MILWAUKEE.

A special school election was held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Milwaukee school house for the purpose of electing a director to fill the unexpired term of the late Richard Scott. There were two candidates for this place, Mrs. Roberts and F. Birkmeier. Mr. Birkmeier won by a large majority. He has served the district as director for fifteen or sixteen years. His election is a recognition of his good work in the district during previous years.

The City Council met at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order by W. F. Lehman, the recorder, who presided owing to the fact that Mayor Shindler had gone to California. The bills for repairing crosswalks, graveling streets and work on bridges were allowed. The election judges were appointed as follows: Judge Robbins, William Grassley, Mr. Harlow, Sr., The clerk were Mr. Harlow, Jr., and Leo Shindler. Orders were also given that a contract be let for curtains to be painted for the new hall and for the finishing of the tinting work. Two more large lights for the main part of the hall were also ordered.

Judge J. R. Kelsy made a trip to Montezuma Saturday morning on the Harbor Belle, to visit his son, O. C. Kelsy, who is the chief engineer of the Harbor Belle. Mr. Kelsy also visited at Aberdeen and Hoquiam, returning Monday.

Mayor William Shindler left Saturday for San Francisco on a visit.

The tinting of the four rooms of the old school building has been completed. The Mothers' and Teachers'

Club have had this work done and will pay for it out of the Club funds.

The third Saturday of this month will be the regular meeting night of the Grange. A number of persons are expected to be initiated at this meeting and all members are requested to be present. The program is the same as outlined by the State Lecturer J. J. Johnson. Circulars and pamphlets have been received from Miss Marvin of the State Library Commission and every member is requested to get one of these and take part in the meeting.

On the evening of November 25, a masquerade ball will be given by the Woodmen, assisted by the Women of Woodcraft, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. The object of this dance is to raise sufficient money to buy a carpet for the Woodman Hall. The contract for painting, kalsomining and varnishing has been let to A. J. Walker. Mr. Walker expects to have the work done by Monday evening in time for the meeting which will be held that evening.

The Southern Pacific right of way man in Milwaukee this week appraising the property for the Beaver-ton Wiltburg cut off. Generally speaking the reports were not satisfied with the price offered.

Next Monday evening the L. O. F. lodge will hold a short meeting after which the Rebekahs will hold a meeting. Mrs. Mary Smith, State President will be present at this meeting and all members are requested to come.

A number of Rebekahs took the special car for Estacada Tuesday morning, where the district convention was held.

C. Kerr is putting up a building just back of the car shops. It will be occupied by A. G. Glidhill, who is going to install an overall factory. Mr. Glidhill intends to put in five sewing machines at first and expects to be able to compete with Portland prices on these goods.

The Fire Department has asked the city council to allow them to place the hose cart nearer the residence district. The Woodmen have offered them the land to put the building on and Mr. Wassinger gave them the right to use his store building as one of the walls. The present location of the cart is two feet away from the residence part of town, and this would be a good location for it.

Miss Ella Wheeler, of Oregon City, was in town Tuesday.

One of the most enjoyable affairs which has been held here for some time, was an informal reception which was tendered Nov. and Mrs. Shupp at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Boardman on Friday evening.

Almost every home in the entire neighborhood was represented, who came to extend their congratulations and best wishes to Rev. Shupp and his new wife. Games were indulged in by both old and young. The ladies were given a word to see which could make out the best menu, and a beautiful bouquet of carnations was given Mrs. Shupp for the best. Mrs. Flora H. Lincoln and Miss Mabel Morse were given worthy mention for their bills of fare. The gentlemen were given a piece of music to work a button hole and Mr. Post's was considered the best and a box of chocolates was given him for his efforts. Miss Allen Brown gave several of her selections and each one was so well received and greatly applauded she responded with one in the negro dialect, which her voice is so well adapted to. Mr. Elmer Boardman gave some choice selections of music on the graphophone, which was enjoyed by all. About sixty guests sat down to supper and too soon the hours slipped away, and as the guests departed for their homes they all wished Rev. Shupp and wife many years of happy wedded life.

REFLECTIONS ON "THE ONE-TALENT-MAN" OPPORTUNITY

"Into one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability."

Into every great city flows a turbulent river. It is the rush of the Country's young manhood, the flower of the Nation into the vortex of strife and contention. The pride and hope of many a home is borne along by the pitiless current. One by one they emerge—a famous statesman, a master of a fleet of merchantmen; the head of a great industrial enterprise; a thrifty tradesman; a successful banker. The talents that were theirs they multiplied a thousand fold. Theirs are the names that men glorify.

Beside him who rose many perished. The inexorable law demands progress; the only alternative is retrogression; there is no middle ground—life knows no passive state. The ending of growth is the beginning of decay.

A massive structure of steel and stone stretches its topmost story into the dizzy heights. In the great city are scores of them. Above the entrance, intelligibly, always a message is written. Thousands pass unheeding by. An ill-clad youth passed and read; to him the message was plain—O P P O R T U N I T Y. He entered. Here was the beginning of a great career. At the noontide of an eventful life he stood at the entrance again. Over the doorway was another inscription—HIS NAME. He had multiplied the talents that had been given into his keeping—he had entered into his reward.

Almost every magnificent structure that ornaments the great city marks the triumphant chapter of a successful business career. They are monuments to constant endeavor, steadiness of purpose, integrity and industry. None rises to the memory of the One-Talent-Man.

Throughout every great city, in every busy mart, at the portal of every great business house, is written "Opportunity." The place is seeking the young man as diligently as the young man is seeking the position. It is open to him who, with preparation, has armed himself for commercial strife. To the self-opinionated young man, whose stock in trade is pride and conceit, it is closed.

The great city calls to the [villages and country places. It invites the rich red blood that brings health and vigor to congested population. The farmer boy hears the call from afar. Let no hand restrain him. No hand can turn the river from its course. When the call comes let him have on the armor of preparation. Thus fortified he will not live his life in search of "OPPORTUNITY."

NOTE—The country population contributes its full share of statesmen, soldiers, professional and business men who rise to eminence. It is a long step from the farm to the office desk and many a lad falls in attempting it. Let him make the passage gradually and more safely. Below is offered the opportunity of coming in personal contact with business methods—of becoming, by the investment of a few dollars a part of a business concern. This opportunity doesn't present itself every day. It may never have come to you before. Perhaps your boy's future is giving you concern. A little practical schooling takes the place of a wagon load of books. Give the proposition below a moment's sober thought.

E. W. Mellien & Co., is a corporation, organized for the purpose of dealing in all merchandise needed in the complete equipment of a home. The stockholders elect three directors and they conduct the business through a manager selected by them. Par value of the stock is $10 per share and there are 600 shares unsold, which are now placed on the open market.

The public was not asked to take this stock at the beginning of the enterprise. It is offered now after the business is established and after the stock is on an actual earning basis of 10 per cent. January 1st, next, a statement will be prepared from the books of the corporation for the benefit of all stockholders, and this will show the stock to have an earning capacity at that time GREAT THAN 10 PER CENT. We venture this prediction and you will see the fact bear out the prediction. One year from January 1st, next, every share of the capital stock of E. W. MELLIEN & CO., now worth $10.00, will be worth $20.00, and will have an earning capacity of 20 per cent.

If you have not already guessed it we will later show you the object in distributing this stock instead of placing it in the hands of a few individuals. We are selling agents for this stock and invite your inquiry regarding it either in person or by letter. Call on or address
