting remarks of the minister while doing so. The boys are not of age, and the men who are selling them the liquor are running a risk of heavy fine, and it is said that an investigation will be made to find out who is violating the ordinance prohibiting minors from purchasing liquor, and the parties brought to justice.

A slight worth seeing will take place on the streets of Canby Sunday morning, when the presidential bet between Ralph Knight and Millard J. Lee will be carried out. The bet was that if Bryan was elected, Mr. Knight was to procure a wheelbarrow and wheel Mr. Lee, and if Mr. Taft was elected, Mr. Knight would have the ride. Mr. Taft was elected Mr. Knight will have the pleasure of riding on the band wagon. The distance is to

DEATH OF MRS. J. G. NOE.

Mrs. Julia R. Noe, wife of Prof. J. G. Noe, and eldest daughter of J. E. and E. J. Mitts, died at her temporary home two miles east of Needy, Clackamas County, Oregon, November 2, 1908.

The deceased was born at Canby, seven miles south of Oregon City, on March 17, 1878, where she lived with her parents for about two years, after which the family moved to the present home, two miles east of Needy.

Ever as she was familiarly known, attended the district school in company with her brother and sisters until she reached the age of fifteen, receiving a good common school education. During her whole life she was always active in social circles and was dearly loved by all who knew her. On March 17, 1901, she was married at Woodburn, Oregon, to Prof. J. G. Noe, son of the late J. B. Noe, who died a few years ago as the result of a severe accident. Since their marriage they have resided in the vicinity of Needy.

Her death came as a great shock to her relatives and friends. The cause of death was septic poisoning. Her last moments were of the most peaceful order. She told those at her bedside that she was going home, and passed away without a struggle, smiling, and even after the last breath was drawn.

Mrs. Noe leaves behind a heartbroken husband and one little daughter four years old, besides her grief-stricken parents, five brothers, who are Prof. Frank Mitts, of Canby, major of this city; Edward Joseph, George and Louis of Needy; and four sisters, Mrs. Frank Hilton, of Needy; Mrs. Warren Lee, of Canby; Misses Mary and Lillie Mitts, of Needy, and many other relatives, as well as scores of friends to mourn her demise.

The funeral, which was one of the largest ever held in Canby, was conducted by Rev. W. J. Weber, at the M. E. church. The beautiful white casket was laden with flowers by the loving friends and relatives of the deceased. The Rebekah Lodge, of which Mrs. Noe was a member, gave a handsome floral piece. There were in carriages in line of the cortege to the Mount Zion cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. At the grave the services were conducted by the Rebekah Lodge, and assisted by Rev. Weber. The pall bearers, who were friends of the deceased, were W. P. Weisman, W. H. Bair, Ralph Knight, Calvin Koerber, Adam Knight, Mr. Sutherland.

Mr. Eckers, one of the prominent farmers of Barlow, was in Canby on business Wednesday.

Born on Friday, October 30, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Penske.

The Artisans met in regular session on Thursday evening, and a novel way of answering to the roll call was either by recitation or vocal or instrumental music, which proved to be entertaining, and an excellent program was thus rendered. Many of the young people of Canby are members of this organization, and the meetings are always well attended.

James Ogden, one of Barlow's prominent citizens, was in Canby on Wednesday.

Mr. Brewer has commenced the construction of a cottage, which will cost about $1000 on his five acre tract.

Wesley Riggs has returned from his hunting trip.

John Daly has returned from a visit to his old home in Missouri.
