TO THE PUBLIC

We wish to explain that owing to the continued sickness and failure in health of Mr. J. J. Levitt, proprietor and head of the firm, and the lack of his presence and management of late, the store has suffered a great loss for the management of Mr. Levitt, and owing to the uncertainty of his return we find ourselves forced to raise $6,000. Hence we take this way of appealing to the general public for sixteen days, as the entire stock, positively every article in the house, will be on sale at Bargains like you have never had the opportunity of taking advantage of in Oregon City before. Mr. Levitt advises us to sell precisely any and every article in the house and to take a loss rather than carry over any Winter stock.
