MRS. EFFIE B. ROBINSON SAYS MONEY MUST HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM BODY.

SHE OFFERS REWARD

Currency Was Pinned to Pocket in Clothes of F. A. Williamson, Who Died in the Woods Near Oswego.

In the firm belief that $1300 in currency was stolen from her father's body, Mrs. Effie B. Robinson has offered a reward of $100 for its recovery. Mrs. Robinson lives at Lents, Or., and it was through her persistent efforts that the identity of the man whose body was found over a month ago near Springbrook schoolhouse, three miles from Oswego, was established. He was F. A. Williamson.

Mrs. Robinson came to Oregon City Saturday, accompanied by her attorney, J. H. Hitchings and presented papers requesting her appointment as executor of her father's estate. Before her at the counter in the office of County Clerk Greenman was Attorney Heise, who has a client that believes the dead man was his brother. Mr. Heise, however, withdrew his papers, although they were signed by County Judge Dimick and announced that he would permit Mrs. Robinson to file, reserving the privilege of contesting her appointment.

There is apparently no doubt that Mrs. Robinson is Williamson's daughter, and the sole heir to his property, as she is his only living child. According to her story Williamson had resided at Texarkana, Tex., for the last three years and came to Portland to visit her. They came to Oregon City together August 7. He complained of feeling ill and wanted to go out in the woods.

Williamson was once a wealthy man, and had an interest in a bank at Appleton, Wis. In this institution he had $40,000 on deposit, but lost it in the crash of 1893, when the bank failed. He brooded over the loss of his fortune until his mind was affected, and having lost his faith in banks and bankers he persisted in carrying his money on his person. Before he left Portland for this city, he went to the First National Bank and had $1300 changed into 26 $50 currency notes.

Mrs. Robinson reconstituted with her father's daughter, and he was a large man, but Williamson had a large and finally she persuaded him to allow her to place the money in a rubber envelope, which she pinned on the inside of his waistcoat pocket. Besides this money, Williamson had $500 in gold in a buckskin sack.

Telling his daughter he would join her in Portland later, Williamson went across the bridge toward Oswego, and while in the woods prospecting he was stricken with an attack of heart disease, to which he was subject, and died. His body was not found until about six weeks later, and the cure was missing, as was the pin that fastened the money in his pocket. The gold was intact.

Mrs. Robinson and her attorney scout the theory that wood rats and squirrels are responsible for the disappearance of the money, and believe someone removed the currency from the body before its discovery was reported. The numbers of some of the bills are known and the banks have

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hathorn

Don't jeer at the attempts of others. You might discover that two can jeer at the same game.

When you really take pride in anything it is significant that you are doing it really well or are just an amateur.

It is sometimes hard to distinguish between laziness and fatigue, and the former doesn't see why any distinction should be made anyway.

Just Moral.
Observe the great high mogul—"The push," we say in slang—Who holds the tinor office—And runs the whole show—He with him for a season—And you will notice then—That he is made of common clay—The same as other men.

When finding his orders—He seems a man apart—And made of dust imported—But just as soon as he—And get an inner view—And you will see a fellow—Who's much like me or you.

His husband is no larger—Than common people wear—His brain is not much different—Nor of a texture rare—And he is just as peevish—Unreasoning and cross—When little things annoy him—As one who is not boss.

The job it is that makes him—Appear of different breed—A sort of superhuman—One fashioned to succeed—Just let a higher mogul—Attach to him a can—And then you will observe him—A very common man.

ONE WEAK SPOT.
Most Oregon City People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's The Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Pains follow every sudden twist. Dull aches keeps up, day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Cure backache and urinary ills. Dr. Warner, living in Ellyville, near Oregon City, Ore., says: "I had kidney trouble and diabetes. I suffered from backache day and night, and had to get up nearly every hour of the night to pass kidney secretions. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Huntley Bros.' drug store and in about a week after commencing to take them I could sleep through the entire night without the usual disturbance. All pain and other annoying symptoms soon ceased and I stopped taking the remedy. I had a slight recurrence of the trouble a few weeks later, but on using Doan's Kidney Pills again obtained immediate relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
